Mr. J. C. Rambach
Hendale Hotel
Hendale California

Dear Sir,

It is hereby agreed and understood that you are to receive from me one half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of any and all net amounts that I may receive from the disposal of any or all of the patent rights of the Cigar Lighter of which you are the inventor and present applicant for Patent.

"Net amounts" above mentioned are defined as the net amounts after deducting from the gross amounts received, any and all expenses of every kind and description, and taxes of all classes and nature, and one tenth ($\frac{1}{10}$) share to be given and Geo. B. Fuller in consideration of engineering work contributed by him.

Accepted Feb. 7 1928
