

Friends of the Library president, Jean Smith and treasurer, Marsha Scott are shown with a shelf unit the group recently purchased for Bell Library in Mentone. Located between the Children's Corner and the inside front doors, the new piece is designed to provide shelf and display areas on each side.

Currently featured on the children's side are the recently arrived story book records. A display of food preservation books is being presented on the opposite side.