

Likens, Gene Elden.

Bibliography of 110 articles in science magazines and professional journals, monographs, three books and numerous abstracts, as author or co-author or editor, dating 1960-1976. May, 1976. Excerpts (three books and various articles):

--(ed.) Nutrients and Eutrophication. American Society of Limnology and Oceanography. Lawrence, Kan. Special Symposia, v.1, 1972. 328p.

--(co-editor) Theoretical and Practical Dynamics of a Northern Forest Ecosystem. Springer-Verlag New York, Inc. (in prep)

--et. al. (eds) Temporal Variation and Pattern in the Biogeochemistry of a Northern Hardwood Forest Ecosystem. Springer-Verlag New York, Inc., 1976.

--"Nutrient Cycles of an Ecosystem." Scientific American 223 (4): 92-101. 1970.

--In Science magazine: "Nutrient Cycling" (1967) "Nutrients and Eutrophication" (1971), "Acid Rain, a Serious Regional Environmental Problem (1974) "Acidity in Rainwater: Has an Explanation Been Presented?" (1975)

--"Limnology--Recent Studies on Meromictic Lakes." Yearbook of Science and Technology. New York: McGraw-Hill Book Co. 1968. pp. 232-233.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Born in Pierceton, Ind., Jan. 6, 1935, Gene E. Likens has attained national recognition and honors through his research and work in ecology and more recently in limnology, the study of lakes. He has been a research associate in zoology and meteorology at the Univ. of Wisconsin and taught biological sciences at Dartmouth College. He presently is Professor, Section of Ecology and Systematics, Cornell Univ. He has been an ecological advisor to and testified before the U.S. Senate (1970-73) and has worked with the Environmental Protection Agency since 1974. Recipient of the Guggenheim Fellowship 1972-73, National Science Foundation Research grants, he is currently a member of the NATO Adv. Research Inst. on Acid Rains and president of the Amer. Soc. of Limnology and Oceanography. His parents, Colonel and Mrs. Likens have been longtime residents of the Pierceton area. His father, former principal of Monroe School, is active in the Retired Teachers Association.

Matchett, John R.

Bibliography of 47 articles, reports, and papers written or presented by Dr. Matchett for his doctoral dissertation, professional journals, Dept. of Agriculture Yearbooks, conferences, etc., as author or co-author, compiled Apr. 29, 1963. Excerpts follow:

--Studies on the Electronegativity of Atomic Groups. Doctoral dissertation, Univ. of Chicago, 1931. 37p. (printed by the Univ. 1933)

--"Report on Chloroform and Carbon Tetrachloride." Jour. Assoc. Official Agr. Chem. v. 14, 1931, p.360

--"Report of the Marijuana Investigation, Summer of 1937." J. Amer. Pharm. Assoc. v. 27, 1938. pp.29-36.

--"Marijuana--Its Identification, an Illustrated Booklet for the Assistance of Field Officers." U.S. Bureau of Narcotics, 1938. 4lp. illus.

--"Report on (the Determination of) Caffeine." J. Assoc. Official Agr. Chem., 1940. v. 23: pp.768-773.
Yearbook of Agriculture articles: include "Basic Methods of Processing Food" (1950-51), "The Development of New Foods" (1959), "The Processing of Food" (1962).

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Dr. Matchett, a native of Pierceton, served as Director, Product and Process, Evaluation Staff, Office of Administrator, Agricultural Research Service, U.S. Dept. of Agriculture.

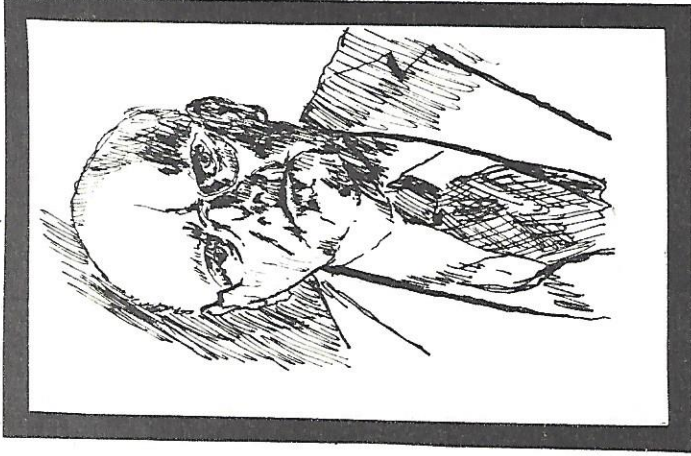

Sister M. Eleonore.

Author of five books: The Literary Essay in English. Chicago: Ginn & Co., 1923. Talks with Our Daughters. Chicago: Benziger Bros., 1924. Troubadors of Paradise. New York: D. Appleton & Co., 1926. Love Folds Its Wings. Chicago: Benziger Bros., 1938. Mary. Encino, Calif.: Bruce Publishing Co., 1940. PPL

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Sister M. Eleonor GSC, Ph.D, was born Kate Bresnahan, a former resident of Pierceton. She is on the faculty of St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, Ind. She has been a teacher, prose writer and poet.

SILVER LAKE

Kosciusko County, Indiana, Lake Guide, 1939. . . . comp. and published by Record Publishing Co., Silver Lake, Ind. PC

Eli Lilly

SYRACUSE

Edgell, Scott A.

Sketches of Lake Wawasee... Indianapolis: Indiana Historical Society, c1967 94p. photos. SPL, WCPL

"...a companion volume to Early Wawasee Days, by Eli Lilly." (sub*title*). Gives interesting accounts of people, places, and stories around Wawasee Lake.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Born Apr. 17, 1902, Scott Edgell grew up at Buttermilk Point on Wawasee Lake. He attended Western Reserve Univ., where he taught for sometime and has served as an accountant with several national companies.

Lilly, Eli, 1885-

Early Wawasee Days. Indianapolis: Studio Press, 1965. 95p., photos., map. SPL, WCPL

Traditions, tales and memories concerning Lake Wawasee, where Mr. Lilly was a summer resident for many years.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Manufacturing chemist, philanthropist, and student of American archeology and history, Eli Lilly was born on Apr. 1, 1885, in Indianapolis. He is the son of Josiah Kirby and Lilly Ridgely Lilly. He attended local schools and received degrees from the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science; Ph.C. in 1907, Ph.M. in 1935, and D.S. in 1965. On Nov. 7, 1927, he married Ruth Allison.

Mr. Lilly's business career has been spent with the world-renowned pharmaceutical company founded by his grandfather, Col. Eli Lilly, in 1876. He joined the organization in 1907, was made supt. of manufacturing two years later, served as general supt. 1915-1920 and vice-president 1920-32, and was elected president in 1932. Upon the death of his father in 1948, he became chairman of the board of directors, a position he held till 1961 and again in 1966-69, when he became honorary chairman for a second time.

In 1937 upon his suggestion, his brother, Joseph Kirby Lilly Jr., his father and he set up the Lilly Endowment, Inc., a philanthropic foundation chartered for "the promotion and support of religious, educational or chairtable purposes." Contributions from this source have amounted to millions of dollars.

He has received honorary degrees from Wabash College, Butler, Indiana, DePauw, Univ. of the South, and the Universities of Kentucky and Pittsburgh. In addition, he has been the recipient of numerous other awards.

Miles, George W.

"History of Syracuse Settled in 1835". Published in the Syracuse Journal in weekly installments May 3, 1935 - June 4, 1936. (Reprinted during Syracuse's Centennial year) SPL

"...Taken from the history of Syracuse and Lake Wawasee, compiled by George W. Miles and printed in the Syracuse Journal weekly in 1909."

Starts with the changing of the name, Turkey Lake to Lake Wawasee. Gives sketches of the Indian chiefs--Musquaw-buck, Wau-wa-aus-see, Flat Belly, and Benack. Arrival of Samuel Crosson and Henry Ward in 1835. Describes old points of interest around the lake, the birth and growth of Syracuse, old mill, land claims and sales, dam built in 1832, school-houses, early settlers and pioneer families.

Sharp, Ronald C.

"History of Syracuse," six chapters published in the Syracuse-Wawasee Journal, 1956. (It covers the prehistoric period to 1840's.) SPL

* * *

Lardner, Ringgold Wilmer, 1885-1933.

The Love Nest and Other Stories...New York: Scribner's, c1926. 232p. WCPL

-- What of It? New York: Scribner's, c1925. 222p. (Collection of short stories) WCPL

Elder, Donald.

Ring Lardner. New York: Doubleday, 1956. 409p. illus. WCPL

Biography of Lardner: Born Niles, Mich., attended the Armour Institute of Technology in Chicago before beginning his career as a sports writer and columnist on newspapers in South Bend, Chicago, St. Louis and New York. He met Miss Ellis Abbott, of Goshen in 1907 and was married in 1911. A humorist, playwright, and short story writer, he wrote two noteworthy plays, Elmer the Great with George M. Cohan (1928) and later June Moon with George S. Kaufman. He has numerous other works to his credit.

(Lardner spent some summer months at Wawasee Lake writing short stories.)

Laudeman, June.

"We Had a Salad Party." Indiana State Board of Health Bulletin, Aug., 1968.

This was part of a science experiment in teaching her first grade pupils nutritional value and enjoying the taste of popular and not-so-popular fresh vegetables and fruits--in a party atmosphere.

-- "Making Our Own Music." Instructor Magazine, Nov., 1975.

