

Steven D. Grow

Steven D. Grow, 58 years old, passed away after a brief illness on Wednesday, Sept. 11, 2019, at 1:40 p.m. in his Silver Lake home.

Born on Oct. 2, 1960, he was the son of Elbert D. Grow and Dorothy McGinnis Grow and one of four children. He attended Warsaw High School and dedicated more than 25 years of service to the Army National Guard. Most recently he worked for Waste Management.

A true outdoorsman, he loved to hunt, fish and mushroom hunt. He liked country music and classic rock, especially Rascal Flatts, Bob Seger and Lynyrd Skynyrd. He was stubborn, ornery, funny, kind, caring and simply couldn't be summed up in an obituary. Above all, he loved his family and his grandchildren.

Those who survive with memories to cherish include son, Johnny (wife, Elizabeth) Arnett, of Warsaw; daughter, Jenny Mignery, of Syracuse; sisters, Brenda (husband, Russell) Brown, of Akron and Jenny (husband, Mike) Dawson of Warsaw; and his three treasured grandchildren, Alexis, Johnathan and Amya.

He was preceded in passing by his parents, Elbert and Dorothy; and his brother, Arden "Punk" Grow, who passed in April of 2014.

Friends will be received at Titus Funeral Home, 2000 East Sheridan Street, Warsaw, on Saturday, Sept. 14 from 10 a.m. until the noon funeral service. Pastor Terry Bradford of First Freewill Baptist Church of Kosciusko County will officiate. Burial will be in Graceland Cemetery, Claypool.

*****

Memorials to assist with final expenses. Gifts may be made payable to Titus Funeral Home, 2000 East Sheridan Street, Warsaw.

To leave a condolence, visit their website at www.TitusFuneralHome.com.

Times Union September 14, 15, 2019