PRIDE

"The 1998-1999 Unofficial R.J. Club."

LEAVING IMPRESSIONS THAT LAST

"Beloved school secretary, Kay Kindig, taking time out of her busy schedule for a picture."

9911

At Tippecanoe Valley students leave a lasting impression. Every TVHS graduate is remembered in some way. No one will ever forget Jason Spore's love for KISS, Weber Time, or the R.J. Club. The 1998-1999 school year was both exciting and sad. The senior class came into this year as the last graduating class of the 20th Century. The juniors entered this school year still mourning the death of classmate Heather Florey. Underclassman managed to clog up the halls better than the rest of us.

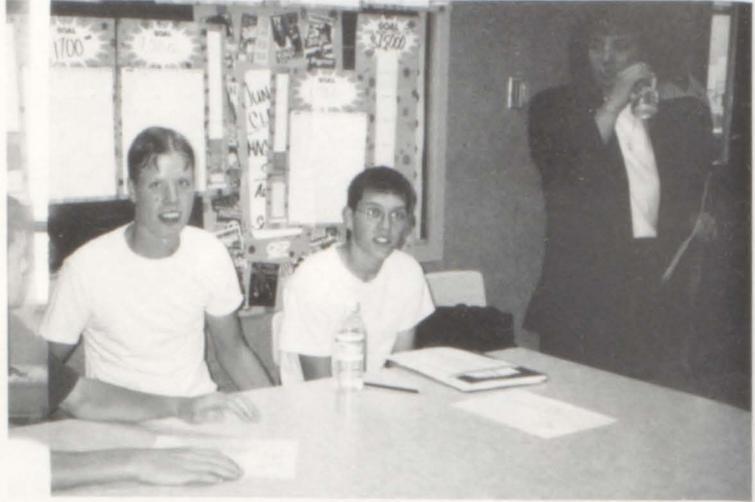

From the "Jerry Springer" skit on the first day of school to Kay Kindig Day, 1998-1999 was a very fun and painful year for the whole school. We will all graduate from Tippecanoe Valley High School leaving IMPRESSIONS THAT LAST.

TVHS cheerleaders cheer the football team to victory.

The 1998 Homecoming Activities included the tradition bon-fire and Jell-o wrestling, but like last year due to problems "Olympics" were canceled. Still the Valley Vikings showed that we have plenty of spirit and cheered our boys onto a Homecoming victory. GO VALLEY!!

True Confessions

Handwritten notes in blue ink:
 1. I've been with my friends after school
 2. The parking lot
 3. How we were going to lunch
 4. How we were in the gym
 5. To get credit
 6. I've had a crush on
 7. I've had a crush on

I confess that ...

I like to drop the kids off at the pool in the men's faculty bathroom. — Jay Haywood

I once took some chocolate and felt really guilty so I gave it to a friend. — Amanda Martinez

I put crickets in Mandy Kates's gym bag. — Tiff Cunningham

We tee-peed Mr. Makula's house like 5-10 times! (and other details) — Rhonda Doud, Miciah Lukens, Ryan Utter, Jessica Fox, Beth Petrosky, and Aaron and Wes Ramsey.

I broke Miss Day's clock. (she didn't ask, so I didn't tell) — Brenda Rose

I had a crush on R.J. in my sophomore and junior year. I've also been in love with Noah since his freshman year. — Janet Randall

I had a crush on R.J. my junior and senior year. I also spit in a couple of peoples food in the past. — Tara McClone

I've always had a crush on Verlin Ramsey. I just think he's so cute!!! I wish I would've had the chance to know him and be a friend. — Amanda Martinez

I've had a crush on Eric Prater for a long time! — Katie Nixon

I once put a "friend's" toothbrush in the toilet because she made me mad. (I wonder if she still uses it.) — Erin Drudge

I once borrowed a raincoat from a certain teacher and I accidentally forgot to take a certain "something" (that was mine) out of the raincoat pocket. By the time I had realized it, the coat was back in the teacher's closet. So I had to ask another certain teacher to get the coat out. Well that teacher found the inappropriate "something" and told me to stash it in a VCR that was in the trash. So I never got in trouble. — Jeremy Fox

I had a crush on Jeremy Fox. — Olivia Morales

We used to copy off of each others workbooks in Econ class. — Laurie H., Sabrina N., Mandy M., Jay H., Nathan S., and David R.

