BEHIND THE SCENES

"Behind The Scenes" is the theme for the Tippecanoe Valley High School 2014-2015 student yearbook. Instead of just focusing on the big ideas of sports, games, and school wide events, we took a step back and looked at all the people who made it happen.

Our school is filled with many activities like Spirit week, Homecoming, Musical, Clubs, Fundraisers, and many others; we all know about these events, but not everyone knows the work and dedication put into making them happen.

Tippecanoe Valley students and staff work hard to make the school a fun and enjoyable place for everyone. Each student has a different personality, varying likes and interests, and unique means of expressing themselves. Our goal this year was to show, not what we all see, but what we don't see. We decided to dedicate this year's yearbook to the people who work "Behind The Scenes".

STUDENT LIFE

The students at Valley are dedicated to their tasks and are loyal with close-knit friend groups. From classroom work and clubs to sports and after school activities, our students join together and work diligently, producing high-quality, high-caliber results. But if you look behind the scenes, you'll see just how crazy, quirky, and all around fun they can really be.

GIRL'S VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM MAKES IT TO STATE!

The road to State was an amazing experience. After we won Sectionals, I thought, "Okay, this is cool." Then I wanted to push hard for Regionals. After we won Regionals, I thought, "This is amazing." The fact that we had already made it further than any other girls basketball team already had us pumped. Combine that with the idea that we were playing Rochester at Warsaw, everything was lining up in our favor. After our Semi-State win, everything blessed became surreal. I kept thinking how blessed we were. The community began giving us even more support than we already had and more than we could ever imagine. From the charter bus, to the meals, to the Pacers game, and to everybody making the trip to support us: Words can't describe how thankful I am. It was the greatest opportunity to be a part of. Thank you to the school and the community for all of the support!

RACHEL'S CHALLENGE

Ever so slowly, our community is changing. Whether it is seen or not it is our phenomenon. As it goes with dreams, some of us may not be here to show the next generation what these little acts of kindness are going to do. So we are going to leave our footprint in the sand, show that we were here, that our phenomenon is not over, and the years after us will leave more footprints. Our kindness phenomenon should last our forever, their forever, and all of time.

My Most Embarrassing Moment Was...

MACKENZIE FEAR

Once I was in study hall practicing a skit for gym. My group and I went to the library to practice in one of the study rooms, but we eventually got bored. One of my group members had their iPod out and was recording in slow motion; she told me to wall twerk. I did, but I started falling and my shoes left black streak marks on the wall... I cleaned it up of course...

THANE MADEFORD

I was pushing a piano up the ramp in the senior hallway to musical practice. I accidentally let go of it, and it put a hole in the wall...

SARAH JONES

I was walking up the stairs, and I tripped in front of the fourth grade class I was interning for...

RICHELLE AMBURGY

On the first day of school I tripped on a carrot at lunch and fell. My spaghetti got all over me...

SHAYLA HOFFMAN

At the FFA auction, I was sold...

MICAH BRADLEY

Some of the musical cast put makeup on my face...

LAURYN GOSSETT

My class was getting ready to leave for the Olympics, and I farted. It smelled so bad that Mrs. Yazel sent me to the hallway...

JADE VALLARIN

I was secretly taking a picture of a class while they were doing skits. I didn't know my flash was on and when I took the picture, everyone looked at me... and I ran away with my friends...

ASHLEY BAHNEY

I literally tripped over a wall...

BRYNDA KRUEGER

At the pep rally, Caylie and Taylor were making fun of me...

TRISHA RUDOLPH

I was walking through a store and had a hole in my pants...

JOY HURD

I was walking into a volleyball game when I tripped and fell in front of everybody...

Miriam Elbs

After deciding that she wanted to become a foreign exchange student, Miriam got the approval through her school, filled out the massive amount of paperwork and got her vaccinations before she was on her way. Coming here she was most worried about not being able to make friends, but after being here she's learned people are more open to small talk than people in Germany are. "But the people here aren't as great at making good, close friends," Miriam adds.

After asking her about her school system in Germany she explains that it's very different than it is here in America. School in Germany is free, including Universities! After grade school, which is the first four years of your school career in Germany, you go to one of three different schools. Depending on your intellectual level you'll either go to the 'Mittelschule, Realschule or Gymnasium'. Each one prepares you for different aspects of your future. She really enjoyed her schoolyear in the US, and she even had the opportunity to go on some great trips, like to NYC or Washington DC.

