A Millenium's Best

Viking Pride

As the 1999-2000 school year comes to an end, we pause to remember all that the year had to offer. Each year at Valley is in some ways the same, but from the graduating seniors to the freshmen, each year is always special to each person in some way. The memories we make last forever. No one will ever forget Homecoming '99 or becoming the Regional Champs. WE ARE THE BEST. A Millenium's Best.

Homecoming

"Viking Pride"

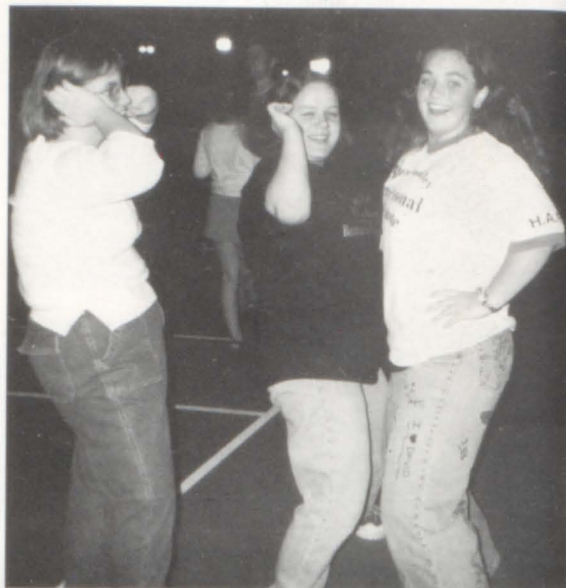

This year's homecoming activities were kicked off by Pajama Day on Monday. That night the seniors were victorious in a "not-so-powdery" game of powder puff football. On Tuesday seniors dressed down and underclassmen dressed up. Wednesday students wore their favorite concert t-shirts. Thursday brought H.A.T. day. Everyone was asked to pay $1 to Monica Hatfield's trust fund. Monica's mother, Heather Florey, would have been a senior this year. Thursday night was exciting as student tag teams wrestled in green jello. Following that was a bonfire courtesy of the FFA. Friday's activities were the beginning of the end of Homecoming '99. Students sported their class t-shirts and all enjoyed the variety show in the afternoon. We viewed lots of talent and had a great time doing it. The Vikings went on to win the game against Oak Hill. Jamie Baker and Craig Kuhn were crowned King and Queen, and the dance on the tennis courts brought Homecoming '99 to an end.

Clockwise from top: 1. Craig Kuhn and Jamie Baker take over as Valley's Homecoming King and Queen. 2. Sarah McSherry and Derek Eby were senior representatives. 3. Senior Reps Jamie Baker and Matt Schilling 4. Sarah Kindig, Anthony Domenico, Kris Sanders, and Andy Martin enjoyed being junior reps. 5. The freshman were represented by Kelly Sanders and Trey Eaton.

8. No one knows that you don't have anything better to do.
7. Some how giving free food=free food.

A Day in the Life of a Tippecanoe Valley High School Student

7:40 A poor cheeseboxer sits in a zombielike state listening to some groovy tunes on her way to school in the morning.

7:55: At Valley, it's common to be threatened by hostile students who are not eager to have their picture taken first thing in the morning.

Period 1:
Gee, Eby,
all that internetre-searching must really wear a guy out.

Period 1: And this is the cause of one of the strange odors permeating the senior hall.

Period 2: Can you say CHEESY?

Period 3: Mike Cunningham, Mindy Dugan, and Candice Conroy take a little break in their creative writing class.

Period 3: No, Aaron is not picking his nose. No, J.J. is not looking at that girl's buttocks, but yes, that is Carrie McFarren.

Homeroom: There once was a teacher named Screeton, but I'm surprised I ever did meet him. Once homeroom'd begun, that man was on the run, and rarely did I ever see him!

Period 4: Believe me. This is not nearly as fun as it might look!

All Day: I bet you're thinking, 'Gee, the back of some guy's head, what an original sight.' But it wouldn't be a typical day if you didn't spend plenty of time staring at someone's back. Thanks, Aaron, for your interesting array of T-shirts. They were great entertainment in French class.

Remember When . . .

. . . the glass door of the "secret room" was broken by a runaway sweeper?

. . . we had those tornado drills during lunch and they wouldn't let us eat our food?

. . . the bathroom by the gym burst into flame?

Liz and Derek are crowned by Smith.

. . . Liz and Derek got to wear those totally awesome crowns at prom?

. . . Jasimine Cords beat up on Mrs. Buss during French II?

Amy, Chris, and Liz bend the rules a bit.

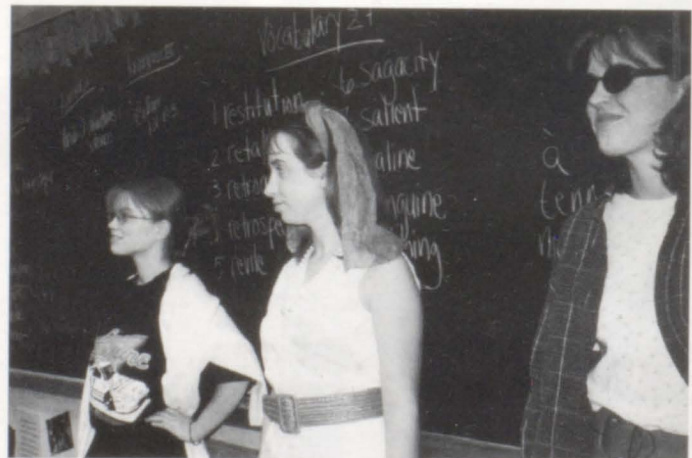

. . . the administration decided to outlaw class colors, but our stubborn students made sure the tradition lived on?

. . . Cody tripped over his own feet in the lunchroom?

. . . the lights went haywire during fourth hour?

. . . the health room experienced some water damage due to an unscheduled flooding?

. . . the French II class proved how "super-cool" they really were by doing a totally kicking fashion show to the hopping beat of 'Barbie Girl.'

Jasimine, Rachel (Claire), and Alyssa (Lise) proudly model their snazzy outfits.

... Burkhart said, "Sanders, Kindig, and McCalla, you can walk on my gym floor ANYTIME!" ?

... bunches of folks went to Marc Nellans' house to plant flowers for his mom?

... Mrs. Mills started spanking her art students for obscene gestures directed at her in class?

Shake it ladies!!!

... a certain group of students decided to take a trip to the zoo after prom, but it just happened to be closing?

... Jen Ringle said a naughty word right in front of Mrs. Dunlevy?

These guys look a little disappointed to have their zoo plans canceled, but I'm sure they found a cool place to paddleboat.

... students were left lockerless and forced to carry around their now illegal backpacks?

... Rory Jewell busted into Dub C's third period pre-cal class unannounced with a comb stuck in his fro?

... the majorly cool yearbook members headed off to the ROCKIN' yearbook camp!?!

Rory strums away unaware of his future folly.

PROM 2000

"These are the Moments"

This year's prom took place on May 13th at the 112 Club in Elkart. The theme was "These are the Moments." All who attended were dressed to the very best and had a unforgettable time. "For me the worst was when I got mono and couldn't play, and as a team the worst was losing the sectional title after a great season." Funniest moment: "The night before the sectional me, Terra, and Ginger stayed up really late and the next day we were all sick and tired and we had to play 18 holes of golf."

The 1999-2000 Boys' Basketball Season

Interview with Senior Craig Kuhn:

What was the best part of the season?

"Winning TRC, Sectionals, and Regionals and getting to go to Semi-state."

Are there any funny inside jokes on the team?

"Let's just say it's been great playing with 'The Brandon Eaton.'"

What was the worst part of the season?

"For me personally it was sitting out the first half of the season [due to a torn ACL], for the seniors it was probably losing on senior night."

Girls' Softball

This year the Varsity had a record of 6-18. They had 6 seniors that will be greatly missed next year. The underclassmen will have to work hard to have a good team, and we know that they will.

Boys' Golf 2000 Season

Tippecanoe Valley should be proud of their Viking Golfers. They were not only TRC Champs, but also The Lancer Invitational Champs. They set a new school record twice this season, once against Bethany Christian, on nine holes, and again in Sectionals, on eighteen holes, where they finished third to advance on to Regionals. Two juniors, Drew Shafer and Andy Martin are being nominated to be on the All-State Team. What a season! Great job guys!

This year's varsity tennis team had a fantastic season. They ended up with a record of 13-3. The JV had a record of 7-5. Players and coaches were impressed with how well the team did. Above all was the goal to have fun (and stay in the "green")... that made the difference.

MON

The Big 500!

Interview with Coach Bill Patrick

Of all the great things accomplished by the team this year which do you feel was most important?

"I'd have to say winning Regionals."

Was winning Regionals also your favorite part of the season?

"It's hard to pick just one thing that was my favorite. Winning Conference, winning Sectionals, and winning Regionals were all good, but winning Regionals was probably best."

Where does your 500th win fit in there?

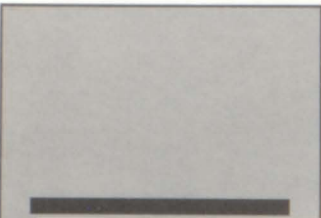

"You don't coach for personal reasons. I really appreciate all that the school, community, and players had planned for that night. Tippecanoe Valley and the community made it a very special night."

What was your least favorite part of the season?

"The most disappointing was losing the last two regular season games to John Glenn and South Bend Washington."