This describes a science experiment in teaching her kindergarten pupils non-verbal communication. Actions, gestures, and facial expressions were stressed, also learning better listening habits.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Born in Milford, Ind., June (Coy) Laudeman, is a graduate of Milford High School and Manchester College. She taught in the elementary schools in Milford and Wabash County. Upon retirement, she moved with her husband, Robert Laudeman, to Syracuse Lake.

* * * * *

WARSAW

Nye, George A.

Extensive collection of local color and history in 37 bound volumes of typewritten manuscripts, 1920-1976. He also has published many historical and local color articles in the Warsaw Times-Union over many years.

Descriptive titles provided by Mr. Nye (vol. 1-37):

- (1) Miscellaneous Articles on History of Warsaw and Kosciusko County 1945.
- (2) Miscellaneous Articles 1974-75.
- (3) Miscellaneous Articles on History 1952.
- (4) Warsaw in 1898 et al.
- (5) Warsaw in the 1890's et al.
- (6) Readings in Early Local History.
- (7) Warsaw in the 1870's and 1880's.
- (8) Sundry Articles on Sundry Subjects.*
- (9) Miscellaneous Articles 1946.
- (10) Warsaw in the 1860's.
- (11) Miscellaneous Articles 1959.
- (12) Warsaw in 1905 et al.
- (13) Warsaw in 1885 and 1896.
- (14) First Line of District Schools in Kosciusko County, Ind., 1953.
- (15) Warsaw in 1900 et al.
- (16) Warsaw in 1866 et al.
- (17) Warsaw in 1875 et al.
- (18) Articles on Local History 1952.
- (19) Readings Concerning History of Warsaw 1943. *1960

- (20) Miscellaneous Articles 1974-75.
- (21) Readings in Early Local History 1943.
- (22) Warsaw in 1864-65, et al, and Partial Index.
- (23) A Brief History of the Warsaw Post Office 1954.
- (24) Warsaw in 1860 et al.
- (25) Warsaw in 1899 et al.
- (26) Life of J.B. Chapman et al 1948.
- (27) Miscellaneous Articles 1964.
- (28) Miscellaneous Articles 1950.
- (29) Notes on Local History 1944.
- (30) Stories of Early Warsaw.
- (31) Books of the Bible and Indiana Territory 1974.
- (32) Miscellaneous Articles 1944.
- (33) Miscellaneous Articles 1973.
- (34) Ditches in Kosciusko County, Ind., 1974.
- (35) Warsaw in 1973-74. (1974)
- (36) Aborn Family et al 1973.
- (37) Index and Miscellaneous Articles.

This valuable collection is in Mr. Nye's personal library.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

A native Warsawan, George A. Nye was born Jan. 21, 1889, to Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Nye. His father was born Jan. 2, 1836, in Wayne Township, just eight months prior to Warsaw's being laid out as a town. His grandfather, Ludlow Nye, who came to the county in 1834, was the third sheriff of Kosciusko Co. and died in office in 1846.

A graduate of Warsaw High School and Indiana University with an AB in science, George Nye has served the community in various important capacities. For sixty years (1913-1976) he assisted with the work in the County Surveyor's office and was elected as County Surveyor in 1944 and reelected two additional terms (serving 1945-1956).

As an instructor in Warsaw High School 1924-1944, he taught science and mathematics. In 1928 as sponsor of the Tiger yearbook, he directed the special issue, honoring the fiftieth anniversary of Warsaw High School (established 1878) with a 50-year historical record. (Copy in WCPL)

Mr. Nye has drawn from numerous sources for his writings, including the Northern Indianian (newspaper) from 1856 through 1900, recording also stories told by the old timers, experiences of his contemporaries, and events he himself has witnessed.

The Tiger. Warsaw High School Yearbook.

It is believed to have been in continuous publication for more than 60 years. The following issues are available: 1917 (Miss Semaris Kutz, personal library) and 1922 through 1926 (Dorothy (Mrs. Herman) Frauhiger, personal collection), 1928 issue in WCPL.

Warsaw City Directory

Compiled and published in 1956, 1961, 1963, 1965, and 1967 by the Directory Service, Inc., Plymouth, Ind.

Compiled and published in 1958, 1971, and 1974 by Mullin-Kille Co., Chillicothe, Ohio.

NOTE: Other issues, no doubt, are in existence, but we have no verification of dates or availability. The above issues are available at the Warsaw Chamber of Commerce office.

Warsaw Times-Union: Centennial (Souvenir)
Ed., v.100, no. 156, July 3, 1954. 128p.
(11 sections, A-K). PC, WCPL

Contents: "128 pages of multi-colored photos. and history." Includes historical features on communities and their founders: Sidney, North Webster, Clunette, Mentone, Milford, Warsaw, Leesburg, Oswego, Packerton, Beaver Dam, Disko, Pleasant Valley, Palestine, Etna Green, Claypool, Dutchtown, Monoquet, Silver Lake, Pierceton, Syracuse, Winona Lake, Sevastopol, and Burket.

History of townships: Tippecanoe, Plain, Jackson, Franklin, Seward, Monroe (Chester), Turkey Creek, Scott, Clay, Harrison, Lake, Washington, Prairie.

Special features and pictures also of Judge Lemuel Royse, John Ridinger (orig. proprietor of Webster), Charles H. Ker, Funk family, Judge Perine (Milford), John B. Chapman names Kosciusko County and Warsaw. "Rachel, First White Child born in Kosciusko County Becomes 'Indian Princess'" (history of W.S. Felkner family of Van BurenTwp.) by Marjorie Felkner Wagner. Also, Boaz Waltons (Pleasant Valley), Chiefs Monoquet and Ben-ack, Elijah Harlan, Jesse E. Eschbach, Peter Runyan, Homer Rodeheaver, Reub and Logan Williams, T. Dreiser, A. Bierce, J.W. Riley, and John Widaman. Includes John Dillenger's foray through the county, the Tucker and Potter murders.

Kosciusko County boundaries fixed 1834-35, first courthouse, Warsaw's opera house and ice house, Winona Interurban, New Salem and Eel River churches, history of the newspaper, Oram Wagon Works and many other businesses. Also, features which put into perspective the impact on the county of the Spanish-American War, World Wars I and II, and the Korean War. Our County History, by Marion Coplen, reprinted. Historical features by George Nye.

NOTE

Reub Williams & Sons, Publishers. (Then published by Raymond "Ted" and Reuben Williams.) Robert McGlynn, Editor. Cur-tis Garber, City Editor.- Ronald Sharp, Photographer, Promotion Mgr. and features. - Marguerite Sands, Proofreader and features.- Dorcas McConnell, Society Editor.- Virginia Zuck, Reporter.- Jack Essenberg, Advertising Mgr.

Williams, Reuben.

Warsaw City History and Merchant and Farmers Account Book, by Reuben Williams and Quincy Hossur. Warsaw, 1870. (n.p.)

A brief history of Warsaw with the remainder being a directory of merchants and businessmen.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Born in Tiffin, Ohio, in 1833, Reub Williams emigrated with his family to Warsaw in 1845. After a limited formal education, he served an apprenticeship of four years in the printing business, then for a short time published the Warsaw Democrat. After working for various newspapers in the Western states, he was requested by the new Republican Party to return to Warsaw and establish a paper. In 1854 with G.W. Fairbrother, he founded the Northern Indianian.

He volunteered for service in the Civil War and helped organize the first company that Kosciusko County sent to the field. He accompanied them to serve with distinction with the 12th Regiment of Indiana Infantry Volunteers. Captured in Dec., 1861, he was imprisoned in the infamous "Libby" Prison in Richmond, Va. He rose from Second Lieutenant to Colonel and was appointed Brevet Brigadier General of Volunteers by President Lincoln.

He served two terms as Clerk of Kosciusko Co. Circuit Court (1867 and 1871); in 1875 he took charge of the Fort Wayne Daily Gazette. He received the appointment as Second Comptroller of the U.S. Treasury in Washington, D.C. After serving seven months, he returned to Warsaw to reassume the publication of the Northern Indianian.

* * * * *

Bierce, Ambrose G., 1842-1914?

The Ambrose Bierce Satanic Reader; selections from invective journalism of the great satirist. Comp. and ed. by Ernest Jerome Hopkins. New York: Doubleday, 1968. 237p. WCPL

-- The Devil's Dictionary. Cleveland: World Pub. Co., c1911. 376p. WCPL

This dictionary has cynical, satirical word definitions, e.g.: guillotine - a machine which makes a Frenchman shrug his shoulders with good reason.

Brubaker, Howard.

Books: White House Blues and Ranny. His book, White House Blues, about Presidential possibilities and candidates, was published in the late 1930's. His column "Of All Things," appeared regularly in The New Yorker magazine for many years. He also wrote for the New Republic, occasionally using the pen name, Felix Ray. He also wrote short stories for the Saturday Evening Post and Collier's. His stories from the Post were published in a book entitled Ranny, about a boy named Randolph Harrington Dukes.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Howard Brubaker was born in Wakarusa, Ind., June 27, 1882, the son of John Howard and Harriet (Bly) Brubaker and the brother of Judge Walter Brubaker. Moving to Warsaw at age three, he grew up in this community, graduating from high school in 1898. At Indiana University (Class of '02) he was editor-in-chief of The Arbutus (yearbook) and The Daily Student (newspaper).

