

Notice

It is believed Halloween pranksters have stolen the large letters L and R from the Bell Memorial Library in Mentone. The library is offering a $25 reward for the person supplying the information leading to the recovery of the letters. Parents should keep an eye out for the letters. If the letters are not returned, legal action will be taken.