

him to become their pastor, at a salary of $1,000 per annum, signed by the com-

Ohio, to Warsaw, and being desirous of forming a church he induced Isaac Butler,

CHURCH OF CHRIST.

In 1849, Elder John Gordon moved from the Church at Jolaway, Knox Co.,

In the spring of 1865, Elders M. N. Lord and William McElwaine organized a

In October, 1867, the Church called Elder W. S. Windfield, who preached for

In 1870, the Church again employed J. B. Marshall, who labored with them

The present officers of the Church are: E. V. Peck, Elder; John R. Weiss and

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

This organization was begun by Rev. Edward Deeborough, deceased, with the

This society was constituted January 11, 1851, and first held religious services in

The first Deacons were S. B. Clark, J. J. Morris, A. J. Bates; Clerk, Clark Brandy.

The Sunday school numbers one hundred and fifty. The Superintendent is rebuidng cost about $2,500.

CATHOLIC CHURCH.

The history of the Catholic Church in Northern Indiana is closely allied to the

In 1852, Warsaw was made a permanent mission, and attended by Rev. John Ryan,

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

[FR. ANDREWS.]

Monday evening, April 22, 1861, the Rev. Edward P. Wright, Rector of Trin-

September 1. The brick church; September 3, the bricklayers began work on the new

October 6, 1866, Walter Scott, who had been connected with the parish since April 20, 1873, Lay Services were begun by John S. Irwin, M. D., of Fort Wayne.

FOUNDRY PLOWS.

This industry was begun by D. P. Kenyon and G. R. Thralls, about 1855, in the

THE WARSZAW MARBLE WORKS.

In 1855, A. J. Mershon erected a marble-shop on the north side of the public

WAGON AND CARRIAGE MANUFACTORIES.

The shop of Irish Brothers was established in 1856, by Louis Irish, deceased.

shops, and, in 1878, introduced improved machinery and steam power, and has,

CHAPMAN'S MILL.

The building was begun in 1857, and completed in February, 1858, by Col. C.

COOPERAGE.

The cooper-shop of Daniel Deeds, at the west end of Center street, was estab-

FLOURING-MILL.

The Warsaw City Flouring-Mill was established in 1858, by N. D. Heller and AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

The first manufacturing of machinery of this class was by Isaiah J. Morris

FURNITURE—UNDERTAKING.

[R. C. SMITH.]

This establishment is located on the northeast corner of Main and Lake

WAGON AND CARRIAGE FACTORY.

John Irish began this industry in 1870. The building is a two-story frame,

PLOW AND CULTIVATOR HANDLES, WHEEL RIMS, ETC.

The firm of Lesh & Matthews was formed at Perucon, Kosciusko Co., Ind.,

BUNG FACTORY.

The establishment of William L. Standish was located in Warsaw about the year

WARSAW WOOLEN MILLS.

The mills were inaugurated in 1872. The Articles of Association and certifi-