Best-known for his political satire, he has been compared with Will Rogers and Finley Peter Dunne. He began his career in New York, later moving to Connecticut. He lived in Green Farms, Conn., a community of writers and artists, with his wife, Hortense, until his death Feb. 4, 1957, at age 74. Two sons, Wynthrop and David, survive.

Burt, Carl.

Safety Education, a 20th Century Workbook. Fowler, Ind.: Benton Review Shop, 1939. 119p. illus. (paperback)

-- "Reading Program for Our Gifted." School Executive, v. 75, pp. 86-88, May, 1958.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Carl Burt, graduate of Manchester College and U. of Chicago, was an instructor and coach at Manchester College and later assumed the position as Supt. of Warsaw Community Schools 1943-1966.

Dreiser, Theodore, 1871-1945.

America Is Worth Saving. New York: WCPL
Modern Age Books, 1941. 292p.

Written before our entry into World War II, this book points out the dangerous speed at which America was drifting into the war, analyzes the relationship between peace and democracy and the inevitable effects of war, reviews the historical relationship between America and Britain, and the significance for us of what was going on in China, Japan, and Russia.

-- Tragic America. New York: Horace Liveright, c1931. 435p. WCPL

Dreiser hurled a damning indictment at the existing social and economic institutions of the day, bringing in stern facts and radical remedies for them. He stated the names of the men and corporations he held largely responsible for the conditions in 1931.

DuBois, Dr. Charles Clifford, 1878-

Bringing up the Baby. Warsaw, Ind.: Reub Williams & Sons, Printers, c1925
102p. photo, charts. WCPL

Tells how to care for the infant from birth through the first three years. It describes general care, feeding, diet, care during illness, with a section on contagious diseases. It gives recipes for foods and contains height and weight charts through five years.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Dr. DuBois practiced medicine in Warsaw in 1907 and continued for more than 50 years. He was secretary of the City Board of Health 1910-1915 and 1944-1948. He also served as Mayor of Warsaw 1932-1938. He and his wife, Betty, had two children: Eleanor (Mrs. Vernon Eliason, of Denver, Colo.) and Reed, of Washington, D.C. His wife died several years ago, and he now resides at Miller's Merry Manor, where he celebrated his 98th birthday on March 30, 1976.

Funk, Mrs. Mae.

Mother Nature and Her Children. Aurora, Ill.: The Strathmore Co., c1931.
185p. illus. WCPL

This is an introductory nature study with scientifically accurate material. It contains chapters on birds, trees, flowers, plants, insects, animals, and clouds.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Mrs. Funk was married to Elmer B. Funk, a Warsaw banker. They had one son, Edward. Mrs. Funk served on the Warsaw Library Board for many years. She and her husband both enjoyed the outdoors and especially bird watching.

Ros, Paz M.

Bibliography of five articles in professional journals, papers, etc., and three master's and doctoral theses. Excerpts:

--"The Autobiography as a Diagnostic Aid in Counseling." The Guidance and Personnel Journal. Philippine Guid. & Personnel Assoc., v.2, no. 1, May, 1966.

-- A History of Philippine Costumes. (Master's thesis) Manila, Phil.: Univ. of Santo Tomas, 1949.

--Hobby Participation of High School and College Students as Related to Their Scholastic Aptitude, Educ. Attainment of Parents and Other Factors. (Doctoral Field Study I)...1952.

--Social Acceptance or Rejection as Related to Personality Adjustment and Participation in Group Task Roles. (Doctoral Field Study II) Greeley, Colo.: Univ. of Northern Colorado, 1953. (Doc. theses available in the microfilm div. of the Univ. of Mich., Ann Arbor.)

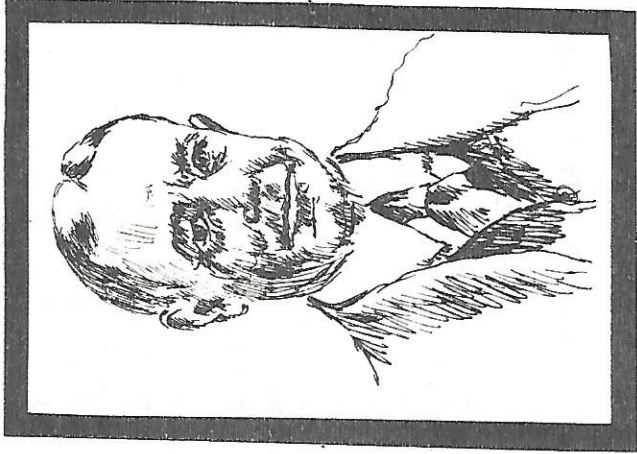

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Paz Meliton Ros was born in the Philippines and is married to Dr. George Ros, Warsaw. Both are American citizens. She received her BS and MA degrees in the Philippines and the Ed.D at the Univ. of Northern Colorado in 1953. She was Assoc. Prof. and Dir. of Student Personnel Serv. at the Philippine Women's Univ. She is Vice-President of Warsaw Reading Club, Pres. of Altrusa Club of Warsaw, and an active member of the Warsaw Branch of AAUW.

Tuckey, John S.
Mark Twain's "Which Was the Dream?" and Other Symbolic Writings. Berkeley: Univ. of Calif. Press, 1967.

--Mark Twain and Little Satan. Lafayette, Ind.: Purdue Univ. Studies, 1963.

--Mark Twain's "The Mysterious Stranger" and the Critics. Belmont: Wadsworth Publ. Co., 1968.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Dr. John S. Tuckey is Prof. of Literature, I.U.-Purdue Center, Hammond, and is one of the foremost authorities on Mark Twain. He is a graduate of Warsaw High School and Indiana Univ.

Billy Sunday

WINONA LAKE

A center of Bible conferences, culture, and progress, Winona Lake enjoyed a distinctive place in America in the heyday of Chautauqua, entertainment and lecture circuits. World-renowned personalities were featured every summer during the assembly and Chautauqua program seasons.

Among those who appeared on programs were Madam Schumann-Heink, William Jennings Bryan, Adm. Richard E. Byrd, Gladys Swarthout, Drew Pearson, John Phillip Sousa, Will Rogers, et. al.

Of local and national note were Billy Sunday, Homer Rodeheaver, Ruth Rodeheaver Thomas, Ralph and Miss Katherine Carmichael, who had residences in Winona Lake.

Also, from Winona and Warsaw were James Heaton, for so many years director of the Assembly and local Chautauqua at Winona, Mrs. E.B. Funk, Miss Maude Willis (of near North Webster), Dick Oram appearing with the Bob Hanscom Players, and Herbert Petrie and his White Hussars. He was later director of the Winona Assembly programs.

From private collections we have gleaned much information from seasonal booklets: "Winona Year Book" and "Program of Winona Assembly," also catalogs and publications of several of the educational institutions. These materials are arranged under three main headings: People and Programs, Institutions, and History of Winona Lake.

PEOPLE AND PROGRAMS

SUNDAY, WILLIAM A., 1862-1935

Brown, Elijah P.

The Real Billy Sunday. Dayton, O.: The Otterbein Press, c1914, by William A. Sunday. 288p. photos. PC

"This book has been written by a friend who has known me nearly all my Christian life. He has brought to the task a ripe experience as a Christian, an evangelist, and a literary man. The reader will find he has performed his duty well." (W.A. Sunday - 2 Tim. 2:15) This work, bearing Mr. Sunday's opinion, as quoted, is the most authentic work on his life, until the early part of his career in 1914. Dates: Born Nov. 19, 1862; married Sept. 5, 1888; died Nov. 5, 1935.

Ellis, W. T.

Billy Sunday, the Man and His Message. Ellis, c1914 75p. paperback.

McLoughlin, William Gerald, Jr.

Billy Sunday Was His Name. Chicago: Univ. of Chicago Press, c1955 xxix, 324p.

Rodeheaver, Homer Alvin, 1880-1955.

Twenty Years With Billy Sunday. Nashville, Tenn.: Cokesbury Press, c1936 149p. photos. PC

This work covers 1914-1934, detailing the activities of Mr. Sunday, starting at the point where The Real Billy Sunday ended in 1914 through his last public meeting in Mishawaka, Ind., in Oct. 1935, just a short time before his death.

The book deals with the details of organization and business management of the great tabernacle meetings of what might be called the "Golden Age of Evangelism" in this century.

The book also gives many of the experiences of Homer Rodeheaver as the song leader who not only had the gift of singing opera and oratoria music with great ease and joy but also a very real ability to lead congregational singing. He made people want to sing and enjoy it. He set the tempo so each word could be sung, yet without dragging. He was concerned that the singer got the message, not just hit the right notes.

(Sidelight notes by Mrs. J.N. Rodeheave

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Homer Alvin Rodeheaver was born in Logan County, Ohio, in 1880, the son of Thurman Rodeheaver. He had a sister, Ruth Rodeheaver Thomas, and three brothers, Yumbert Parks, Joseph Newton, and Jack Rodeheaver. A student at Ohio Wesleyan and a talented musician, he left the academic life to join an evangelist as song director. His career with Billy Sunday covered the 20 years to 1935, including the establishing of Rodeheaver Publishing Co., in 1919 to make available song books of sacred music. In 1920 and years following, Billy Sunday and Homer Rodeheaver were prominent leaders in the evangelistic meetings conducted in conjunction with the summer Winona Lake Bible Conference. Homer was instrumental in the establishment and success of the School of Sacred Music at Winona. J.N. Rodeheaver and Ruth Rodeheaver Thomas were leaders among its faculty as well as prominent individuals pursuing distinguished careers of their own.