I had a crush on Jessica Riffle. — Nick Meadows

Crowned King and Queen, Mike McNeal and Sabrina Newsome, share a dance to our theme song of "I Don't Want to Miss a Thing" by Aerosmith.

The Duke and Duchess, Craig Kuhn and Sarah Duzan, pause for a snapshot of their newly found royalty.

Erin: "Please don't drop me."
R.J.: "Please don't kick me."

Is it "I, Barbie, take thee Ken ... OR is it Tiff and Evan dancing to "Barbie Girl?"

Senior ladies, Erin, Sabrina, Jenny, and Mandy, give a lovely smile to the camera.

"Hey, Liz, look at all this food!" "Hold on Brooke, I'm posing for a picture."

Looking back on the memories of the dance we shared ...

Hey Kiley, got milk?

Let's get together (yeah, yeah, yeah) we can have lots of fun!

Is Olivia scratching her head or doing the train? Derrick says, "Ride that choo-choo", and Katie says, "Woo-woo"!

"When I dance they call me Macarena ..."

"Now don't you worry about my boyfriend, the boy whose name is Domenico ..."

"... always at the parties con las chicas que son buenas (with the chicks who are fine) ..."

GO! GO! GO! Ale, ale, ale! Barney shakes his boo-tay!!!

"My boyfriend's back and I'm gonna be in trouble. (Hey now, hey now.)"

This year graduation ceremony took place on Saturday June 5th with the Baccalaureate beginning at 1:45 P.M. and Commencement at 2:30 P.M. All seniors wore white ribbons in memory of Kay Kindig. The choir sang "We are One." Stephanie Wicox and Erin Drudge entertained friends and family with solos. The ceremony was extremely emotional, but I'm sure the graduating class was glad to leave Valley.

THE WRESTLER

In the corner of the arena you await your turn.
Nervousness and adrenaline have taken over your body.
You're ready.

You hear the roar of a small crowd as you are called.
While approaching you say a prayer to yourself.
Stepping on the line you look over at adversary;
His look of determination tells you
That this match isn't going to be easy.
You shake his hand, the whistle is blown, and
The battle has begun.

The crowd cheering is almost deafening.
Concentration gets tougher and tougher,
But still you go on.

The first two minutes have ticked away, and
Already you feel like you've been through a war.
Still scoreless, a coin is tossed, then lands.
He chooses defense;
This means you are going to have to work harder to score.

Senior Mike McNeal leaves his impression on Coach Scott Smith.

Senior David Reese pins down his opponent from Plymouth High School.

Senior Raphael Villalon leaves his impression by winning the match.

Mark Whortley, Senior, gets all twisted up by his opponent from Plymouth High.

Late in the period you decide to let him up
Giving him a point, hoping you can take him down.
Thirty seconds left — you're looking for an opening
Twenty seconds ... fifteen,
As an act of desperation, you shoot in for a takedown.
You get one leg, ten, still fighting, five, with a rush of adrenaline
You are able to take him down.
You are awarded two points as the buzzer sounds.
The small crowd cheers turn into a roar!
You've done it!
Filled with emotion, you start to cry.
The sweet sorrow of your victory has made your family proud.
You return to the line to shake the hand of your adversary,
Then your hand is raised.
You walk to your coaches and give them a hug.
Overwhelmed with joy, they knew you were clearly misunderstood.
With the crowd still cheering, you realize that
It's all for you.
You are the best in the state.