Jade Vallarin

Jade became interested in becoming a foreign exchange student when her neighbor explained her experience as one. She then went to a college meeting to get both college information and information about becoming a foreign exchange student. Jade was most scared about the family she was to stay with, but she likes them and feels comfortable around them. Comparing school here to school back in Belgium, schooling at home is a lot harder. General schooling starts at age 3, and lasts for 14 years.

When she was asked about stereotypes of America, she points out that some Belgians label Americans as "fat" with "fast food everywhere," but they are "very nice, open, and friendly people". Jade didn't have a really hard time to make friends because she met Miriam and a lot of good people who helped her with school.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

Than Angsakul

Than's plans began after he had taken a fairly easy test and filled out an ample amount of paperwork. Coming to America was harder than he had expected because of the language, but since his move here, his English has improved. His difficulties with English also contributed to his fear of being able to talk to people and making new friends. Luckily, Than has been learning English since kindergarten. Before coming here, Than had heard several stereotypes about Americans. He had heard that Americans were smart but had many parties. When comparing Thailand to America, Than notices the many struggles in our country. He states, "Many people don't eat healthy food but eat fast food." We seem lazier and less social. He also realizes that there are many guns around the country, which could have a positive or negative effect on different situations. In Thailand, there are almost no guns available. When comparing the school system in Thailand to America's, there are a handful of differences. For example, in Thailand the class schedule changes daily. Students are required to wear a uniform. From Than's perspective the lessons in Thailand are much more complex than they are here. In his free time, Than likes to hang out with friends and play soccer. After he is done with school, Than plans to go into Stock Brokering. The reason he came to the U.S. is because he wants to attend college at MIT.

Host Families

All of the experience begins with the host families. Miriam, Than and Jade didn't choose their families but the families chose them. It's because of them that they came to Indiana and to this school.

The process of housing a foreign exchange student can be long and strenuous. According to each family though, it is worth it in the end. The first step to becoming a host family is to contact an exchange student organization (ISE -> International Student Exchange) representative. After contacting the representative you must fill out an application that explains everything and information forms about yourself. Along with the paperwork you must send pictures of your household and agree to a required criminal background check to insure the safety of the students.

Many people get introduced to hosting a foreign exchange student in many different ways. It could be from seeing other family members host foreign students or simply being asked to consider it. The most memorable part of housing a foreign exchange student, though, is the experience. For each family it is a remarkable experience that touches both the family and the students. Neither of them regret the decision for one moment!

HOMECOMING

During homecoming week, there were many festive activities that took place. Throughout the school week, students were allowed to dress in "themes" each day, such as "Camouflage" and "Barnyard Bananza". Many sports, games, and after school activities occurred such as bonfires and the senior night volleyball game. On Friday the "Viking Olympics" took place, where students from each grade participated in a competition to see who can make it to the top! The week ended with the Big Friday night football game where homecoming King and Queen, Mila Smalley and Ricky Lopez, were announced.

SPORTS

Valley is a sports school. Nearly everyone participates in at least one of the large array of options, and many excel in their area. Some people do sports for the exercise, while others play for the fun. Many friendships are made through sports and those friendships may last years after graduation. Valley takes pride in their sports, too! Our basketball and wrestling seasons were just some of the best! And we can't forget about Jesse Floor and his great Cross Country season. Making it to Semi-State is a phenomenal accomplishment!

MCKENZIE MURPHY GIVES A BEHIND THE SCENES LOOK INTO BEING A MANAGER

McKenzie Murphy couldn't play volleyball this season. But instead of veering away from the sport all together, she made the decision to be a manager. "Being a manager is a lot of fun, but sometimes you have to work hard," she tells us. Some responsibilities of being a manager include keeping track of the players' equipment, running errands, and noting the players' statistics.

McKenzie told us that the best part of being a manager is building strong friendships with all the players. Of course, there is a downside too; for example, she does not enjoy the fact that she gets home late. The easiest part about her job was doing the stats. The hardest part was keeping track of the players' equipment. She would suggest being a manager, only if you love spectating the sport. Upon reflection of the entire experience, McKenzie thinks that she'll probably be a manager again next year.

Our Valley Vikes face Rochester on Pinkout Night.