Thomas, Lee.

Billy Sunday. New York: Pillar Books, c1974. 128p. paperback(in print)

"Drawn from the pen of Dr. Lee Thomas (a personal friend of the Sunday family) you can see the life of Billy Sunday unfold in an explosion of color."(excerpt from book blurb). Upon this theme--Christ as one's personal saviour--he preached to over one hundred million people!

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

William Ashley Sunday, born Nov. 19, 1862, lost his father in the Civil War. He spent much of his childhood in an orphanage, later supported himself by taking odd jobs. From 1883 until his conversion in 1890, he played with the National League baseball teams in Chicago(White Stockings), Pittsburgh, and Philadelphia. Later he became a Presbyterian minister. The tabernacles in which he preached usually had sawdust on the floor. When his converts came to the altar, they were said to be "hitting the sawdust trail."

Billy Sunday--A Different View

"Recollections of Mr. William A. Sunday" by Mrs. J.N. Rodeheaver

About 1911, when I was a student at Ohio Wesleyan, I went with a group of student volunteers for Foreign Missions to a state meeting at Springfield, Ohio.

A Billy Sunday evangelistic campaign was on, and Mr. Sunday was invited to speak to a group of Volunteers Saturday morning. He came and gave a very scholarly address, filled with references to an amazing number of writers of the class of Tennyson, Browning, etc. from the "world's best literature." I had never seen the man before and wondered why he was referred to as a sort of "rabble rouser" in his pulpit style.

The following Sunday, Homer Rodeheaver, having attended Ohio Wesleyan, invited the Ohio Wesleyan group to be his guests, occupying seats in the chorus on the platform at the Sunday Tabernacle Meeting. We saw Mr. Sunday and heard him in a highly impassioned plea, attempting with great success, to draw people to accept the Lord Jesus Christ as Saviour.

He had mounted the platform immaculately dressed as always, in public. After beginning his sermon, his coat came off and was thrown to "Ma", sitting on the platform, then his tie. His movements, with the chair, and striding back and forth across the platform began. He was after another type person, different from the group of college students he had talked to on Saturday.

In his personal life, Mr. Sunday was quiet and retiring. He was a great reader of the best literature and early in life displayed evidence of a photographic memory. His formal education ended in early high school, but he continued to be a student all his life.

Through the years, in a traveling position for a national church board, I would meet effective leaders in local churches who said they had been converted in a Billy Sunday campaign meeting. When someone remarked to Mr. Sunday, however, that the conversions seemed not to be permanent in many cases, Mr. Sunday replied that just because the result of a bath is not permanent is no reason for not taking one and repeating it as often as necessary!

CHAUTAUQUA - BIBLE CONFERENCE-WINONA ASSEMBLY

Hanscom, Warren D. (Bob)

Pioneers in Grease Paint. Bradenton, Fla: Collins & Co., c1975 114p. photos. WCPL

"Hanscom's autobiography chronicles not only his own fascinating story, but also that of Chautauqua, an era of show business and a way of life, that, like vaudeville, has faded from the American scene." (excerpt from book blurb) This work covers from 1920 through the late '30's G.H. "Dick" Orant, of Warsaw, is a veteran of the Bob Hanscom Players, having been a leading man for four years in 33 shows with the troupe--including performances at Winona Lake.

Heaton, James.

History of Winona Lake(cassette tape) Recorded from a talk presented to the Warsaw Reading Club, 1975. 2 sides 90 min. KCHM

Mr. Heaton relates a very interesting chronicle of Winona Lake--as a cultural, recreational, and educational center. Focusing mainly on the period covering roughly 1890-1940, he starts the history in 1837 when this area was opened for settlement.

In 1881 the land was bought by the Beyer brothers who developed an enterprising business in handling milk, butter, and eggs. As an adjunct to their business, they attracted people there for conventions and later developed resort attractions--parks, Eagle Lake Hotel, cyclorama, amusement rides, exhibition hall, etc.

In 1890 the Beyers started the Chautauqua programs. In 1895 the Winona Assembly and Summer Schools purchased the ground and launched their plans to have both the Chautauqua and Bible Conference (then under the auspices of the Presbyterian Synod). These began in 1895.

Mr. Heaton relates many aspects of life in Winona, the famous people who contributed to the programs and institutions. Also, he describes the transportation systems--interurban, canal, streetcars, and horse and buggy--and the many business enterprises. He identifies five Winona schools: Normal (teacher college), Agricultural, Girls and Boys Academies and Music School.

He describes the system of enclosing the Winona community with a fence and requiring everyone to have a ticket of admission. Mr. Heaton was ticket taker at the main gate 1908-1910. Ticket sales were important, as he stated that the fees for the world famous artists and lecturers often amounted to $12,000 to $25,000.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

James Heaton began his career in Winona Lake as a gate keeper, when admission to the grounds was made by ticket. He organized a men's quartet. He later became Chautauqua manager, a position he held 1915-19 and was both Chautauqua and Program Director of Winona Lake Institutions from 1928-38. For many years he was a Winona realtor. Not only his personal experiences but also his extensive collection of Winona program booklets and educational catalogs, etc., have been helpful sources of information about Winona of this period when it was a nationally recognized center for Chautauqua and Bible Conferences.

Seasonal program booklets and catalogs published by the Winona Assembly and Institutions are the sources of the material which follows. These were kindly loaned to our AAUW committee by Frances Groninger, of Warsaw, Kosciusko County Historical Museum, and extensive notes were provided from James Heaton's collection.

FG: 1902-1906, 1909, 1910, 1921, 1930, and 1931, (Winona Quarterly 1911, 1913, 1915) and (Winona Herald 1916)
KCHM: 1905, 1909, 1910, 1912, 1925, 1928. Chautauqua Program Numbers 1935, 1937.
JH: 1908, 1913-17, 1919, 1920-43 (except 1932) and 1946.

1904--Winona Assembly and Schools. 10th Winona Bible Conference. It includes a report by Dr. Sol. C. Dickey, secretary and general manager to the Board of Directors, entitled, "A Short History of the Winona Movement as Outlined by the Winona Board..."

1905--This Yearbook describes "The Winona Movement--Its Origin, History and Purpose--a Decennial Sketch." (pp. 47-55) Lantern lectures featuring the Grand Canyon, "Utah and the Mormon Commonwealth," Chicago's Foreign Population."

1912--Program features religious opera every year and children's operetta. Some highlights of that season: William Jennings Bryan, Shakespeare and Greek plays, Kinemacolor (color moving pictures) of the "Coronation in England".

1913--Winona Assembly and Bible Conference listed members of the Board of Directors headed by William Jennings Bryan, President.

1915--Program schedules include Helen Keller, Aug. 4, and Madam Ernestine Schumann-Heinke, Aug. 14 (who appeared on the programs again in 1916 and 1917, her golden jubilee year of retirement.)

1917--Winona Herald cover features entrance to Winona with fence and gate. Dr. J. H. Kellogg, founder of the Battle Creek Sanitarium and manufacturer of corn flakes, to give lectures on health, home management, cooking and care of the sick.

1920--Winona Assembly and Bible Conference Yearbook announces Evangelistic Week Aug. 13-19 with Rev. W.A. Sunday as preacher and Homer Rodeheaver, music director.

1924--Yearbook announces John Herron Art Institute list of courses offered in a six-weeks' session at Winona. Also, Maude Willis, Chautauqua performer, to read "Mary Jane's Pa." Photoplay: "The Ten Commandments."
1925--John Phillip Sousa and his 100-member band scheduled July 18.

1927--Yearbook announces in the Special Artists series: Rev. William Sunday, Will Rogers, et. al. 1927 Bible Conference to include movie spectacle, "Ben Hur."

1931--Program announces Adm. Richard E. Byrd, illustrated lecture on his Antarctic expeditions.

1935--Chautauqua Program included Petrie's Hussars, Bob Hanscom Players.

1936--Winona: Includes portrait of Billy Sunday and announcement of Memorial services honoring him.

1937--Winona: includes Bob Hanscom Players in "Abraham Lincoln."

1938--Bible Conference booklet: Dr. W.E. Biederwolf, Director; Dr. J. Palmer Muntz, Assoc. Director, and Homer Rodeheaver, Director of Music.

1941--Winona; announces the new head of the Concert and Lecture series is Herbert Petrie. (The introduction of this series marks the demise of Chautauqua at Winona, having been an important part of its programs almost 50 years--since 1890!)

INSTITUTIONS

SCHOOLS

Kane, Thomas.

"All about Winona: Winona Assembly and Summer School Association--Its History, Methods and Future." (booklet) 42p. illus. 1904

Explains the purpose of the Winona institutions, particularly the summer schools--to train young people in practical vocations, such as: the different aspects of agriculture, including dairying, horticulture, forestry, etc., in the Boys School of Agriculture and Technology. The beginning of the Bible Conference.

1906--Announcement of the Winona Summer Schools...12th season. Mentions Winona Interurban Railway system just completed from Goshen to Warsaw (with electric cars between Warsaw and Winona.) Scope of Educational opportunities: School of Modern Language, Agriculture, Nature Study, Music, Mathematics, Librarians, English and English Literature, Fine Arts (including bookbinding), Classical Languages, (e.g. Hebrew), History and Civics, Teachers Courses, Manual Training, Athletics, Domestic Science, Public School Drawing, Mission Study, Sunday School Workers, Photography, Winona Technical Institute, and Winona Bible School.