Record Breaking Season For Valley Volleyball

The 1998 Varsity and Junior Varsity Volleyball seasons were full of school records. The Lady Vikings Varsity season ended with a school record of 22 wins and 9 losses. (This shattered the old record of 16 wins from 1997.) The following individuals broke school records in their own right: Tiffany Cunningham — serve reception (90.55%), Inga Vandermark — service aces (64), Jennifer Studebaker — Blocks (155), Rhonda Doud — career assists (1176), and Jennifer Studebaker — kill efficiency (.198). In addition Brooke Fisher (first in kills with 189) became only the 2nd girl in Valley history to make the 1st team all TRC conference. Other girls on the varsity were Amy Nellans (2nd in both blocks and aces), Carissa Parker (2nd in assists and 3rd in serve reception), Tara Baker (3rd in Blocking and kill efficiency), and Kim Carr. This year also marked another milestone for the Varsity as they were chosen as an outstanding team and featured in the magazine Volleyball.

The Junior Varsity had the best season it has ever had in Valley history with a final record of 23 wins and 5 losses. They took home the championship trophy at both the Triton and Fremont tourneys.

The season for the freshman was a growing experience that prepared them for the challenges of a higher level of competition. The final record for the 1998 season came out to be more about improving than about how to work better as a team and not who beat who.

Mandy Martinez works on a yearbook layout. Mandy your diligence and integrity left an impression on all of us.

Yearbook take a break for a much needed break. Joanne and Mandy pose with a smile even though we were near a deadline. You guys rock!!

This life is yours take the power
To choose what you want to do and do it well.
Take the power to love what you want in life and love it honestly.
Take the power to control your own life,
No one else can do it for you.
Nothing is too good for you, You deserve the best.
Take the power to make your life
Healthy, exciting, worthwhile and
Very happy while you reach for your dreams.
My thanks to all of you who worked hard to Make this yearbook what it has become and in the process have left an impression on my heart.

Here senior Lori Hammond finds herself on the ground as Mr. Hutton demonstrates a throw called puter kapala

