

Miss Sandra VanLue of Akron, Indiana was chosen queen of the 1954 Mentone Egg Show. Miss VanLue was crowned Queen by Lt.-Governor Harold Hnadley before a crowd of approximately 500 people Friday evening, September 24th. Miss VanLue will reign over the egg basket area of the Mid-west for the next year. The Queen's court of honor was made up of Miss Betty Griffis of Mentone, Miss Susan Downs of Tippecance, Miss Sonja Hoffer of Beaver Dam, and Miss Terry Diane Silvius of Etna Green.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Creighton of Warsaw, Indiana--Robert Creighton won the grand sweepstakes in the egg show contest. Bob Creighton won a $50 Elgin watch and numerous trophies. This years egg show was very outstanding due to the high quality and increased number of exhibits shown by poultry people in the adjoining areas.
