EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

Those moments that make you blush...

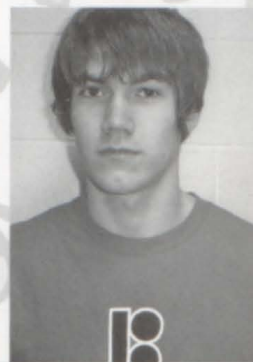

Brittny Cornett

My most embarrassing moment was at my first basketball game during my freshman year. I walked out of the bathroom with a part of my cheerleading skirt stuck in my bloomers.

Corey Ryman

I was sick and threw up in the middle of Ms. Day's class all over the floor.

David Green

I walked out of the showers in front of Coach Sciarra and Officer Hart.

Erin Kintzel

Last year at the fair, I was swimming at the lake with my brother and friend. My mom freaked out because she couldn't find us, so she got the sheriff's deputies out looking for us, and we had to ride in the back of the sheriff's gator...all the way across the fairgrounds!!!

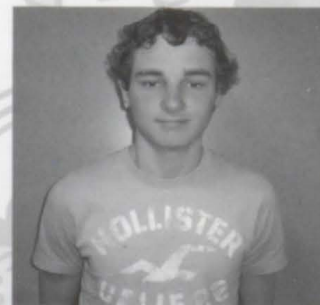

Alisha Portala

It's not that embarrassing, but I ran into the big pillar things.

Jacob Danner

Michael McCullough dumped a bottle of water on my pants so it looked like I peed on myself, and Courtney Schmucker took a picture and put it in the yearbook.

Tyler Minix

I sat in chocolate at the basketball game and nobody told me I did.

Donovan Jenkins trains with Mr. Hutton

Keandra Williams works on her defense skills against Ericka Shepherd

Having practiced the art of kickboxing since 1982, Jon Hutton, TVHS science teacher, started up the kickboxing club in 1996 so that he had an exciting way to work out. Students who join the kickboxing club can expect to learn more than just how to throw accurate jabs and deliver solid kicks. Mr. Hutton uses the sport as a medium through which the students learn discipline and self-defense, as well as gain self-respect and self-esteem. Mr. Hutton enjoys the enthusiasm the students bring with them. Trained in martial arts such as Jeet Kune Do, Sanchin-Ryu, Arnis, Shortfighting, Kyushu Karate, Wing Chun, and Silat, Mr. Hutton has pledged to teach the sport of kickboxing until the day he dies.

“Advice for the Class of 2010”

Tabby Ramsey

"Have a good time. Do what you need to in order to succeed, but laugh daily."

Andrea Joy Hughes

"Stay on top of things, time passes too quickly!!"

Emily Gearhart

"Get out of your comfort zone and mingle with your class, it's your last year together! Live with no regrets."

Sarah Hackworth

"Don't let things that people say or do influence who you are."

Josh Engle

"Be calm, be yourself, make friends, be adventurous, be strong, and don't do anything stupid."

Jennifer Shortz

"Don't waste your time stressing; enjoy yourself."

Steven Wert

"Don't let things get in your way. Unite as a class. You all have the same goal, and you all can help each other achieve it."

RaeAnne Carpenter

"Experience everything, and don't hold back."

Brittney Cornett

"Be yourself - people will like you and if they don't they aren't worth it."