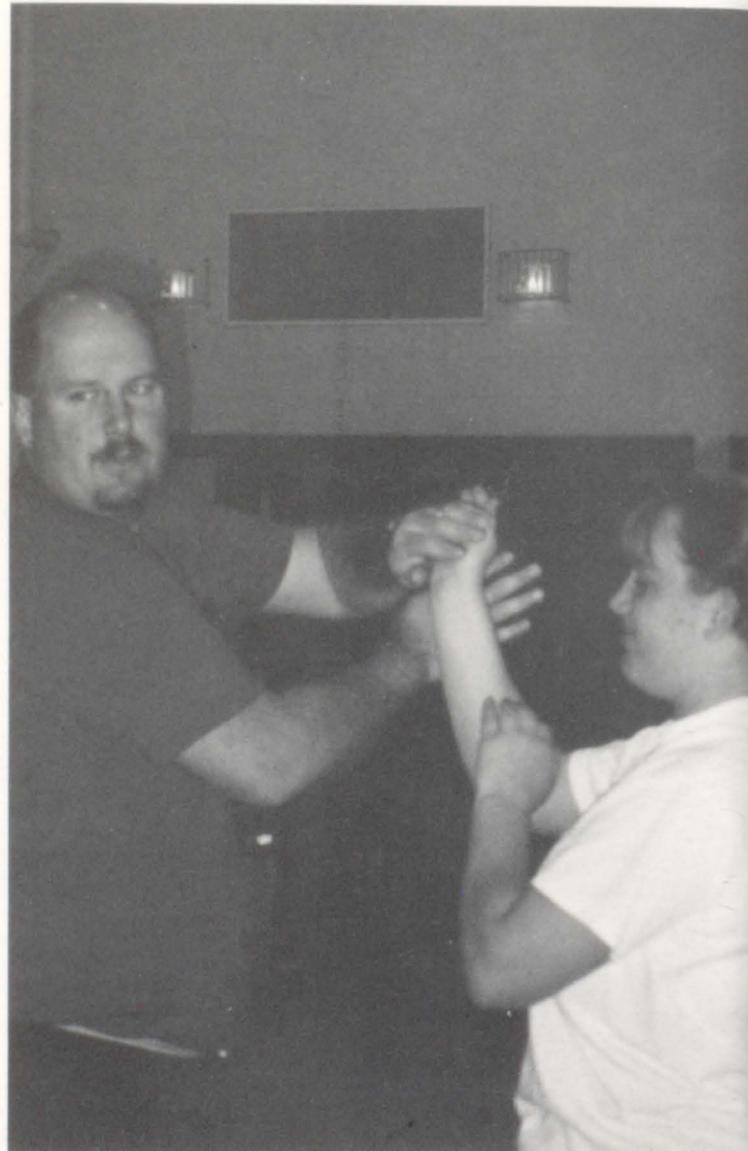

Senior Brian Sexton and Mr. Hutton put to use the techniques they have practiced before school in a sparring session.

It's three on one as Amanda Davis and Kim Carr as well as Lori Hammond show their triumph over Brian Sexton.

Mr. Hutton instructs Junior Kim Carr in one of the drills used to teach distancing and locking of an opponents joints.

Tippecanoe Valley Students Get Their "Kicks" Before School

It's 6:30 in the morning on a Tuesday and many students are just rolling out of bed, but some Valley students are already at school and working out. The past three years have seen a new club at Tippecanoe Valley, the Kickboxing Club.

The club began during the 1996-1997 school year as a way for Mr. Hutton, a new teacher to get a chance to continue working out in the martial arts that he had been studying for the last 12 years.

The club's goal is for students to develop the ability to defend themselves if threatened. It focuses on students learning about self defense at the four different ranges of combat: kicking, punching, trapping, and grappling. Practicing these involves working with different equipment like focus mitts, gloves, thai pads, and kicking shields.

The source of the skills used in the club come from a variety of different martial arts. The first of the three main ones is Jeet Kune Do Concepts, the ideals of combat that Bruce

Lee developed before his death. Thai boxing, the second art is comprised of techniques from some of the toughest fighters in the world involving strikes with the elbow, knee, legs, and head. The final component art is the study of Kali and other Filipino Martial arts which have a long history of effectiveness in combat. This area consists of training with the main idea of "defanging the snake". This concept runs through the arts with impairing or stunning the limbs that people are attacking with as well as throws and locks that control your opponent.

The different areas of these martial arts are practiced and tested in the ring. Unfortunately because of limitations this ring is actually the circle in the middle of the gym. Here though students use protective equipment to test their abilities against one another to hone and define their techniques.

Working with different equipment lets students try out their skills and feel what it is like to hit and kick without hurting or getting hurt

Below Mike Wallis and Lori Hammond work on their trapping skills using the technique Pak Sao to learn how to pass by an opponents hands and hit.

Cinco de Mayo viene al colegio de Tippecanoe Valley

Cinco de Mayo fue muy divertido para todos. Lo puedes notar en las sonrisas en las caras que todos tenían en esta foto.

Parte del día era de aprendiendo bailes authenticos mexicanos. La Senora Guenin y los estudiantes de Espanol 3 y 4, ensenaron a los de mas como bailar.

Viva Mexico!

Cinco de Mayo es una fecha que nosotros no vamos a olvidar porque va a dejar una impresion en nuestras vidas para siempre. Gracias por todo Senora Guenin! Su voluntad y su trabajo hizo el dia divertido para todos nosotros.

Estudiantes trabajaron mucho para hacer pinatas. Sus resultados fueron muy coloridos!

Joanne "Juanita" Reyes, Kenia "Esperanza" Ramirez, Maria Contreras, y Lindsay "Julia" Wood se divertieron mucho cantando "La Bamba" con la Senora Waldrup.

La policia vino tambien!

El policia Brad Weaver, vino a hablar con los estudiantes sobre como se puede usar el Espanol en su trabajo. Como puede hablar el ingles y el Espanol, Sr. Weaver puede ayudar la gente hispana en nuestra comunidad.

Torro, Torro!

La Senora Hernandez, la esposa de un matador, le muestra Mandy "Veronica" Martinez como su esposo se escapo del torro.

