

Indiana

1904

.....
Come On IN

.....

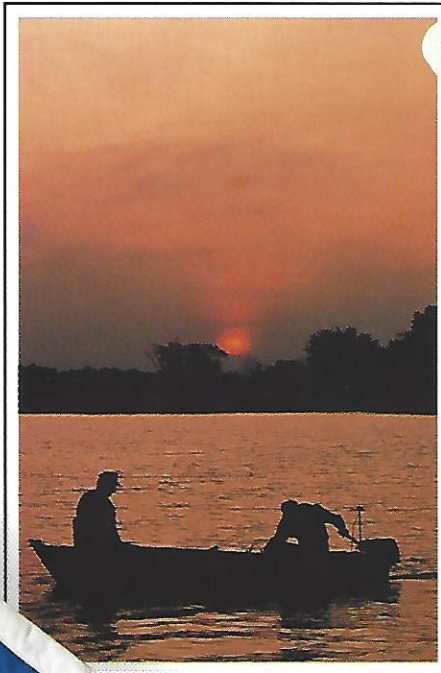

YOU'RE IN FOR A GREAT TIME!

Indiana has never been more inviting, and you've never been more welcome to join in all the excitement.

Climb to the top of great sand dunes. Navigate the world's longest underground river. Enjoy the quiet of a horse-drawn canal boat, or feel the thunder of hydro-plane racing. Face the frontier in an 1812 fort, and put on a happy face in the world's largest children's museum. An incredible range of activities awaits you!

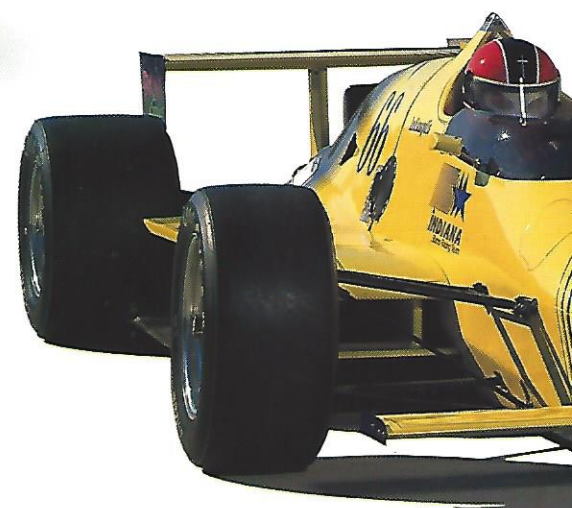

Plus, you'll find thousands of first-class hotel and motel rooms ready to accommodate your every travel need. Over a hundred bed and breakfast inns provide a unique travel experience. And the beauty of nature will surround you in our extensive system of state park lodges and campgrounds. Any way you go, you'll enjoy our legendary Hoosier Hospitality!

Take a quick trip through the following pages.

They're filled with fun and adventures to fill your days and nights. Then make plans to get in on the excitement. It's all yours when you "Come On IN!"

From round barns to a lap around the track, you'll catch your limit of fun in Indiana!

▲ A rushing stream pours over moss covered rocks at Clifty Falls State Park in Madison.

TAKE IN THE WONDERS OF NATURE!

Indiana offers abundant scenic and recreational opportunities. Swim, sail, boat and fish in our countless lakes, streams, rivers and reservoirs.

Hike or ride horseback along miles of sandy beaches at the Indiana Dunes National Lakeshore. The ever shifting sands of Mt. Baldy and the Dunes Shore are unique for their blend of arctic and tropical plant life.

with romantic names like Silver Cascades and Devil's Punch Bowl.

Take in the vibrant panorama of our rolling southern hills in the fall. Encounter spectacular underground waterfalls and rock formations in our extensive cave systems. Indiana also boasts the world's largest exposed coral reef in the limestone ledges along the Ohio River.

If you're into natural beauty, you really owe it to yourself to "Come On IN!"

▲ Take off to Indiana. For scenic beauty, it's a natural!

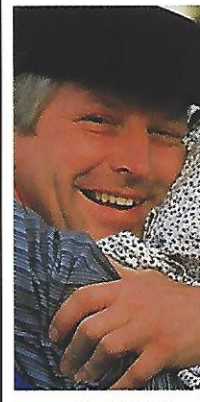

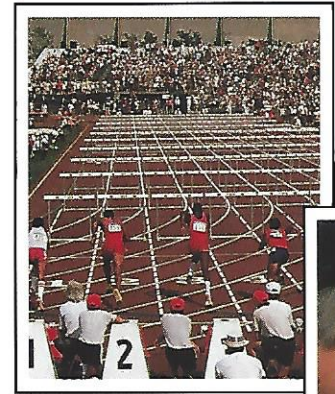

Get a first-hand look at ridges 75-100 feet tall, carved out by streams and recognized as the finest examples of this type of terrain in the eastern United States. It's all within Shades State Park. You'll discover lush primeval forests and deep gorges

◀ A tunnel hulled racing boat literally “flies” across the Ohio River at the “Madison Regatta” in Madison.

