WARNING:

EMERGENCY CALLS ON PARTY LINES—State law requires you to hang up the receiver of a party line telephone immediately when told the line is needed for an emergency fire or police call or for medical aid or ambulance. It is also unlawful to take over a party line by stating falsely that the line is needed for an emergency. The law defines an "emergency" as a situation in which property or human life is in jeopardy and the prompt summoning of aid is essential.

ANNOYANCE CALLS—The laws of the State of Indiana provide that Section 1. Whoever telephones another person and addresses to or about such other person any lewd, lascivious or indecent words or language, or whoever telephones another person repeatedly for the purpose of annoying, molesting or harassing such other person, or his or her family, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), to which may be added imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one (1) year. Provided, that any offenses committed by the use of a telephone as herein set out may be deemed to have been committed at either the place at which the telephone call or calls were made, or at the place where the telephone call or calls were received.

The Telephone Company is concerned about obscene and harassing calls and is trying to help stop them. Malicious, threatening and abusive calls, including those in which obscene or profane language is used, are prohibited. The making of such calls over the Company's lines may constitute cause for disconnecting service and possible criminal prosecution, and civil action by the person called.