Wes Backus, Hilary Vanlaningham y Eric Serrano fueron los ganadores del competacion de pinatas.

La Senora Guenin trabajo much para traer comida, bailes, y actividades autenticos de Mexico a nuestra Celebracion de Cinco de Mayo.

Tana "music woman" Tinkey is looking for her coffee, jo, java, espresso to get her morning started with a bang, crash, boom.

Mr. "Hank" Shriver is stating one of his famous sayings. Can you guess? Yes, you are right, "You guys rock!!" He is pictured here with students Tanguela Cox and Lacy Stump.

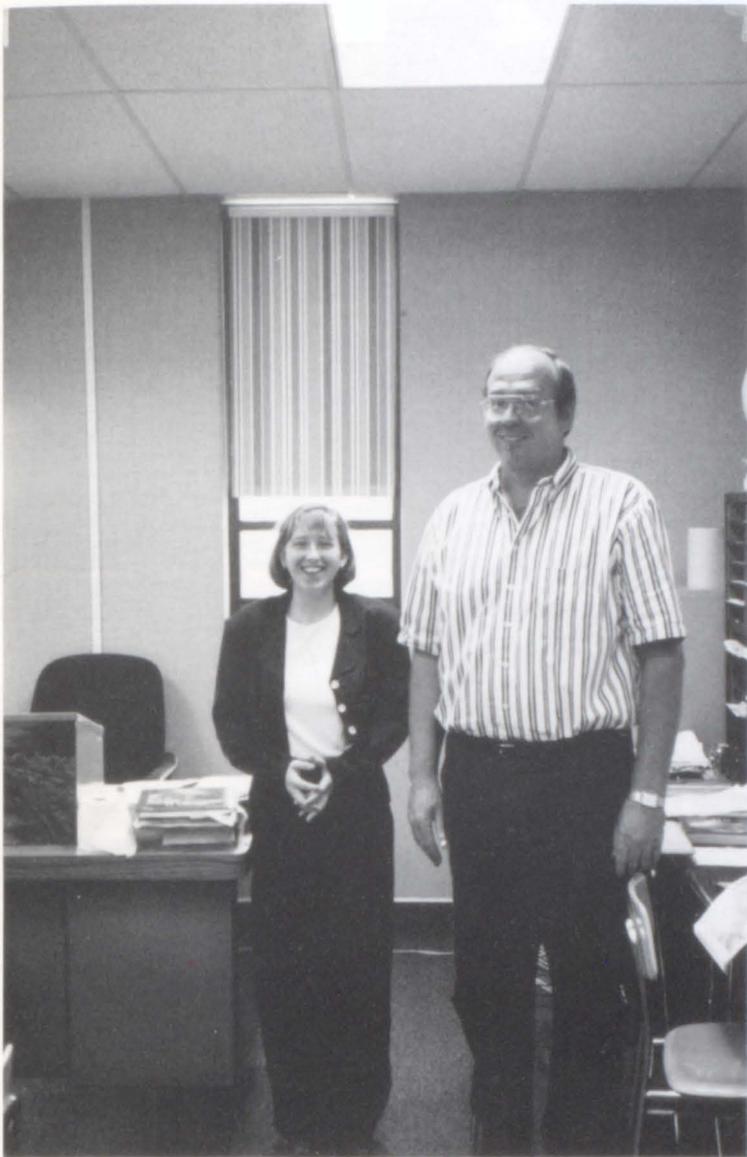

Mr. Burkhart is taking care of business from his office.

Mrs. "Oops" Gamble is leaving the building and stops to smile at year-book staff and gives a friendly hello.

Miss "Earthquake" Day is taking time to pose with student, Brian Sexton. Chemistry was one of Brian's favorite subjects. Miss Day helped make the learning fun.

Christine Snipes and Mr. "Map-it" Miller pose for a picture. Christine was Mr. Miller for senior switch day.

Janet Randall poses with Mr. Franklin. Mr. Franklin enjoyed being student for a day while Janet handled the classes.