A track and field event at Indiana University/Purdue University Indianapolis illustrates why our capital city is known as the “Amateur Sports Capital of the World.”

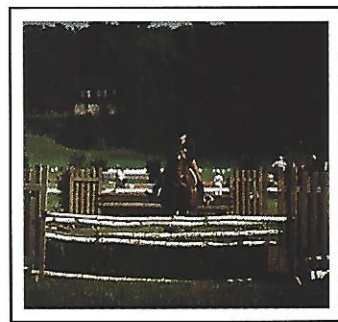

• • • • •
FUN IS ALWAYS IN HIGH GEAR!

Get practically nose-to-nose with diving polar bears at the new Indianapolis Zoo. Take camel and elephant rides! The aquatic performances in the Whale and Dolphin Pavilion could prove to be the highlight of your visit.

Give a cheer for Indiana sports! From the Indy 500 to professional and Big 10 football and basketball, from major golf and tennis tournaments to national and international track and field, diving and swimming events, the schedule is year-round.

Take advantage of our year-round State Park programs, too. There's hiking, biking, boating, canoeing, horseback riding, cross-country and downhill skiing, tobogganing, and nature study.

Catch a riverboat ride and your own souvenir Louisville Slugger bat from the Hillerich & Bradsby Co.

in Jeffersonville. Choose from hundreds of festivals celebrating Indiana's rich cultural and ethnic heritage. Luxuriate in elegant resorts like French Lick and The Pointe. Sample the wares in any one of our fine wineries in the southern and central sections of the state. Run away to Peru, circus capital of the world. Or play away in the Holiday World theme park.

There's no end to the fun when you “Come On IN!”

.....
IT'S THE
IN PLACE TO BE!

There's something to satisfy every appetite. Hungry for sophisticated cuisine? Indulge yourself! Our many fine dining establishments have received the highest acclaim. You'll savor their international and ethnic specialties, as well as their traditional American fare.

Looking for high fashion or the latest trends? You'll find an abundance of fine stores and boutiques in which to spend your time.

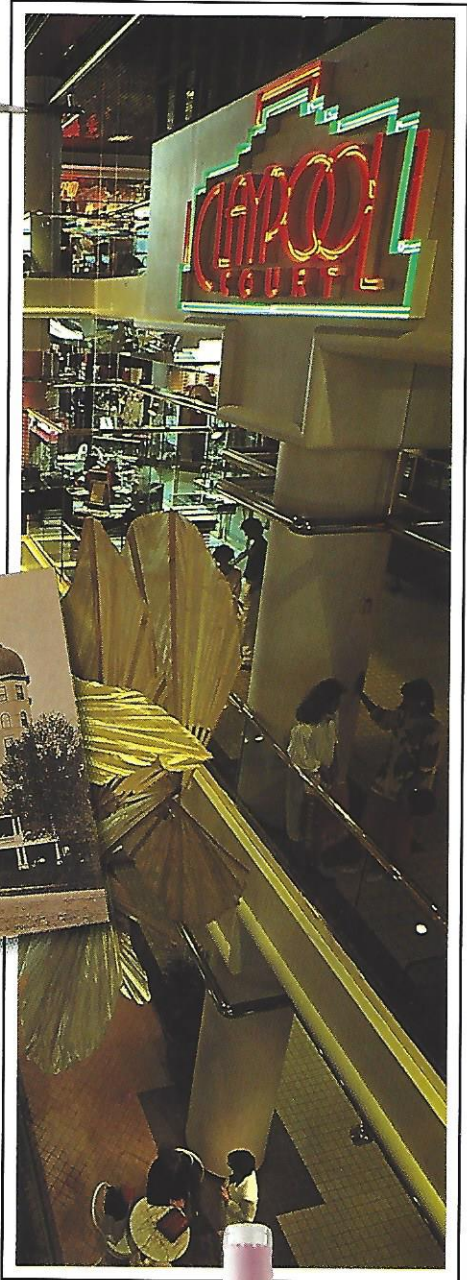

▲ The historic French Lick Springs Hotel and resort in French Lick is as opulent today as it was nearly 100 years ago.

And if antiques are your passion, Indiana is a veritable treasure trove!

The excitement doesn't stop when the sun goes down, either. From the Holiday Star Theatre in Merrillville featuring top-name entertainment, to the many outstanding concert facilities, and comedy and music clubs, Indiana's nightlife is anything but sleepy.

You're in for a treat when you "Come On IN!"

Taste the good life in Indiana. From life in the fast lane to a stroll down a country lane, we're serving up a great time!

▲ The Claypool Court in downtown Indianapolis is a showcase among urban shopping malls.