If Mr. Engbrecht could take one of his classes on a fieldtrip anywhere around the world, he would take his Sports Marketing class to the Super Bowl.

Mrs. Engle's favorite thing to do in the fall is to go to a TVHS Vikings football game. She says, "There is something to be said for the energy and the feeling of all the students coming together for a great game!"

FALL SPORTS

All the fall sports teams faced many challenges over the season, but that only allowed them to grow closer together and build strong friendships. As a school community we had some amazing moments, as well as great triumphs and sportsmanship. This fall we even added soccer. This team grew together as a family, and they are ready for the next season! During football we enjoyed a lot of creative and spirited cheerblock themes, such as Toga, 'Merica, Hawaiian, Gangster, and many others!

WINTER SPORTS

The warm seasons are over, but that doesn't mean it's time to hang up the fun. Here we come, winter sports! Winter sports might not attract as much attention as other seasons, but this year's season has been by far the most enjoyable and captivating! With the support of the school community, we've had many triumphs and wonderful moments. This year, our girls basketball team had the honor of becoming the Class 3A State Runner-Ups! We could not be more proud of our Lady Vikings. Whether basketball is your forte or swimming is more your style, find your memories here.

CLUBS

Clubs have a unique way of bringing people closer together. As students participate in the activities that inspire and encourage them, they become like a family. Cliques and friend groups become obsolete as we work towards a common goal. At Tippecanoe Valley, there are a variety of clubs that students can participate in. From art and writing to music and sports, there are all sorts of different activities that students can join to suit their unique tastes and personalities.

Student Cou

We give our thanks to the Tippecanoe Valley Student Council for preparing fun school events and helping the community. We could go on and on about what they do. Instead, we interviewed the Vice President, Brandon Murphy, to give us an inside look. "I've really enjoyed the past few years here with student council," Brandon says. "By far, out of everything we do, my favorite project is buying little kids presents for Christmas." Brandon explains that the Student Council loves to give to the community and to the school. Many of their activities involve helping out others or organizing fun events. From blood drives to setting up the high school formal, the Student Council loves to pitch in with anything. If it is fun and being done, chances are TVHS Student Council was behind the scenes making it happen!

Band

Our Lady Vikings weren't the only ones to go to state this year: Tippecanoe Valley band members were excited this year when they found out they would be taking the trip to Indianapolis with our Girls Basketball team.

We asked Miss. Riner and individual band students about how they felt going to state and performing in front of such a large crowd. "I was shaking and my heart was pounding really fast. I almost fainted when I got to the basketball court..." says America Baca. Despite everyone's nerves, they all stated that it was such a fun and exciting trip. They were glad they were able to support our school in such a proud moment.

State wasn't the only big event band encountered this year. Over Christmas break, the Tippecanoe Valley band was able to take a trip to Memphis, Tennessee. It was an exciting trip for them to all take together as one big family. Students were able to perform at halftime of the Liberty Bowl in Memphis, as well as visit the famous Graceland, home of Elvis Presley.

The band family is all about fun, excitement, joy, and friendship. Bradley Shepard makes a great point when explaining how it feels to be in band, "At first you feel somewhat awkward, but soon after you start to feel like family, and you guys start to form unbreakable bonds." To many band students, band becomes a family. Even conductor, Miss Riner says, "It is a lot of fun as a conductor. You're on the receiving end of great talent, and it is very rewarding to hear all of our hardwork come together for the performance." Without band, our football and basketball games would not have the same sort of fun, energetic feel as they do now. We have the band to thank for adding flare to our school.

Bowling

Jacob Hoffman on Bowling

Since Jacob has been walking, he has been bowling. Jacob's mother started learning from one of her friends. That friend encouraged her to teach Jacob about the sport. Jacob has been bowling by himself all through elementary and middle school, up until he started the High School League.

During the season, between November and January, the team practiced twice a week. "The weird thing about practices," Jacob told us, "Is that everybody has a different way of bowling, so there's no specific way of teaching someone how to do it." Jacob also told us that this is what makes the coaches so good. They can teach each player how to do it, without discouraging the way they started bowling.

Jacob has a touch of autism. Nothing major, but sometimes it affects the way he communicates with people. With Jacob, holding a conversation is harder; it's not as easy for him as it is for everyone else. This is a big part of the reason he likes bowling so much.

