RULES GOVERNING EXHIBITS

- 1.—All animals must be on Fair Grounds not later than 6:00 p. m. Wednesday, August 24th. Entries will not be accepted after that hour.
- 2.—The Committees will appreciate exhibitors making known the number of animals they will exhibit. This may be done by contacting the Committees in charge of the various Departments. Exhibitors in the Horse Department may phone or mail entries to O. A. Heighway, Akron, R. G. Reed, Mentone or Leroy Norris, Mentone. Notify not later than August 20th.
- 3.—Straw for bedding will be furnished free to all livestock exhibitors.
- 4.—Hay will be for sale on grounds at a reasonable price.
- 5.—All exhibits will be given adequate police protection.
- 6.—Attractive cards giving name and age of the animal and the name and address of the exhibitor will be furnished at 5c each.
- 7.—All animals will be released at 4:00 p. m. Saturday, August 27th.
- 8.—All animals must be taken to show ring promptly when called for.
- 9.—Stables must be kept clean and attractive at all times.
- 10.—Exhibitors must place animals in stalls or pens assigned them by the officers of the Association.
- 11.—The exhibitor must show the certificate of registry for all registered animals. All animals shown in Purebred classes one year and over must be registered and the certificate of registry shown at the time of entry.
- 12.—The judges' decision will be final in all cases.
- 13.—The Association reserves the right to remove from the grounds all sick animals.
- 14.—Any question or misunderstanding should be referred to the superintendent of your department.

This is your Fair—help make it—

CREIGHTON BROTHERS

BREEDERS OF WHITE LEGHORNS

We do not have to tell you much about our chicks. Some of your neighbors have them.

We take pride in the fact that among our customers you will find a large percentage of the commercial egg producers of northern Indiana.

Our chicks live and lay. This is proved by the Poultry Item and Poultry Tribune awards for 1937.

Our five pens of 50 birds laid 13,222 eggs averaging 264 eggs per hen in official contests last year. These five contest pens laid more eggs than the five pens of any other Leghorn breeder in the United States last year.

HIGH LIVABILITY SHOWN BY POULTRY TRIBUNE AWARD

Five pens, 65 birds, (including alternates) were sent out in September 1936. One year later 61 of these birds were returned to us—a livability of 93.8% for one year. This record of livability was unsurpassed by any breeder in the United States and was equalled by only one other.

THE MENTONE LIONS BAND

In the fall of 1936 nine members answered the call for Band rehearsal. Plans were made to increase the membership. New instruments were purchased by several students and when spring came the band consisted of eighteen members.

After the close of school last year the Lions Club offered to sponsor the Band in its summer activities. Together with the merchants, they provided for the holding of weekly concerts. A combined Band of students from Beaver Dam and Mentone, also several musicians from the community gave concerts each week and played at last year's fair.

During the 1937-38 school term the Band has had a full and interesting schedule of activities. The Band purchased uniforms of kelly green and white adding to their appearance. A marching Band was organized with twenty-four members with Drum Major, Sam Blue, acting as leader. The concert band participated in a Band and Orchestra Clinic at Manchester College and was rated "a superior little band". In the spring of 1938 a combined concert and solo recital was given and was well attended by music lovers. Walter E. Bowers is director of the organization. We are justly proud of our Band. The following members will be with us for the fair:

Cornets:—Eldon Sheets, Devon Cain, Doyle Webb, Jack Shinn, Dale Tucker, Paul Vandermark, Helen Walters, Lola Mollenhour, Iris Blackwell, Belva McGowen, George Cumberland.

Clarinets:—Jean Burns, Sam Blue, Bob Anderson, Barbara Creighton, Velva Mollenhour, Joe Boggs, Dale Hershberger.

Saxophones:—Dortha Decker, Lena Rush, Phyllis Huffman, Frances Tucker.

Horns:—Louise Paulus, Mrs. Edison Vandermark, Juanita Black.

Trombones:—John Tucker, Justin Long, Kenneth Romine, Letha Walters, Warren Cumberland.

Baritones:—Forrest Meredith, Josephine Blackwell, Edison Vandermark.

Basses:—Bob Tucker, Bob Eiler.

MENTONE LIONS CLUB

The Fair management feels that the Mentone Lions Club, sponsors of the fair, deserve recognition in this year's booklet. Organized in 1933 with an original membership of twenty-eight members, the Mentone Lions Club has enjoyed a constant growth in membership and strength. Today it boasts a membership of 62 members. To enumerate their tasks well done would occupy considerable space. Conda E. Walburn and Charles L. Manwaring are President and Secretary, respectively, of the club this year. Below appears a roster of membership:
