THANK YOU!!

We'd like to thank the entire faculty and staff of TVHS. Our special thanks go out to the following people whose hard work happens "behind the scenes". . .

Here are our lunch ladies hard at work making sure that all 700 students have plenty of food during the day!

Thanks to the school board: Bryan Murphy, Dave O'Brien, Mark Wise, Hal Hoffman, Sarah Tillman, and Rod Eaton.

Mrs. Drudge and Mrs. Kindig hard at work in the office! They keep this school running smoothly!

Mrs. Gamble, Mr. Carmichael, and Mrs. Sheetz of the guidance department.

Mr. Bibler, guidance counselor.

Mrs. Potter who takes care of all our woes.

Mrs. Jackson, Mr. Burkhardt, and Mr. Heinold ensure that all sporting events run smoothly.

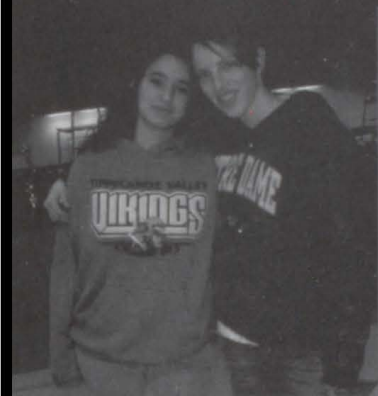

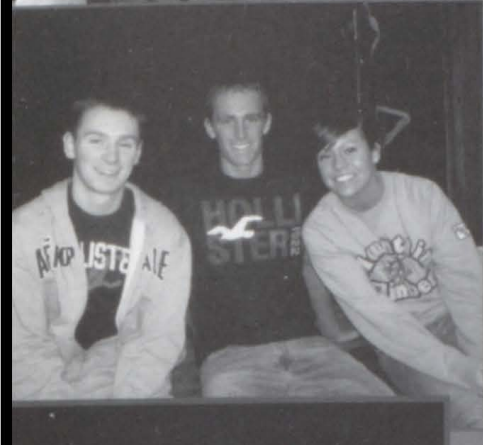

Mike, Dick, Diane, Chuck and Moira work very hard to keep the school looking good.

The best of friends,
Can change a frown,
Into a smile,
when you feel down.

The best of friends,
Will understand,
Your little trials,
And lend a hand.

The best of friends,
Will always share,
Your secret dreams,
Because they care.

The best of friends,
Worth more than gold,
Give all the love,
A heart can hold.

Embarrassing Moments

Ashley Busenburg (9)

"When I was at a basketball game, I was carrying food back to the stands, tripped on my own feet, and fell flat on my face! "

Michael McCullough (10)

"One time, I told a joke in front of a bunch of people and nobody laughed but me."

Brandy Pelo (10)

"When I was a freshman, I was in study hall and would sometimes fall asleep. Sometimes I would jerk or twitch and wake up; a lot of people would see and start laughing, but I'd just lay there pretending nothing happened."

Jordan Scott (9)

"In Dunhams, I was trying on football cleats and ran to the tiled pathway and fell on my patoot."

Todd Whetstone (11)

"I threw up in gym class."

Embarrassing Moments

Jacob Danner (10)

"In speech class, Michael splashed my area with water so it looked like I peed."

Cortney Stambaugh (11)

"When I was in the musical 'Pirates of Penzance', I was at the front of the stage singing and hit the wrong note."

Tim Clennon (12)

"My shoe went flying off while I was riding a zipline."

Josh Foster (11)

"I wore my human torch costume during a Valley basketball game."

Chely Reyes (9)

"One time, my mom chased me around the house while I was naked."

Band

In the Band

They marched in parades you watched when you were small,
You saw them at football games standing up tall,
That gigantic sound that could blow you away,
Gold horns and big bass drums!
You just knew one day,
That you wanted to be in the band,
In the band, in the band,
In your very own Senior High Band.

You're not the same this year,
there's something that's new.
You're much more mature in the things that you do.
Get home late from practice and quickly get fed,
Then turn off the TV(!), do homework instead,
And perhaps its 'cause you're in the band!
In the band, in the band,
In your very own Senior High Band.

In your very own Senior High Band. Holst and Stravinsky,
Mozart, Grainger, Ives,
When playing this music, you are so alive.
Weeks of getting ready, then comes concert night,
Its wonderful music, you play it just right,
And you're so glad that you're in the band!
In the band, in the band,
In your very own Senior High Band.

Go back to school early a'marching all day,
And its not just marching, they want you to play.
Its wet when its raining, still damp when its not,
And when its not raining, its oh so darn hot,
That you wish that you weren't in the band!
In the band, in the band,
In your very own Senior High Band.

Its more than a class or just something to do,
The other band members depend upon you,
So you've got to be there, without you its wrong.
You're in this together, its here you belong,
And you're part of a really great band!
A great band, a great band,
Your great very own Senior High Band.

Valley students hanging out until they can donate.

You can give blood up to 6
times per year.

Mr. Boggs takes a break from his schedule to save 3 lives

One blood donation can help save 3 Lives.

Karissa Surface, Sydnie Reed, and
Ms. Fetterhoff help to make the blood drive run smoothly

Chaitra Jewell waits to give blood

Steph Hoover smiles
while she donates.

ConGRADulations

to the class of 2007

Dear Chaitra,
Congratulations on becoming a 2007 TVHS graduate! We are so proud of you and your efforts. We are proud of the young lady you have become and of the woman you will be as you pursue and fulfill your dreams in the future.

Love always,
Mom, Dad, & Rory

Mary Beth,
I could write a book of how proud your dad and I are of you. You have grown into a lovely young lady on the inside and the outside. Always keep smiling and keep God first in your life as you reach for your dreams, and you will make those dreams come true. May God bless you as you move forward with your journey through life. We love you, Mary Beth.

Dad & Mom

Congratulations Sontasha!
We are so proud of you!

Love,
Mom & Dad