To Jacob, bowling isn't like basketball or football where some of the most popular kids get to play because they're charming and are better friends with everyone else. Bowling allows anyone to play. It doesn't matter if you're quiet, or loud, or funny. It all depends on how good you are at playing the game. With bowling, everyone gets to bowl, no matter what.

Jacob is an amazing player. His best score is 246 (out of a 300 point possibility), and that was just goofing around! Bowling has changed Jacob's life, opening him up to new opportunities and chances. He's made best buds with the other kids. He even refers to them as his second family.

Getting a new high score isn't Jacob's only goal. What he's aiming for now is trying to get more people to join the team. "Bowling isn't really a spectator's sport, but when you're playing it, you go all in!"

Would You Rather Use Paper & Pencil? Or a Tablet?

We asked you whether you'd rather use paper and pencil or a tablet to do your homework, and the old fashioned way won by a landslide! 84% preferred paper and pencil, while the other 16% preferred to do their work on their tablets!

PEERS

The Purpose of Peer Facilitators is to ensure that students are guided in the right direction. Whether that is socially or educationally, Peers tries to help students to the best of their abilities.

- Brandi Hazard

What is it Like Being a Peer Facilitator?

Katie Gunter

You get to build relationships with other people, and I like that.

Micah Bradley

It's really eye opening. It's a good way to meet and talk to people that you normally wouldn't talk to, and it's satisfying to know you're helping somebody with their problems.

Amanda Heltzel

You get to learn about how to correctly respond to and help people in certain situations.

Charlie Parker

We get to put ourselves out there to help people. You become passionate about what you're doing. Altogether, you become a supporter for the school.

Senior Trip

The Senior Trip is definitely a trip to remember. It gives the opportunity to spend time with your classmates and see important places in history. They did multiple fun and interesting things while being there. They got to tour Mount Vernon, the Gettysburg Battlefield, the Capitol Building, the National Cathedral, and the Arlington National Cemetery. They also got the opportunity to see many different monuments, such as the Jefferson Memorial, the WWII Memorial, the Pentagon 911 Memorial, the Lincoln Memorial. One of the exciting parts of the trip was seeing the White House. They went to the National Zoo and many museums, including the Smithsonian. The trip to Washington D.C was an awesome experience. The Class of 2015 would like to give a special thanks to Mr. Smith and Ms. Day for making this trip possible and enjoyable.

MUSICAL

"We go together!" The Tippecanoe Valley Musical group of 2015 made this statement true with their amazing Performance of Grease! Everybody knows, that to put on a great show you must have a script, music, and of course, a great cast! This year, the musical was a big hit, selling out three of the four shows.

While the musical was a big success, much of the fun happened behind the curtain. There was a vast amount of enthusiasm when Joy Hurd did her solo piece, 'Sandra Dee'. Everyone knew this song by heart from rehearsal, so while she was up on stage, giving it her all, the rest of the cast was backstage lip synching their hearts out.

We asked cast members what went on backstage. "Lots of water!" says Kaden Sebastian, "There were about thirty opened, unfinished water bottles lying around."

To many people, the members of the musical cast are more than just members. "Musical means family and it means being apart of something so much bigger," says Kinley Eads.

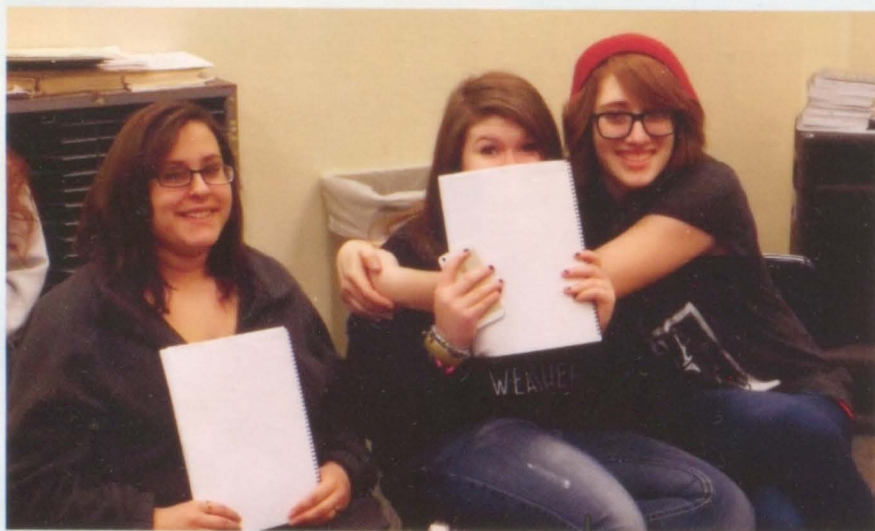

Even though this year's musical has come to a close, and the cast and crew prepare for the remainder of the year, the cast members of Grease have formed an unbreakable bond that will last for the remainder of their high school years.

POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC STUDIES

Political and Economic Studies is a senior level class that combines Government, Economics, and English 12 into a two period, year round class co-taught by Mr. Shriver and Mrs. Yazel. Combining these classes offers some unique experiences for seniors.

YEA (Young Entrepreneurs Academy)

Through a partnership with the Kosciusko Chamber of Commerce and Grace College, Political and Economic Studies students compete locally for a chance to compete nationally via the Young Entrepreneurs Academy or YEA as well as earn 3 college credits in business. Students, in groups or individually and with the help of Dr. Grossnickle and business mentors from Kosciusko Chamber of Commerce, create business plans to start their own business. Students learn marketing and accounting skills needed to write a business plan. They must also present their business to an investor panel made up of local business men and Grace College professors who will award them start-up funds based on the quality of their plans and presentations. One business is selected to compete at a regional competition in New York.

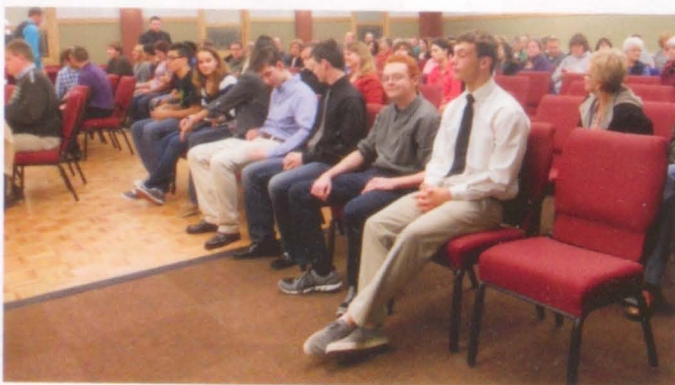

This year, Michael Thacker's business, Invictus Photography, was chosen to compete in New York. Michael combined his love of sports and photography to create a business. Invictus Photography takes pictures of sports teams throughout the season then compiles photo CD's to parents with pictures focusing on their child. Michael realized high school sports photography was a niche market not previously explored by other photographers. Selling basketball CD's to parents of both the boys and girls basketball teams lead to requests from parents and students for Michael to photograph other sports seasons.

Tippecanoe Valley's School Board Candidate Forum

While studying the election process, the Political and Economic Studies class decided to host a school board forum where the public could listen to the candidates' views in order to make an informed decision. Students worked in committees to plan and carry out the forum. They contacted the candidates and a moderator (Tim Keefaber of WRSW), created the format and questions, arranged for a venue and set it up and finally advertised the event. The event was held on October 20th with a full house and was well received by the community.

The school board candidate forum was attended by many. Most seats were filled.

American Studies combines US History and English 11 in one class and offers students the ability to earn 6 Grace College credits in History. By combining these two classes, students gain a better understanding of both US History and American Literature.

For the past three years, the American Studies class has partnered with the Prill School Museum Association to help preserve and maintain the history of a local landmark. Prill School is an 1850's school house located in Fulton County within the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation.

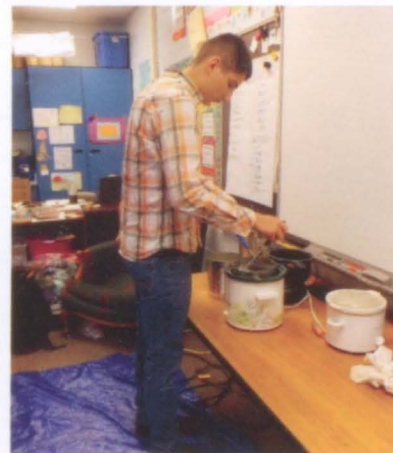

As in the past three years, the students have planned and carried out a Pioneer Day for fourth grade students at both Mentone and Akron Elementary Schools. The students researched pioneer daily life during the time Prill School was in session and prepare typical activities which allow the fourth graders to experience pioneer life.

