

You gotta try
your luck at least
once a day,
because you could
be going around
lucky all
day and not even know it.

Recipes

OREO CRUST. Crush all Oreos in large Ziploc bag using a rolling pin, or in food processor (reserve $\frac{1}{3}$ crumbs to go in cheesecake and to sprinkle on top). Mix with butter and press onto bottom of 13×9-inch pan. Set aside.

CHEESECAKE. Beat cream cheese, sugar and vanilla in large bowl with mixer until blended. Fold in whipped cream and some of the reserve chopped cookies. Spoon over crust. Top with remaining cookies.

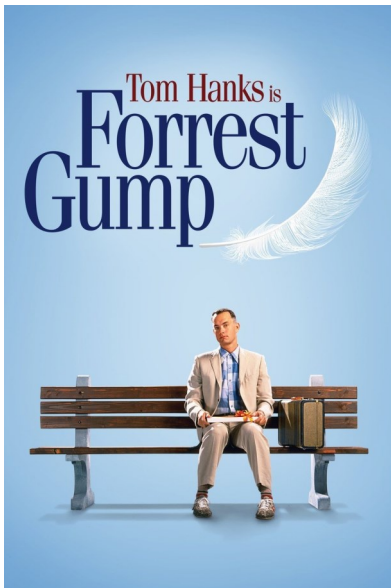

CHILL. Refrigerate 4 hours, or until firm.

Tips: If you chop your Oreos too finely when you mix them into the cheesecake, the color may take on a gray hue.

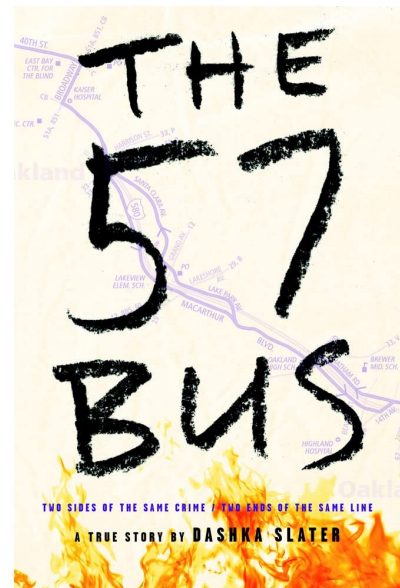

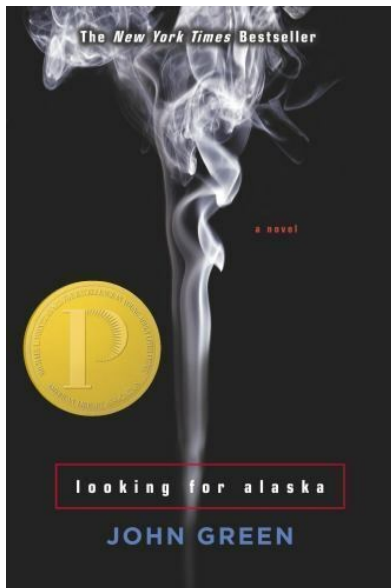

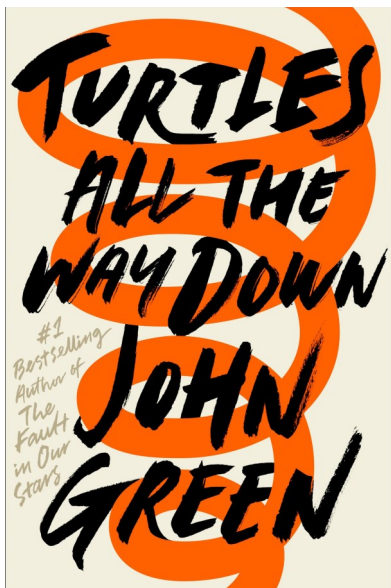

- Make sure the cream cheese is at room temperature so it mixes more smoothly without lumps.
- Be sure to FOLD when the recipe calls for it. Do not overmix.