1908--Winona Park School For Young Women. Catalog. College prep and general courses: Bible, Latin, English, Algebra, Geometry, Ancient History, Expression, Greek, German, French, Chemistry, Physics, Drawing, Domestic Science, Biology, Botany, Medical and Modern History, Physiology and Psychology, U.S. History and Civics, Solid Geometry and Trigonometry, and Normal Training.

1910--Yearbook mentions Winona College, Winona Academy, and Winona College of Agriculture.

1934--School of Sacred Music: Homer Rodeheaver, song interpretation--Katherine Carmichael, accompanying piano and organ--Ruth Rodeheaver Thomas, platform deportment.

1935--includes photo of these and Dr. J.N. Rodeheaver, Director of the School.

GRACE COLLEGE AND SEMINARY

Grace Theological Seminary was instituted in 1937, with Grace College dating from 1948. The latter began operation offering two years of higher education, its first four-year class graduating in 1954. Accredited by North Central Association, the college offers liberal arts courses with AB and BS degrees and teacher training. The seminary awards the Master of Divinity degree. Both college and seminary are affiliated with the Grace Brethren Church. Being the only college in Kosciusko County, it makes a distinctive contribution to this area--in education, culture and community service.

Among sources of materials from Grace College are the yearbook, The Lancer, college catalogs and handbooks, newspaper articles, and articles written by the administrative staff and faculty. A current list of published articles and books has been provided by Dr. Vance A. Yoder, Academic Dean. (This list is on file in WCPL.) Excerpts from it include:

GRACE COLLEGE:

Alcorn, Bruce K.

"The Pocket Calculator as a Computer Substitute in the Classroom" and "Overview of the Use of Computers in Elementary and Secondary Education." Proceedings of the Second Conference on Computing in Minority Institutions. Rolla, Mo.: Univ. of Missouri--Rolla, 1976.

Blue, Edwin.

"From Pot Belly Stove--Till Now." Indiana Association of Elementary School Principals' Journal, June 1976.

Grill, Stephan A.

"Drama in the Church." Winona Lake, Ind.: Brethren Missionary Herald, 37:6 (Mar. 15, 1975), pp. 18-19.

Henry, Ron.

"Myths That Can Handicap Your College Choice." Brethren Missionary Herald, 37:6 (Mar. 15, 1975), pp. 20-22.

Messner, Yvonne.

Camp Devotions. Elgin, Ill.: David C. Cook Pub., 1974. 125p. illus.

--Campfire Cooking. Elgin, Ill.: David C. Cook Pub., c1973 127p. illus.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Mrs. Messner, Associate Professor of Physical Education, joined the Grace College faculty in 1959. A graduate of Wheaton College with an AB degree, holds an MS from Indiana University and is currently working on the doctorate degree in Physical Education from Indiana University.

In fulfilling requirements for the doctoral degree she has published the above books and is writing a third volume on games for campers. As an experienced program organizer and administrator of summer camp groups, she feels that these publications will help fill a definite need in planning and implementing such programs.

Born in New York and former resident of Detroit, Mrs. Messner lives in Winona Lake with her husband, Richard, Director of Development of Grace College. They have three children. She is an active member of the Warsaw branch of AAUW, having served as first vice president in charge of programs.

Yoder, Vance A.
"The Case of the Christian College."
Brethren Missionary Herald, 37:14 (July 15, 1975), p.19.

--"Grace Accreditation: Good or Bad?"
Brethren Missionary Herald, 38:10 (May 10, 1976), p.18.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES

Dr. Edwin Blue, a part-time Instructor in Psychology, is a well-known local public school educator and longtime resident of R.R. 1, Leesburg, Assistant Professor of Speech, Stephan Grill is also director of theater productions at the college. Ron Henry is Director of Admissions and Records of Grace College. Dr. Yoder is Academic Dean of the college and Associate Professor of Music.

GRACE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Davis, John J.

"Astrology and Your Future." Brethren Missionary Herald, 24:15 (July 22, 1972), pp. 14-15.

"Bishop Pike, King Saul and the Witch of Endor." Brethren Missionary Herald, 34:19 (Sep. 16, 1972), pp. 16-17.

"Contemporary Counterfeits." Brethren Missionary Herald, 1973.

"The Distinctives of Grace Theological Seminary" (brochure). Winona Lake: Grace Theological Seminary, 1973.

"Tekoa Excavations: Tomb 302" Near East Archaeological Society Bulletin, n.s. 4 (1974), pp. 27-49.

Also three articles published in The Wycliffe Bible Encyclopedia. Chicago: Moody, 1975, entitled: "Number Numerology," "Symbol(ism)", and "Type (Copy, Pattern)".

Hoyt, Herman A.

"Budget, Faculty: Key Issues Faced by Grace Trustees." Brethren Missionary Herald, 35:9 (Apr. 28, 1973), pp.21. 23.
"Change of Leadership in Grace Schools." Brethren Missionary Herald, 36:18 (Sep. 28, 1974), pp.14-15.

"Grace Trustees Launch Optimistic Program." Brethren Missionary Herald, 37:8 (Apr. 15, 1975), pp. 18-19.

"Major Issues Now Central on Campus." Brethren Missionary Herald, 34:25 (Dec. 23, 1972) pp. 38, 40.

"The Ministry of Grace Students." Brethren Missionary Herald, 35:4 (Feb. 17, 1973) pp. 18-19.

Ibach, Robert D., Jr.

Two articles published in Andrews University Seminary Studies, 14:1 (Spring, 1976) entitled: "Archaeological Survey of the Heshbon Region" (pp.119-126) and "Heshbon 1974: Area G. 8 (Uum Es-Sarab)."

Kent, Homer A., Jr.

Two articles published in The Wycliffe Bible Encyclopedia. Chicago: Moody Press, 1975, entitled: "Feetwashing" and "The Pastoral Epistles."

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES

Dr. John Davis and Dr. Robert Ibach, Professor and Assistant Professor (respectively) of Old Testament and Archaeology, have done important work in the Near East on the excavation sites mentioned in their articles. Grace and Wheaton (Ill.) Colleges have joint archaeological projects on these sites. Dr. Herman A. Hoyt is former President and present Chancellor of Grace College and Seminary. Dr. Homer A. Kent Jr. is President of Grace College and Grace Theological Seminary.

HISTORY OF WINONA LAKE

Gaddis, Vincent H.

The Story of Winona Lake: A Memory and a Vision...Berne, Ind.: Berne Witness Co., c1949 107p. illus., photos. WCPL

"...the remarkable story of the world's largest Bible Conference; its personalities and its future." (subtitle) Tells of Winona Lake's early days, the golden years and later ones. Has separate chapters on Billy Sunday and Homer Rodeheaver, plus another one on Winona personalities and places.

--The Story of Winona Lake: A Memory and a Vision...by Vincent H. Gaddis and Jasper A. Huffman. Rev. ed. Winona Lake, Ind.: The American Association for Jewish Evangelism, c1960. 156p. photos. WCPL

Two copies are in the WCPL; the other one was published by the Rodeheaver Co, This is a revised edition of the 1949 work. It has a section added called "A Decade of Time since Forty-Nine."

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Vincent Gaddis lived and worked in Winona Lake and Warsaw for a number of years. He was employed for a period as a news writer for Radio Station WRSW. He has published numerous articles and books related to magic, the occult, and scientific mysteries. He presently lives in Escondido, Calif., with his wife, Margaret, who is also a writer.

Hilton, George W.

The Electric Interurban Railways in America, by George W. Hilton and John F. Due. Stanford, Calif.: Stanford Univ. Press, c1960. 463p. illus., maps.

An interesting history of the Winona Interurban Railway is on p.277. Mr. Hilton is an Associate Professor of Economics at Univ. of California in Los Angeles. Mr. Due is Professor of Economics at the Univ. of Illinois.

Zuck, Virginia.

"An Earlier Winona." series of seven articles appearing in the Warsaw Times-

Union, 1951, (June 30, July 2, 3, 12, 23, and Aug. 20).

An informal history of Winona Lake based on the reminiscences of Al Cuffel, Warsaw. Hw worked for the Beyer Brothers, produce dealers, who developed the park in the 1890's and later for the Winona Lake Christian Assembly. Cuffel also helped build the Kosciusko County Court-house. (His obituary also appears in the Aug. 20 issue.)

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Virginia (Mrs. Raymond) Zuck, a former reporter for the Warsaw Times-Union and teacher at Warsaw Junior High School, is a longtime resident of Winona Lake. She is a member of the Warsaw branch of AAUW.

Gaddis, Margaret.

How to Save $1000 a Year at Home and Have Fun Doing It. Published by the author. Printed by The Franconia, Winona Lake, Ind. c1949. Unpagged, illus.

More than 1000 ways of showing your ingenuity in food, furnishing, family fun, household, building, car, crafts, garden. Practical detailed instructions, formula, sources for constructive economics.

Gaddis, Vincent.

Invisible Horizons: True Mysteries of the Sea. Chilton, c1965.

--Mysterious Fires and Lights. David McKay, c1967. (Also, in paperback, Dell, c1968)

-- Wide World of Magic. Criterion, c1967.

These are a few of his books that have been published. These appeared in Books in Print, 1970.