Through fundraisers and grants, the American Studies class raised money to buy supplies for the activities. This year, students held a Chili Supper during a home basketball game. Ben Slone and Rafael Jimenez also attended a grant writing session, applied for, and secured a Keys Grant to purchase hand crank ice cream makers for this year's event.

In May, the fourth graders participated in a recreation of local history which included dipping candles, churning butter, making rope and ice cream, playing pioneer games, as well as experiencing traditional school lessons at Prill School. TVHS students as well as the fourth grade students enjoyed learning about local history!

Pioneer Day

Pioneer Day is not only a wonderful experience for the 4th graders, but the high schoolers and teachers involved as well. This event is held a week apart at both Akron and Mentone Elementary School. TVHS students are given a chance to teach the 4th graders about events in the 1800s such as, hand cranked ice cream, rope making, funnel cakes, etc. In the afternoon they all travel to Prill School (located outside of the town of Akron) where the 4th graders learn a lesson in Prill School and continue with a variety of events on the lawn of Prill School. Some examples are dream catchers, bobbing for apples, and clothes pin dolls.

AMERICAN STUDIES

The Indiana Sunshine Society is a philanthropic organization founded in 1901. Its purpose of dedication to humanity is found in its one-word motto: "Others". Sunshine has been devoted to this purpose and in 1928 the decision was made to make Riley Children's Hospital it's primary beneficiary. Every year we donate, and we have contributed over $400,000 to the hospital. The mission of this organization is make this world a brighter place in any way possible.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIEY

The National Honor Sociey (NHS) is the nation's premier organization established to recognize outstanding high school students. These characteristics have been associated with membership in the organization since its beginning in 1921. Today, it is estimated that more than one million students participate in NHS activities. NHS chapters are found in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, many U.S. territories, and Canada. Students are selected for NHS based on GPA eligibility and faculty rating in the pillars of scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

NHS members complete at least 30 hours of community service each year. There are currently 52 NHS members at TVHS. Currently NHS is co-sponsored by school counselor Stephanie Anglin and math teacher/high ability coordinator Kristen Ekhoft. Eligible sophomores are selected every year to join the NHS chapter. Junior/Senior students who qualify are re-evaluated each year by a faculty committee for membership. After students are selected, NHS host an induction ceremony for incoming members and their families in the spring.

CULTURE NIGHT

Ms. Ponce's and Mr. Walker's Spanish classes have come together to create a goal to show parents how to help children be successful in school. Ms. Ponce and Mr. Walker were excited to introduce this project to parents.

As for Mrs. Buss, her French classes had created an art gallery, a cafe, and activity center to help children learn about different cultures and backgrounds.

WHAT DO STUDENTS THINK ABOUT THIS YEAR'S SENIORS?

Everybody has their own opinions, right? Yearbook asked a variety of students in each grade how they felt about this year's seniors. Some responses may surprise you, while others may be exactly what you would expect. So what do you think about the class of 2015? Do you agree, or is there something you'd add to our list?

EXPECTATIONS FOR SENIOR YEAR

For the incoming Seniors, we had a few questions; Are they excited to become Seniors? What are they nervous for? Will their lives change after this year? To find this out, we asked a variety of Juniors what they thought, and these were their responses.

Robert Morehouse

What are you nervous for?
"I'm nervous that I won't see the same people after high school ends."

Do you think your life will change during your Senior year?
"I think it will change because we will have more work experience."

Lazero Rodriguez

What are you expecting your Senior year?
"Easier classes."

Do you think your life will change during your Senior year?
"I think it will stay the same."

Nick Reynolds

Are you excited to become a Senior?
"Somewhat, but I'm not all that excited."

What are you nervous for?
"Tripping on the graduation stage."

PRO'S & CON'S OF SOPHOMORE YEAR

We all know that all the grades in high school have some sort of specific detail to them, the Freshman are the newbies, Juniors are gearing up with looking at colleges, and Seniors are just enjoying their last year! But what about the Sophomores? We decided to do a small poll to ask Sophomore thoughts of their year.

Phoenix Reed

"One good thing is that you're not a freshman, but you're still looked down on by the upperclassmen."

Breanna Kidd

"We work harder than the freshmen do, which isn't a good thing, but the teachers are a lot friendlier."

Madison Tanner

"As sophomores we're less immature, but you're still considered and looked down on as lower classmen."

