Obituary

Gary L. Sriver

Jan. 23, 1938 – Nov. 5, 2017

Gary Sriver

Gary L. Sriver, 79, Akron, passed away on Nov. 5, 2017.

Gary was born in Rochester on Jan. 23, 1938, to Claudia (Rhodes) and Orville Sriver. Gary shared his childhood with his younger brother Randy. Gary and Tamara shared a lifelong friendship with Randy and his wife Judy. While Gary was fond of all of his uncles, he shared a special relationship with Bob Rhodes. Gary married his high school sweetheart, Tamara L. Hand, of Akron, on Feb. 22, 1957. Lamoin Hand, Tammy's father, was considered a mentor and friend throughout Gary's life. Gary and Tamara celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary in February 2017.

Gary was an outstanding baseball and track star and a superb basketball player for the Akron Flyers, led by Indiana Hall of Fame coach Phil McCarter. After graduation, Gary earned a B.A. from Manchester College and M.A. at Indiana University in Bloomington. In 1961, Gary accepted a teaching position at Noblesville Community Schools, where he taught middle school and high school social studies from 1961-1972. In addition, Gary coached freshman football, basketball and varsity track. In 1966, varsity coach Jim Belden recruited Gary to coach freshman football in hopes of building the program. One of the players on Gary's team was country singer Steve Wariner.

In 1972, Gary left teaching and moved back to Rochester and eventually to Akron, spending the rest of his career selling educational films, videos and books for McGraw-Hill, Simon & Schuster, Disney and other companies. He continued doing this until his death. Gary also supplemented his income during many summers painting houses, first in Noblesville, leading a crew consisting of fellow teachers, and later in Rochester with his oldest son and his friend, Brian Jennings.

In 1992, Gary was elected to represent District 2 on the Fulton County Council, serving as president for many of those years. His proudest accomplishment was the county park system that he initiated and passed by the council. Gary also served as the voice for the Rochester Zebras football and basketball teams on WROI for the majority of the 1980s.

Gary was an avid reader and loved suspense fiction along with nonfiction American history books. He also loved sports and was a lifelong fan of the Chicago Cubs, Chicago Bears and NCAA basketball. However, his biggest passion involved outdoor activities. He kept a large garden every year beginning in the late 1950s until his death and delighted in open-air work, including mowing, chopping wood or driving his tractor.

Gary was most proud of his children and grandchildren, including his oldest son, Shawn Sriver (Tanya), Fishers; oldest daughter, Letitia Leininger (William), Akron, and their children, Darby and Liam; youngest son, Joshua Sriver (Christina), Akron, and their children, Ashton and Grayson and twins Carly and Lily; and youngest daughter, Natasha Maser (Scott), Fort Wayne, and their children, Colin and Elianna. He relished spending time with all his children and grandchildren.

Gary's memorial service is 11 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 11, 2017, with visitation from 9:30 a.m. to the time of the service at Grace United Methodist Church, 201 W. Seventh St., Rochester, with the Rev. Kerry O'Brien officiating. Additional visitation is 3-8 p.m. Friday, Nov. 10, 2017, at Hartzler Funeral Home, 305 W. Rochester St., Akron.

Memorial contributions may be made to Fulton County Parks and Recreation or Grace United Methodist Church. Family and friends may share a memory or send an online condolence at www.hartzlerfuneralservices.com.
