

Sarber

Three brothers from Germany came to America before the Revolutionary War. The Sarber tradition begins like many others. One brother disappeared probably during the French and Indian War. One went to Cincinnati or Louisville. The third, probably named John, was the ancestor of the family in the Montona area.

Adam Sarber and his wife Catherine Enslin or Enslin were born and married in Pennsylvania, but buried in Montona. ^{I think} Among their children were Sarah, Abraham, Elizabeth, George, Christian, John, Hiram, Lucinda, William.

George Sarber married Lydia Anderick and had three children. Hiram, Catherine who married John Morren, and Albert Sarber.

Christian Sarber is ancestor of Lawrence Bell and many others in this area. I think Abraham's line is more around Burket.
