Linda Jean Drielick

Linda Jean Drielick, age 68, and a longtime resident of Kosciusko County, passed away surrounded by family on Tuesday, June 29, 2021. She had been bravely battling cancer for several weeks.

The daughter of Forrest Bonham and Nancy Harter Bonham, Linda was born on May 1, 1953 in Marion. She spent her formative years there and graduated from high school in Marion. Professionally, she was retired, having spent many of her working years at Kimble Glass in Warsaw.

Linda was a vibrant, funny person who was generally carefree and loved being around people. She especially loved time spent with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren and never missed their events. She was easy to get along with but also opinionated and strong willed. She had a strong faith in Christ and actively attended Warsaw Community Church. She enjoyed helping others where she could and was a fan of President Donald Trump.

Those who survive with memories to cherish include significant other, Galen Noel, of Claypool; daughter, Lisa (husband, Lance) Perry, of Warsaw; and nine grandchildren: Becky (husband, Wade) Cave, of Rochester; Lauren (husband, Andy) Miller, of Warsaw; Landan Perry, of Lafayette; Lia Perry, of Warsaw; Leytan Perry, of Warsaw; Liam Perry, of Warsaw; Loretta Perry, of Warsaw; Lilyan Perry, of Warsaw; and Levi Perry, of Warsaw. Also surviving are two great-grandchildren: Chance and Henry; five siblings and their families including sisters: Pat Kearney, Marla Velasquez, Stephanie Linton and Brenda Lewelling; and brother, Tom Bonham.

She was preceded in passing by a son, John Minnick; a brother, Mike Bonham; and an infant brother, John Bonham.

Titus Funeral Home and Cremation Services of Warsaw is entrusted with Linda's care. Her family is celebrating her life during a private memorial service later this month.

Thomas L. Feldman

BOURBON – Thomas L. Feldman, age 76, of Etna Green, passed away on Friday, July 2, 2021, at his daughter's home with his family at his side.

Tom was born the son of Lawrence and Betty Frenger Feldman on May 1, 1945, in Warsaw. He was a lifetime resident of Etna Green and graduated from Etna Green High School in 1963. He was an electrician for 40 years, owned Feldman Electric and worked at RR Donnelly for many years as a machine operator. Thomas was an Etna Green volunteer fireman for 56 years and held every office position, including fire chief. A founding member of the Kosciusko County Squad 70 Fire Investigation Team from 1985 to 1995, he was awarded Fireman of the Year in 1987. He was also a founding member of the team that built the county's Save a Life trailer. He was also a state-certified fire instructor and was vice president of the county fire association.

Tom was a member of the Camp Creek Church of the Brethren and was baptized on Sept. 27, 1992. Thomas loved spending time watching his grandchildren's sporting events, spending time with his family, taking "Dede," his dog, for walks in the woods to his treehouse and watching old westerns. Known for having a "good heart," he enjoyed helping out his friends and family.

Thomas will be missed by his daughters: Shelly (Dale) Estep, Silver Lake; Amy (Rod) Yates, Warsaw; his sons: Jerry (Amy) Feldman, Winona Lake; Phillip (Vikki) Feldman, Kimmel; Kevin (Hope Gatley) Feldman, Fort Garland, Colo.; his grandchildren: Taren Yates, Tyson Yates, Tanner Shepherd, Jason (Kayloni) Isbell, Autum Estep, Madison Estep, DJ Estep, Jarrod Feldman, Johnny Feldman, JB Feldman, Christi Feldman, Anthony (Nicole) Feldman, Skylar Feldman and significant other Sabrinna Anderson; and nine great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his brother, Larry Feldman.

Friends and family may gather Wednesday, July 7 from 3 to 8 p.m. at Camp Creek Church of the Brethren, 7486 Ind. 19, Etna Green. Funeral services will be held Thursday, July 8 at 11 a.m. in Camp Creek Church of the Brethren, with Pastor Roger Stuart officiating. The graveside service to follow at Etna Green Cemetery, East High Street, Etna Green, at 12:30 p.m. (This for the safety of everyone crossing Ind. 19 with traffic congestion).

Thank you to all our friends and community for your support during this difficult time.

Deaton-Clemens Funeral Home, Bourbon, is honored to be entrusted with the care of the family.