ADDENDA

Overmyer, Opal Cording.

Remarkable "Ma" Sunday, the Story of a Wonderful Life. Grand Rapids, Mich.: Zondervan Publishing House, c1957. 29p. (paperback) PC, KCHM

A friend relates personal glimpses of "Ma" Sunday's evangelistic work carried on after her husband's death and provides flashbacks on their years and ministry together. Helen Amelia Thompson, born June 25, 1868, was the second of five children of William and Ellen Thompson. She gave her life to Christ at age 12 and at age 20 was married to William A. "Billy" Sunday at her Chicago home, Sept. 5, 1888. She became a widow at age 67 and carried on the evangelistic work until her death, Feb. 20, 1957, at age 89. This author offers an account full of candor, humor, and appreciation for a vibrant servant of the Lord.

Western Association of Writers.

Proceedings of the Fifth Annual Convention at Eagle Lake, Ind., July 8-11, 1890. Ed. by Mary E. Cardwill. Publ. by Western Assoc. of Writers. New Castle, Ind.: Courier Book & Job Printers, 1891.

Well-known writers attending this conference at Warsaw included Sarah T. Bolton, poet laureate of Ind. during 1840's-50's, et.al. Among the leaders was James Whitcomb Riley.

FICTION

Bierce, Ambrose C., 1842-1914.
The Complete Short Stories of Ambrose Bierce; comp. with commentary by Ernest Jerome Hopkins. Garden City, N.Y.: Doubleday, c1970. 496p. illus. WCPL

Collected for the first time in a single volume are all the 93 short stories of Bierce. Ambrose Bierce wrote three types of short stories: 1. Satirical horror stories, which are tales of the macabre and supernatural. 2. Anti-war stories which are grimly realistic stories of war. 3. Wildly exaggerated tales of the type told in the Old West, with the exaggeration being turned to satirical purpose.

Dreiser, Theodore, 1871-1945.
An American Tragedy; illus. by Grant Reynard. Cleveland: World Publ. Co., c1926. 874p. WCPL

A novel which tells a powerfully moving story of a young man's burning ambition for wealth and social prestige, which bring him nothing but tragedy.

-- Best Short Stories; ed. by Howard Fast. New York: World Publ. Co., c1947 WCPL

Contents: Khat.-Free.-St. Columbia and the River.-McEwen of the Shining Slave Makers.-The Shadow.-A Dose of the World.-Nigger Jeff.-The Old Neighborhood.-Phantom Gold.-My Brother Paul.-The Lost Phoenix.-Convention.-Marriage-For One.-The Prince Who Was a Thief.

-- The Bulwark. New York: Doubleday,

Doran & Co., c1946. 337p. WCPL

A novel about a devout Quaker whose life and beliefs are shattered by the materialism of the 20th century America, but who eventually realizes the secret of life is love.

-- Chains, Lesser Novels and Stories. New York: Boni & Liveright, c1927. 425p. WCPL

-- The Financier. New York: Harper, c1912. 779p. WCPL

Based on the actual life of a Chicago man, this novel shows his ruthless rise in the world of finance. Frank Cowperwood attempts and fails, learns and succeeds, until he lands on top of the heap.

-- A Gallery of Women. New York: Liveright, c1929. 2v. (Only v.2 is available - WCPL)

-- Sister Carrie. New York: Boni & Liveright, c1917. 557p. WCPL

A novel about Carrie Mieber who goes to Chicago seeking her fortune. This tells how she manages to rise from squallid to comfortable circumstances, but dreams of further conquests to bring her joy, which in her mind is materialistic success.

-- The Stoic. New York: Doubleday, c1947. 310p. WCPL

Part of the continuation of Frank Cowperwood, the financier, showing his fight to remain king of the hill.

-- Trilogy of Desire, three novels: The Financier, The Titan, The Stoic. New York: World Pub. Co., 1972 paged separately (503p., 551p., 310p., respectively)

This is a trilogy detailing the ruthless rise of one of America's wealthy giants. His only goal: acquisition of great wealth, how he achieves it and his final demise, with his estate being looted in death as he looted in life.

Helvey, Peg Stokes.

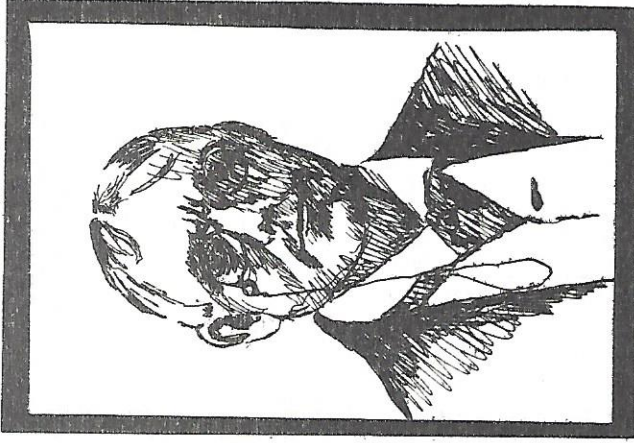

I Am Anthony. Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey: Prentice-Hall, c1961. 317p. WCPL

A novel showing one man's struggle for redemption. "A magnetic portrayal of the spiritual against the natural man."

-- Out of the Darkness. Vantage Pub. Co., c1951. 231p. WCPL

A novel telling the story of a girl who lost her soul only to find it again in her own guilty conscience.

POETRY

James Whitcomb Riley

Best-known of Indiana poets is James Whitcomb Riley, who lived for a while in Warsaw.

Among the numerous collections of his works, some individual poems stand out--familiar with age and use and heavily sprinkled with Hoosier dialect. These include: "When the Frost Is on the Punkin," "The Ole Swimming Hole," "Little Orphan Annie," "The Death of the Hired Man," and "Out to Old Aunt Mary's." (For anthologies of his poetry, see pp.75-76.)

Beer, Henry.
My Garden of Verse. Grand Rapids,
Mich.: W.B. Eerdman c1945 200p. illus.

Poems of nature and seasons, philosophy and religion, Christmas and special occasions. (3 ed.) MPL

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Henry Beer was born in Mansfield, Ohio, in 1900, the son of Simon and Catherine Meister Beer. His parents moved to Milford, Ind., in 1912, where he has been in the florist business since 1926.

A minister in the Apostolic Christian Church, he has written hymns and helped compile two denominational hymnals, Hymns of Zion and Zion's Harp. He also wrote a church school textbook entitled Footsteps to Zion. Also an artist, he has exhibited and sold numerous oil paintings of nature scenes. He and his wife, Alice (Getz), have four sons, Victor, Marion, Lowell, and Max and four daughters, Lois, Edith, Marilyn, and Florence.

Brubaker, Mary Barron.

Poems published in Good Housekeeping: "Loneliness" (Mar., 1921), "My Glad Heart Sings" (May, 1932), "Autumn Days" (Sept., 1932), "A Prayer for Spring" (May, 1933), "Song" (June, 1931), "Let No Ship Fall," (Nov., 1938), "Lullaby" (Sept., 1935), "Stratford Magazine: "April Night," (1932) and "Two Vases" (1933). Household Magazine: "Full Measure" (June, 1932), "Miniatures" (May, 1932), "There Are Things That I Can Remember" (1932). Evansville Courier: "A Magic Recipe" (May, 1947), Methodist Life: "Prayer for Easter" (1964).

Poems published in the "Line o' Day" column in the Chicago Tribune and some in the annual Line Book: "Lullaby," "Prairie Night," "Nostalgia," "The Edge of Change," "Old Man at Dusk," "Impressions," "Like the Spring," "Second Flower," "Song While Walking," "Night of Stars," and "When Wild Geese Fly."
Line Book: "First Solo Flight" (1948), "Old Gate" (1949), "So Long Ago" (1950).

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Born in Oil City, Pa., March 20, 1875, Mary Barron Brubaker came to Indiana as a child and grew up in Goshen. She married Walter Brubaker, (Judge of Kosciusko County Circuit Court) of Warsaw, where she lived until her death, March 1, 1966.

Note: Dorothy Brubaker Challman (listed below) is her daughter.

Challman, Dorothy Brubaker, 1906-

Titles of poetry published in newspapers:

"If I Should Die" and "Grief" Christian Science Monitor.

"Decoration Day," "Wild Geese," "Modernistic Art," "Names," and "Tonight, the Moon." Mount Vernon Democrat, Mount Vernon, Ind.

"Love, Like a Butterfly," "Strange Power." Des Moines Register, Des Moines, Io.
"I Bow My Head." Evansville Courier, Evansville, Ind.

"Eve of Invasion" and "These Things I Love." Los Angeles Times.

Two plays were presented at Mt. Vernon, but never published: "The Spirit of Christmas" and "The Music Box."

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Dorothy Brubaker Challman was born in Warsaw, Ind., Dec. 10, 1906, the daughter of Walter and Mary Barron Brubaker. After graduation from Warsaw High School in 1925 and Indiana Univ. in 1929 with a major in English and minor in journalism she took post-graduate work at the Univ. of Evansville.

She taught five years at Mt. Vernon High School and later was the author of a column appearing twice weekly in the Mt. Vernon Democrat, entitled, "Domestic Daze." This column, published over a ten-year period, was a series of small items on the humorous happenings in everyday life with a household of children and pets. She also wrote a 20-page history of Mt. Vernon (Ind.) to be read at the Sesqui-Centennial in 1966. At present, she and her husband, William B. Challman, live in Evansville, Ind.