Laura Anne Davis

"We're not freshmen anymore, but there aren't a lot of opportunities for us as lowerclassmen."

Elizabeth Salazar

"There's still a lot of judgement in our way, but we reach out to each other more often."

Sydney Schaeffer

As sophomore's, we're more established in the hierarchy of school society, but we have to take the English ECA. "

FRESHMAN RELATIONS

A lot of Freshman have siblings who are also in high school. Some are only a year ahead and others are nearly done with their high school career. Either way, most of these sibling pairs are made up of two completely different individuals, that have virtually nothing in common, and yet, they still find a way to get along. But the relationships between these siblings are fascinating. Some of these siblings can't stand each other, while others are joined at the hip!

We decided to look into these relationships, and ask these siblings exactly how they felt about each other.

Kaden & Kori Sebastian

Kori explains, "We talk like besties, but we pick on each other like siblings," and Kaden says, "We're best friends with the occasional throwdown."

Hayly & Cheyene Oldfather

"We're definitely different, but we get along with our differences," says Cheyene, but all Hayly has to say is "Ew."

The Zuniga's

On the topic of his siblings, Caleb remarks, "We're related." Justin says, "Kylee is okay, and I only get along with Tyler when we agree, but Caleb is my favorite." Tyler comments, "I obviously like Kylee... We're twins. Justin is okay, but me and Caleb do everything together." Kylee adds, "We don't 'fight' fight, but we play fight."

Allyssa and Taylor Weber

Taylor says, "It's a love/hate relationship. Sometimes I want to choke her, but I love her." Allyssa replies with "She's a sweetheart, but still, I want to kick her."

Travis & Tenya Shull

"She's a really good role model, but she's a pain in the butt," says Travis, while Tenaya says "No comment."

Ethan & Isabel Warren

Ethan explains, "At home we're pretty neutral, but at school we don't talk at all." Isabel adds, "I call him stupid a lot!"

KASHA MICHELLE MILLER

Kasha,
From a fun, energetic, loving little girl to a beautiful young lady with such a love for life! Keep God in your heart and your head held high. We know wherever life leads you, you will do great!

All our love,

Dad, Mom, Kelsey, Noah,
and Nash

#proudtobeherfamily

DAMION SAINER

No words can describe the pride we have for you! We know you are going to excel in everything you do! We love you!

Love,

Mom and Dad

AUSTIN BLAKE FRENCH

Austin,
Congratulations on your graduation! So proud of the young man you've become. Can't wait to see what God has in store for your future!

Love you,

Mom and Dad

DEVIN RAY CHILDERS

Devin,
WOW! What a ride we have had together. Hope you have as much success out of high school as you did in school. We are very proud of the person that you have become. We love you very much and wish you the best next year in college!!

Love,

Mom and Dad

Back: Jeremy Himes, Kaden Sebastian, Zechariah Capps

Our Teacher Mrs. Engle

Nobody has been more faithful and devoted than Mrs. Engle! She was surprised with the yearbook class, and rather than toss it aside and disregard the new responsibility, she embraced the class with a willing heart and a determined spirit. She came in with constructive criticism, helping us to understand and discover what we needed to change in order for this yearbook to work. We're extremely thankful for all you've done, Mrs. Engle!

America
Baca

Not sure how she did it, but America was great at behind the scenes. She took pictures of the band while she was playing in the band! Sneaky...

Cristian
Jiminez-Baca

Cristian tried to be behind all of the scenes! He would volunteer for each and every job I offered to the staff! But not even Cristian could do it all!

Tabitha
Baldrige

If you ever need art supplies or posters made, Tabi is your woman! She was also a great note taker and secretary to me! Thanks!

Zechariah
Capps

Zechariah. Or is it Zachary? I can't seem to remember! Zac was behind all the scenes and did every single thing I asked him to. Thank you!

Lillee
Caudill

DO NOT give this girl sugar. This could turn out very dangerous. She once bounced up and down on her toes for 12 minutes straight!

Ashley
Crill

Poor Ashley left the yearbook in Dec., but she still ended working on the billing all year long! She fueled me and McKenzie with snacks all year long! Thanks!

Ashley
Dunnick

Ashley jumped in midyear with us, but found her home taking pics & running many errands for me! She learned where everyone worked in the school!

