

Lottie Colleen Bammerlin

NORTH MANCHESTER - Lottie Colleen Bammerlin, 79, Akron, passed away unexpectedly on June 10, 2022, at Lutheran Hospital of Indiana in Fort Wayne.

The daughter of Ezra B. and Gertrude Doub Lippy, Lottie was born in Warsaw on Sept. 28, 1942.

After graduating from Laketon High School in 1960, Lottie worked at Heckman Bindery until she married Paul Lyle Bammerlin on Aug. 2, 1964. She then worked on the farm doing whatever job needed to be done. She was a woman of grit and determination who could seemingly do anything, especially when facing a challenge. From mowing and cooking to raising baby calves, Lottie was simply an inspiration to her daughters, Beth and Betsy. An accomplished seamstress, Lottie made both of her daughters' wedding dresses. She also made wedding gowns, flower girl dresses and clothing for others in her community.

Lottie lived by her three Fs: faith, family and flowers. Her faith in her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ carried her through the tough times in life, especially the loss of her husband Paul Lyle, after 42 years of marriage. Lottie was a member of Packerton United Methodist Church and attended there faithfully until the start of COVID. Her second F, family, gave her a true purpose to strive to be the best she possibly could. Lottie relished in her time spent with each daughter, grandchild, family member and friend. Finally, she was passionate about her flowers and enjoyed the beauty and color that they brought to her life.

The loving memory of Lottie Bammerlin will be forever cherished by her daughters: Beth Colleen (Wayne) Landi Mentone; and Betsy Jane (Andy) Weaver, Claypool; grand children: Zachary and Jeremiah Landis and Joshua and Johnathon Weaver; sister-in-law, Janet Lippy; several nephews and a niece; and the close classmates of Laketon High School class of 1960. Lottie was preceded in death by her parents, Ezra and Gertrude Lippy; husband, Paul Lyle Bammerlin; and brother, Maurice Lippy.

Family and friends may call Tuesday, June 14 from 2 to 4 p.m. at McKee Mortuary, 1401 Ind. 114 West, North Manchester. Funeral services will begin at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, June 15 at McKee Mortuary, with calling beginning at 9 a.m. Burial will be at Pleasant Hill Cemetery, 997 V Ind. 114, North Manchester. Pastor Phil Pratt and Pastor Steve Newkirk will officiate.

For those who wish to honor the memory of Lottie Bammerlin, memorial contributions can be made to the Packerton United Methodist Church, 7976 S. Packerton Road, Claypool, IN 46510.

The family of Lottie Colleen Bammerlin has entrusted McKee Mortuary with care and final arrangements.

Condolences may be emailed to mckeemortuary.com.

Infant Licata

Octavia Eileen Licata, the beautiful daughter of Heather Nicole Collier and Caleb Ryan Licata, of Claypool, was born on May 14, 2022, in Columbia City. She was dearly loved, hugged, kissed and held for all of the days she brought joy into the hearts of her family for the past three weeks. Sadly, she passed away at 1:50 a.m. on Thursday, June 9, 2022, at Riley Children's Hospital in Indianapolis.

She wasn't long for this world and she left a huge footprint on the hearts of those who are left behind. Octavia was a gift from God whose memory will be forever cherished.

She will be lovingly remembered by her parents, Heather Nicole Collier and Caleb Ryan Licata; and her three big brothers: Mason, Spencer and Declan. Also surviving are her grandparents: Mark Collier, Pierceton; Steve and Jenni Licata, Gastonia, N.C.; great-grandmothers: Dolores Sturgis, Warsaw; Gertrude Dunham, Gastonia, N.C.; two aunts: Michelle (Austin) Salesman, South Whitley; Alicia (Michael) Evans, Pierceton; and three uncles: Matt Licata, Gastonia, N.C.; Josh (Rose) Licata, Madison, N.J.; Alex Licata, Guam. She was preceded in death by her grandmother, Pam Collier, in 1994; great-grandparents, Charles and Valda Collier; and her uncle, Lane Collier in 2020.

Octavia's family will mourn her passing privately with a graveside service at Hillcrest Cemetery in Pierceton, officiated by Pastor Bud Winstead. Thoughts and prayers are appreciated. Arrangements were entrusted to Redpath-Fruth Funeral Home, 225 Argonne Road, Warsaw.

Online condolences may be sent through the funeral home's website at www.redpathfruthfuneralhome.com.
