Welcome to our new YA Coordinator, Elyza Oswald to Bell

Welcome our new YA/Teen Coordinator, Elyza Oswald, to Bell Memorial Public Library!

Elyza has been with BMPL since 2011. She started out as a circulation clerk. She is the co-owner of

Pete & Freddy's Pages Aplenty Used Bookstore

along with her sister, Maddie Anweiler. You can find them on Facebook and Instagram (@pagesaplenty). Elyza also has a small business working alongside her husband; Brandon called Yeti and Boo Creations. They make leather items, recycled art as well as, fiber art.

As YA Coordinator, Elyza hopes to develop relationships with teens in our area by creating a space that is welcoming. Some programs she is planning to bring to the library include: Board Game Night, Crazy

History Night, Trivia Challenge, Teen Crafts, Movie Night, Oscar

Bracket Night and Podcasting just to name a few. She is definitely open to suggestions.

Elyza recently started a Teen Book Club which already had its first meeting January 15th. They are currently reading "The Darkest Minds" by Alexandra Bracken. Teen Book Club is open to teens age 13-19.

If you're interested in joining, just let her know.

Elyza can be reached on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:00 am – 5:00 pm at the library. Her email address is: EAnweiler@bell.lib.in.us.

There are several ways to find out about future YA programs happening at the library. We can be found on Facebook BMPL Teen Page).

What's on the Menu?

We are thinking of starting a Recipe Swap group here at the library. Each person attending would bring a dish of some sort (can be an appetizer, casserole, dessert etc.) for everyone to sample and enough copies of said recipe to share with everyone in case others want to try to make your recipe at home. Potential meeting nights would be either a Tuesday or a Thursday evening. Contact Billie at 574-353-7234 for more information.