Miriam
Elbs

Miri was quite the business mind! She always had a great idea and a way to bail us out! She was also in charge of keeping Jade in line. So she was busy!

Mackenzie Fear

If there was ever anyone who could win an award for saying odd things, it would be Mack. Curling iron anyone?!

Pamela
Gonzalez

Watch out- Pam could sell you your own shoes. She & Kaden sold $3k in ads for the yearbook. A phantom- she would work when no one was looking.

Kaylyn
Hamman

Kaylyn was sweet and energetic no matter what we asked her to do! She also had Jade watching responsibility! A full time job!

Jeremy Himes

Jeremy took pictures everywhere! He was a go-to, get-it-done kind of guy. Plus, he gave us an inside scoop on many social situations!

Kelsey Justice

Why, Kelsey, your hair looks so nice! Did you just get it done? Ask her about how nice I think her hair looks!

Michelle
Keenan

Michelle had the blessing of having me 2 periods in a row- Stud. Pub. & Eng. 10! Poor girl! She worked hard and diligently in both though and persevered!

Jasmine
Sabo

Cutest couple in yearbook- Zac and Jasmine! I called their relationship at the very beginning of the year. Also, she and Ally sang almost every day!

Kaden
Sebastian

Kaden's attention to detail was critical behind the scenes! He had no problem saying what he didn't like about the design or layout! I appreciate that!

Kori
Sebastian

Do not let her sweet smile fool you! She was quite aggressive at times with her peers- Kelsey mainly! It was all in good fun though- unless you were Kelsey!

Kaytie Shilling

Kaytie & Zac were my chief advisors when the school year began. Being veteran members I relied on them for advice as to what was yearbook protocols!

Jade
Vallarin

All of the pictures you see of Jade are her best pics. She constantly changed her picture! Jade takes more selfies than anyone we know! We will miss her!

Destiny
Wallis

Destiny was always there with an idea and suggestion to make our book better! She collaborated on many spreads to improve our book!

Allyssa
Weber

Ally had a silent sense of humor that I got! I relied on her instincts and that proved fruitful and again! Thanks, Ally for our quiet jokes!

The LDCommodities Advantage

Since production started in 2007, LDClaypool has provided a new avenue for producers to market their soybean crop. With soybean receiving open 24/7, farmers are able to take advantage of the "extra hours" in the day.

We offer several types of forward contracts including cash, basis and hedge-to-arrive. Customers can call us anytime to request pricing information or visit our website for daily bids.

Connecting Your Supply to Global Demand

LDCommodities has merchandised and traded bulk agricultural commodities in international markets since its founding in 1851. Products traded today include corn, barley, rice, wheat, sorghum, soybeans, canola, sunflower and oilseed products.

Louis Dreyfus companies are present in over 53 countries, with major offices in Beijing, Buenos Aires, Delhi, Geneva, London, Paris, São Paulo, Singapore, Wilton (Connecticut) and Memphis (Tennessee).

LDCommodities is consistently ranked as one of the world's largest merchandisers of grains and oilseeds. Ranked number one in world cotton merchandising, it is one of the largest producers of orange juice and has a growing worldwide presence in the emerging biofuels sector, including a leading position in the Brazilian ethanol market. It is also one of the top sugar merchants in the world.

Citrus

LDCommodities is one of the three largest producers of orange juice in the world with a 15-percent share of the global market.

Coffee

LDCommodities is one of the largest and best-known dealers of green coffee in the world, trading over five million bags annually.

Cotton

LDCommodities, one of the largest traders and merchandisers of raw cotton in the world, handles approximately 1.5 million metric tons of cotton each year.

Grains

Consistently ranked as one of the largest merchandisers of grains, LDCommodities originates and distributes products throughout the world.

Oilseeds

LDCommodities has a major origination presence in all of the primary oilseed production regions and is among the largest distributors in the world.

Metals

Metals is a trading and service business unit in the field of raw material and refined base metals.

Rice

Actively involved in the global rice trade, LDCommodities merchandises paddy, brown and milled rice from the United States, Europe, Asia and South America.

Sugar

LDCommodities ranks as one of the top three sugar merchants and traders in the world, handling both raw and white sugar and handling more than 2.5 million tons of sugar annually.

Freight

LDCommodities is one of the largest chartering entities in the world in support of its worldwide commodities trading activities, a significant portion of which is concentrated in the area of grain transport.