Miner, Virginia Scott.

Many-Angel River. Brooklyn, N.Y.: Lantern Pub. Co., 1938. 24p.

The Slender Screen. Kansas City, Mo.: The Pembroke-Country Day Press, 1967. 66p. WCPL

These are both volumes of poetry. "Precisely felt, carefully built, her poetry draws from nature for reference and theme, but it is not about nature. Mrs. Miner is a poet of people and her poetry is as honest and as many-sided as they."

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Mrs. Miner was born in Warsaw, Ind., and was graduated from Warsaw High School and later from Northwestern University. She also attended the Univ. of Chicago,

Oklahoma State Univ. and the Univ. of Kansas City. She served as head of the Eng. Dept. at the Pembroke-Country Day School (college preparatory school for boys) in Kansas City, Mo., retiring in 1967. Her work has appeared in numerous magazines, anthologies, and textbooks. She and her husband, Dewey, returned to Warsaw in 1974 where she still writes poems, book reviews, and an occasional feature article for the Kansas City Star.

Riley, James Whitcomb, 1849-1916.

Afterwhiles. Indianapolis: Bowen-Merrill, 1887. 160p. Por. of author.

-- Armazindy. Indianapolis: Bowen-Merrill, c1894. 169p. illus.

-- A Child's World. Indianapolis: Bowen-Merrill, 1897.

-- Complete Works, including poems and prose sketches, biography, and index. Illus. by H.C. Christy and E.F. Betts. N.Y.: Harper, c1916. 10v.

-- Farm Rhymes. Country pictures by Will Vawter. Indianapolis: Bowen-Merrill, c1901. 187p., illus.

-- Love Lyrics. With life pictures by William B. Dyer. Indianapolis: Bowen-Merrill, c1899. 190p.

-- Neighborly Poems and Dialect Sketches. Indianapolis: Bowen-Merrill, c1897. 215p., illus.

-- Old-fashioned Roses. 7th ed. London: Longman's, 1892. 145p.

-- Old Swimm'n' Hole and Eleven More Poems. Illus. Indianapolis: Bowen-Merrill, 1888. 50p.

-- Poems Here at Home. Pictures by E. W. Kemble. N.Y.: Century, c1893. 186p. illus.

-- Flying Islands of the Night. Indianapolis: Bowen-Merrill, c1891. 88p.

- Flying Islands of the Night. Illus. by Franklin Booth. Indianapolis: Bobbs-Merrill, c1913.
- Green Fields and Running Brooks. Indianapolis: Bowen-Merrill, 1892. 223p.
- His Pa's Romance. With illus. by Will Vawter and a portrait by John C. Clay. Indianapolis: Bobbs-Merrill, c1903.
- Home Folks. Indianapolis: Bowen-Merrill, c1900. 165p., illus.
- Rhymes of Childhood. Indianapolis: Bowen-Merrill, 1895. 186p.
- Rubaiyat of Doc Sifers. Illus. by C. M. Relyen. N.Y.: Century, c1897. 111p.
- Sketches in Prose and Occasional Verses. Indianapolis: Bowen-Merrill, c1891. 263p.
- Songs of Cheer. Pictures by Will Vawter. Indianapolis: Bobbs-Merrill, c1905. 192p., illus.

(The foregoing publications are in WCPL.)

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Born in Greenfield, Ind., on Oct. 7, 1849, Riley was the son of a lawyer. He left school at sixteen to become a sign painter. The sign hanging in the Warsaw Community Public Library was done for a Warsaw clothing store in the spring of 1867. While traveling from farm, decorating barns with advertisements, and while working with a medicine show, he learned the manners and dialect of Indiana country folk. From 1877 to 1885, he worked on The Indianapolis Journal. His first book was The Old Swimmer's Hole and 'Leven More Poems, published in 1883. Many other volumes of poetry and prose followed. He died July 22, 1916.

Wagner, Marjorie Felkner.

Alchemy and Other Poems. Boston: The Gorham Press, c1926. 128p. WCPL

Some of these poems have appeared in the Chicago Herald-Examiner, the Chicago Tribune, and the Indianapolis Star.

-- The Line Book; comp. by Richard Henry Little. Chicago: Chicago Tribune, c1925.*

Mrs. Wagner was one of the contributors to this book. It is a compilation of material from the "Line o' Day" column in the Chicago Tribune.

(*First copyright date. This book was published annually.)

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Marjorie Felkner Wagner, originally from Goshen, grew up in the Milford area and was married to Dr. Charles Wagner, a Warsaw dentist. They had one son, William. She served on the local library board for many years. After the death of her husband, she retired to California, where she now lives and contributes poems to the Los Angeles Times.

Her great grandparents, William and Mary Felkner, are believed to be the first white settlers in Kosciusko County.

Mrs. Wagner was known for her wit and ability to write delightful poems, dealing with current topics, religion, and her personal trials.

POETRY - ADDENDA

Hall, Florence Misel, 1894-1976.
Poems of Testimony. n.p., n.d. 6p.
(paperback) PC

These poems reflect a personal faith in Christ. Mrs. Hall, school teacher in Ohio, moved to Winona Lake with her husband 10 years ago. Her son, Ralph, is architect for Grace Village.

Kreicker, William H., 1904-1968.

As a Man Thinketh, So He Is: Thoughts in Print. Privately printed, n.d. 33p.
(paperback) PC

This is a collection of poems many of which have been previously published in the "Line-a-Day" of the Chicago Daily Tribune and "The Wake of the News" in the Chicago Daily News.

Mr Kreicker was born and grew up in Chicago. He was educated at the Howe Military Academy, Howe, Ind. For many years he was associated with his brother in Advertising Producers Assoc. of Chicago. He moved to Warsaw in 1948 and established headquarters of his own industrial advertising firm, Tri-State Advertising, of which he was president until his death in March, 1968.

He married Dorothy Hansen, of Chicago, in 1926. Their sons are William, Graham, and Klifford, all of Warsaw. One of Mr. Kreicker's hobbies was writing poetry and he continued contributions to "The Line-a-Day" after moving to Warsaw.

Mims, Shirley Miller (Mrs. A.E.)

Mrs. Mims hobby was writing poetry for which she had won prizes in various state and regional contests, including publication in the Patrons of Poetry Anthology of Northern Indiana Prize Poets, South Bend, Ind.

Mrs. Mims was born Feb. 10, 1888, in Kosciusko County and taught in the Warsaw Schools for a number of years. Moving to the South, she continued her poetry writing. Her death occurred May 10, 1969, in Berryville, Ark.

Rodeheaver, Homer Alvin, comp.

More Worthwhile Poems. Winona Lake, Ind.: Rodeheaver Co., 1929 64p.

Wood, Ralph.

Mr. Wood, of Leesburg, had numerous poems published in The Warsaw Times-Union over a period of years until his death in the 1940's.

Young America Sings: 1966. Fall Anthology Lake States High School Poetry. Los Angeles, Calif.: National Poetry Press, 1966. 120p.

Three Warsaw High School freshmen had poems selected for publication in this anthology: Clare Lewis, "Peaceful Snow"; Jim Sloan, "The Hard Road"; Fran Lemler, "From Darkness to Dawn."

MUSIC

Brock, Virgil P..

You Asked for It. Printed in Orlando, Fla., by Christ for the World, Inc., 1976. 179p., photos.

An autobiographical work, this book contains also all the better-known songs Mr. Brock has written. This includes "Beyond the Sunset" in collaboration with his first wife, Blanche Kerr Brock, who wrote the music and Mr. Brock, the words. It was published by the Rodeheaver Hall Mack Co., Winona Lake, c1936 and 1964. The Rodeheaver Co. published all of his songs.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Virgil Brock has spent his lifetime in evangelistic and music ministries including an active role in the School of Sacred Music at Winona Lake, where he resided for some years. At present he lives at Youth Haven, Rivers Junction, Mich., and will be 90 years old Jan. 6, 1977.

Doane, Dorothy. Holderman.

Making Friends with Music, All about Spring, All about Summer, All about Fall, and All about Winter. New York: Lee Music Corp., 1962-1968.

These are public school music series, with the lyrics written and music either arranged or composed by Mrs. Doane. She also wrote two musical plays: "Christmas in the Toy Store" and "A Happy School of Fish." (same publisher)

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Mrs. Doane was born near Leesburg, Ind., in 1906, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holderman.

She taught at Leesburg and Mishawaka Junior High Schools. After her marriage to Kendrick Doane, who served as a commander in the Seabees in World War II, she moved to New York City, where she presently lives.

Osborn, Garrett.

"Winona Moonlight," waltz song. Warsaw, Ind.: Garrett Osborn, c1934.

Rodeheaver, Homer Alvin, 1880-1955, comp.

He has compiled the six hymnals listed below that were published at Winona Lake, Ind., by the Rodeheaver Co. and the Rodeheaver, Hall-Mack Co.: PC

--Canticos de Esperanza. (c1948) 75p.

(paperback hymnal written in Spanish)

--Favorite Christmas Carols. (c1949) 32 sections. paperback.

--Gospel Songs and Duets, no. 2D. (1930)

--Hymnal Handbook for Standard Hymns and Gospel Songs (1931)

--New Songs for Service. (c1929) 288p.

--Triumphant Service Songs...comp. by Homer A., Yumbert P., and Joseph N. Rodeheaver and George W. Sanville (c1934) 288p.