Mrs. "Shaz-batz" Guenin helps out student Desiree Hall with her Espanol. Mrs. Guenin brought culture into the classroom as she taught Spanish 1, 2, 3 and 4.

We saved the best for last

On the front lawn of the school, the sign read school begins August 21st. Inside, the sound of a bell penetrates the din of 750 jabbering students. The bell was an all too familiar sign: the beginning of an endless cycle of students, studies and the class of 1999. Our senior year had begun.

Senior year: the beginning of the end. It is an endless cycle of good-byes — goodbye to high school, lifelong friends, and having mom do the laundry. More importantly, it is saying hello to the rest of our lives, by leaving our impressions at Tippy Valley.

Warning Seniors still at play!!

These fun loving students brought laughter by leaving the impressions of their smiles.

Seniors Olivia Morales, Linda Fetrow, Sara Miller and Lacey Martinez enjoy the fall by joining in on the pumpkin carving contest. Sara Miller's creation went on to place in the judging. Who said Consumer Foundations couldn't be creative?

*In Loving Memory Of Heather Anne Florey
Aug. 27, 1981-June 12, 1998*

A TEAR

A tear falls down my pale face
As I think of what has taken place
As I gazed upon her I could not speak
It rolls down my face and falls on her cheek
She was as beautiful as a summer flower
As peaceful as a light
spring shower
The memories, the laughter
Her kind warm touch
I will always remember
Because I loved you so much.

Camille Hall

HEATHER

Heather, Heather where do I start
When you left this world you took my heart

We grew up together, oh remember the days
We'd laugh, we'd giggle, we'd put on plays

We spent together days on end
When I found you, I found a friend

Then you found Aaron, he took your heart
You were soulmates from the very start

Monica was lucky to have a Mommy like you
Sweet, kind, and understanding too

Then came that darkened day
When I found out, all I could do was pray

I haven't yet excepted that your not here
That day has yet to come, yes I do fear

Heather I miss you, I need you back
When I think of that day everything went sad.

Amber Lee Calvert

*"You're still the one we love."
All of your friends*

Above is a picture of the wonderful, marvelous, and all-knowing Kay Kindig working diligently at the office counter. She was always ready to help, even the students with the most "dire" of problems.

We'll always love you, Kay!!!

Kay-Kindig-Day was a day to celebrate life, not only the life of the woman it was in honor of, but the lives the students of our school should be thankful to have. In the picture (right), Kay is being given a plaque in appreciation of all her years of dedicated service to our school system. With all the flying pies, and even more flying money, it became one of the most memorable days in our school year, just as Kay was one of the more memorable people.

Hope

He who watches over us,
 In perfect love and perfect trust,
 Helping us everyday
 To strive along our merry way;
 He shows us mercy and grace;
 He shows it dearly in his face;
 He shows how much he loves you,
 And that is why he'll help you through;
 No matter what bad could become,
 He is the perfect and only one
 Who can tend to any need,
 And surely help you succeed;
 So, pray if you will and pray if you must
 To the one who'll always watch over us;
 Make sure he knows how much you care,
 So he'll protect you with eyes so fair;
 And, always remember your friends so true
 Who'll watch and always care and love you.

Places Everyone! Drama ... '98-'99

The TVHS Drama Club had quite a busy year. The fifty-four members presented both fall and winter productions. The fall productions included a farce, All's Well That Ends Wrong, and an old-fashioned mellow drama, The Ol' Homestead. The winter production, Little Women of Orchard Ridge, made it to production after two postponements due to snow. Springtime brought the annual Greek Night and award presentations. The two most coveted awards, Best Male Member and Best Female Member, went to seniors, Kirk Osbourne and Sara Kerkhoff.

All's Well That Ends Wrong
Freshmen, played by April Pletcher and Sara Kerkhoff, discuss life in general.

All's Well That Ends Wrong
Freshmen played by Kylie Romine and Mary Gast (in trance.)

All's Well That Ends Wrong
