

Anna Marie Slone

MENTONE — Anna Marie Slone, 94, Mentone, formerly of Claypool, went to be with the Lord at 5:40 a.m. Wednesday, June 21, 2017.

Anna was born April 14, 1923, in Prestonsburg, Ky., to Robert and Virginia Alley Fitzpatrick. She married Columbus Slone in Prestonsburg on Dec. 13, 1941.

Anna had a servant's heart, and as she was not too proud to tell you, she truly was an angel living here on Earth. She loved everyone she met and they all loved her. She worked many jobs through the years to keep food on the table and a roof over the family, but the time she spent working in the hospitals were the times she enjoyed speaking of the most. Her loving and caring heart overflowed with compassion and God's grace for others.

Her most prized possession was her huge family. Coming from a family of 10 siblings, Anna and Columbus also had 10 children, whom she loved with all of her heart.

Anna is survived by her sons, Columbus (wife Patty) Slone Jr., Warsaw; Donald (wife Arvilla) Slone, Warsaw; Ronald (wife Debra) Slone, Crossville, Tenn.; Curtis (wife Christina) Slone, Claypool; Richmond (wife Avis) Slone, Etna Green; Jeff (wife Elizabeth) Slone, Warsaw; and Rick (wife Renee) Slone, St. Joseph, Ill.; and daughters Virginia (husband Roger) Brindle, Claypool; Janet (husband Curt) Flannery, Silver Lake; and Christina (husband David) Morehouse, Mentone. She is also survived by 20 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren and six great-great-grandchildren.

Preceding her in death were her parents, husband Columbus, all nine siblings and two grandchildren.

Services will be at noon Saturday, June 24, in First Freewill Baptist Church, 2503 W. 900S, Silver Lake, with Pastor Loren Bradley officiating. Burial will be in Graceland Cemetery, Claypool.

Visitation will be from 10 a.m. to noon Saturday at the church.

Arrangements are entrusted to King Memorial Home, Mentone.
