her Hinsdale,
Illinois home.*

The idea for this presentation of the Constitution came into being when Mrs. Brinkman discovered, among our young people, the lack of understanding about the meaning of THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE. The question in her mind was how had our Youth missed knowing about the Great Document which was the FOUNDATION of the UNITED STATES.

For three years she worked on a means of extending to all this noble plan for a great Nation. The result of her research is a new simple, attractive and appealing format of The Constitution of the United States. Mrs. Brinkman had it published at her own expense and sells it at cost. Now in its third printing this book has found its way into all 50 states in our Union. It has won the approval of top editors, teachers, political leaders, educators, college presidents, citizens and students.

In her adult life Mrs. Brinkman has been a student of economic, religious and political developments. She has been a public-spirited worker in church, civic, educational, patriotic and political organizations. She is a mother and grandmother with a hope that all people of our nation shall have a knowledge of this great Document — The CONSTITUTION of the UNITED STATES; that they may understand why our country treasures PERSONAL FREEDOM IN THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE.

Typical Unsolicited Comments on . . .

The Constitution of the United States

Hon. William F. Quinn, Governor of Hawaii, Honolulu:

"This book is most welcome. The results of the recent polls conducted at some of our institutions of higher learning to discover the students' knowledge of government appear to indicate that there is need to re-acquaint ourselves with the tenets of our Constitution."

Kenneth Wells, Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, Valley Forge, Pennsylvania:

"We regard it highly."

Mary and Peter Loftus: Peter Loftus Corporation, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania:

"We received the Constitution of the United States and discovered we never did know it. I'm sure there are many other adults in the same class. We think it is a wonderful idea, especially today as we are in such a mess with the world, and do hope it goes over big."

Hon. William A Egan, Governor, State of Alaska:

"Thank you very much for the bound copy of the 'Constitution of the United States'. I shall avail myself on various occasions of the words contained in that immortal document."

Dr. M. Norvel Young, President, Pepperdine College, Los Angeles, California:

"Your handling of the presentation of the Constitution makes the reading and study of this document an extremely inviting and simplified process. Thanks so much for the service you have rendered to our Country in this vitally important undertaking."

Dr. George S. Benson, President, Harding College, Searcy, Arkansas:

"I have on my desk a copy of your beautiful rendition of 'The Constitution of the United States'. You have done this in beautiful style. (Mrs. Brinkman, this is just one more of the multitude of services that you have rendered to your fellow countrymen and for which we are all indebted to you.)"

Mrs. E. K. Safford, Berkeley, California:

"It fills a great need, not only in the schools but in the minds of all of our citizens. The book is a great achievement."

William H. Wood, Sarasota, Florida:

"Educators have told us, we want students to read this great document and learn for themselves."