Rodeheaver, Joseph Newton, comp.

Youth Hymnal...comp. by J.N. and Ruthella Rodeheaver. Rodeheaver, Hall-Mack Co., c1935. 224p.

Rodeheaver, Ruthella, comp.

Christmas Customs and Carols; drawings by Mary Kanazawa. Winona Lake, Ind.; Rodeheaver Co., c1941, 1969. 63p., illus.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Born Ruthella Feaster in Marion Co., Ohio, Mrs. Rodeheaver moved to Delaware O., when she was seven years old. She was graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, O., with a degree from the Conservatory of Music as well as an AB degree (1905). She served as an accompanist at the Junior School of Missions in Lakeside, O., then later became National Field Secretary of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Subsequently, she became their National Student Secretary. She also did graduate work at Columbia University.

In 1927 she joined the staff of Northern Baptist Theological Seminary as an instructor in the Dept. of Homiletics, where her husband, Dr. J.N. Rodeheaver, was Professor of Philosophy and Public Speaking. In 1941 they moved to Winona Lake, where he died in 1946.

Mrs. Rodeheaver has served for many years on the boards of several colleges, Sibley Hospital, Washington, D.C., and the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. She has received high honors and recognition from the educational institutions she has served, particularly Clark and Pfeiffer Colleges.

She reared one son, Newton, and welcomed two borrowed daughters of Japanese parentage into her home during their college years. She has traveled extensively and has written many magazine articles, playlets, and stories. Local church and community organizations have benefited from her services, including her serving as acting President of the Warsaw Branch of the American Assoc. of University Women.

Tutwiler, James W.

The sheet music selections listed below were composed and illustrated by Mr. Tutwiler and published at Winona Lake, Ind., by Westminster Press. The words to the songs in the second group were written by his wife, Esther. This is a partial listing:

"The Angels Sang," "Hawaiian Memories," "Hushaby" (c1969), "Somewhere on the Trail," "Ring Joyous Bell."

"Christmas Bells" (c1975), "Ever Seeking" (c1971), "Hail V.P.I. (c1965--college song for Virginia Polytechnic Institute), "Oh Blest Redeemer" (c1975). PC & KCHM

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

James W. Tutwiler was born in Roanoke, Va., where he graduated from high school. He attended Virginia Polytechnic Institute for one year, later receiving an electrical engineering degree from the Milwaukee School of Engineering. He was employed by the federal government in Ft. Wayne, covering materials and equipment for the U.S. Navy. After his retirement in the 1960's he and his wife moved permanently to Winona Lake, where they had spent their summers. Mr. Tutwiler enjoys playing the violin and oil painting. Both enjoy music, writing lyrics and composing. His wife, Esther Burns Tutwiler, was born and grew up in Portsmouth, O. She is a graduate of Miami Univ. in Oxford, O. She taught school in Portsmouth, O., and Ft. Wayne, where she later received a BS degree in education from St. Francis College. She is a member of the Warsaw Branch of A.A. U.W.

* degree

NEWSPAPERS

Etna Green Tribune, 1898; Etna Green Messenger, 1905-06.

LEESBURG

Kosciusko County Prohibitionist started by L.C.Zimmerman and S.J. North about 1882. About 1884 it was moved to Milford.

Kosciusko County Standard. In 1888 J. W. Armstrong began this publication, later sold it to J.W. Whiteleather & Son, then regained control and sold it to the publisher of the Syracuse Journal.

Kosciusko County Record and Leesburg Journal have also been published in Leesburg.

MENTONE

Bell Memorial Library has:

Tri-County Gazette, est. in Mentone 1885, serving Marshall and Fulton Co. Publ and ed. by C.M. Smith. Continuous publication 1885-1923.

Mentone Gazette, 1924-1927. Ed. and publ.: Claude Taylor, later G.W. Kline.

Community Farm News, June 29, 1929-1933. C.W. Krathwohl, publ. and ed.

Northern Indiana Co-op News, 1933-1959.

Mentone News, 1958-1968. Artley Cullum, publ. and ed.

Mentone-Akron News, 1968 to date. Loren & Ann Sheetz, ed. and publ.

MILFORD

Milford Mail (1888-1963) founded by Groves & Williams, Nov. 6, 1888. Successive owners: 1889-1919; W.E. Groves, W.W. Burton, J.P. Prickett, D.J. Forbing. It has been in continuous publication, consolidating with the Syracuse-Wawasee Journal in 1963, when the name was changed to The Mail-Journal (1963-to date). The present owner, Arch Baumgartner, has been the publisher since 1939. MPL

MONOQUET

Kosciusko Republican: first newspaper published in the county. Originally issued from the village of Moncoquet (date not given). In 1846 the Republican was sold by Charles Murray to H.P. Bair and Peter L. Runyan, who moved it to Warsaw. This stalwart Whig organ was continued by A.J. and H.P. Bair until the latter's death. It then was passed to Hon. William Williams and G.W. Fairbrother, later coming into the hands of John Rogers and Reub Williams, ed. and publ., respectively.

North Webster News printed in 1897. Frank Ridy, prop. & publ.

Pierceton Record, est. 1880. Ed. & prop.: M.F. Brosnahan, a hardware merchant, 1893-1905. J.R. Hover, 1910-1919. Pierceton Press, 1950-June, 1971. Arch Baumgartner, publ.

Silver Lake Record, est. 1886; publ. & ed. by Brush and Hanson.

SYRACUSE

Syracuse Public Library has bound volumes of these weekly newspapers:

Syracuse Enterprise, Jan. 7, 1875.
Syracuse Register: Jan. 1894-Jan. 6, 1896.
Syracuse Journal (est. 1907) 1908-Apr. 29,

1909; 1909-1912 and in continuous publication through 1940.
Syracuse-Wawasee Journal, 1941-1962; consolidated with the Milford Mail to become The Mail-Journal, 1963-to date (v.13, 1976)
Arch Baumgartner, owner and publisher.

WARSAW

Warsaw Community Public Library has issues of these newspapers dating from Jan. 10, 1856, in bound volumes or on microfilm:

Northern Indianian, 1856-1858; 1862-1865; 1867-1919.
Warsaw Weekly Republican, 1880-1882.
Indiana Republican, 1882-1949.
Warsaw Daily Times, 1882-1949.
Warsaw Union, 1904-1946. Warsaw Daily Union, 1905-1916; 1942-1949.
Kosciusko Union, 1915-1916; 1919-Feb. 1920.
Warsaw Times-Union, 1949-to date.

Information below from Judge Royce's book:

Warsaw Democrat, 1848. T.L. Groves, publ. D.R. Pershing and A.D. Cribfield, eds.
Northern Indianian publ. by Reub Williams & G.W. Fairbrother. In 1859 they sold it to C.G. Mugg. R. Williams resumed control in 1866 and continued till his death Jan. 15, 1905. Logan Williams succeeded his father as publisher.
Lake City Commercial started by Reub Williams in 1859, but was shortly consolidated with the Northern Indianian.
Warsaw Experiment, est. 1859, by C.G. Mugg. Purchased 1860 by Henry C. Rippey and name changed to Warsaw Union. Publ. & ed. 1861-E.V. Long, Dr. T. Davenport, and John Foulke. 1864 and 1868--F.J. Zimmerman. 1866--A.G. Wood; 1867--S.S. Baker & M.L. Crawford. 1904--became a daily paper published by E.A. Gast.

JOURNALISTS OF THE '70'S

BAUMGARTNER, Arch--Owner/publisher, The Mail-Journal since he purchased the weekly newspaper in 1939. Today, a modern facility with expanded staff, it provides wide news coverage in the Lakeland area.

BACHMAN, Harriet--Formerly of Syracuse, an I.U. graduate, she was chief copy editor of Time magazine until her retirement in 1975.

FISHER, Earleen--Grad. Milford High School and I.U. School of Journalism. Employed by the Associated Press (Indianapolis) and transferred to New York City five years ago.

GARBER, Curtis "Gabby"--Editor, Warsaw Times-Union. From sports reporter in 1947 he was moved up to sports editor, to wire editor. Awards: 1974, Hoosier State Press Assoc. for the best front page in the Times-Union circulation category.

HAGG, Norman--Managing editor, Warsaw Times-Union in charge of local news gathering and editing. Joined T-U in 1962 as sports writer, then promoted to sports editor, later city editor. Under his guidance the news staff has earned numerous awards for reporting, photography, and typography.

MOLLENGRUBER, William K.--Executive editor, Warsaw Times-Union since 1970. From cub reporter in 1934, he was promoted to advertising mgr. then business mgr. and briefly WRSW Station mgr. His political, philosophical, and social commentary appears regularly on the editorial page.

RECTOR, Jo--City editor, Warsaw Times-Union, joined staff in 1971 as reporter covering local govt. offices. Awards: 1974, her series of articles on the local option income tax won first place from Hoosier State Press Assoc. for distinguished community service. Also, awards from Women's Press Club of Ind. for news stories, interpretative reporting, and special political edition.

RECTOR, Steve--Art editor, Warsaw Times-Union. 1971, he started as a police reporter-photographer. He developed color darkroom facilities, devised color printing separation processes; also supervises installation/maintenance of computer systems.

SEELY, Jeri--Graduate of Milford H.S., she has been employed with The Mail-Journal since 1960, presently serving as editor.

SHEETZ, Ann--Editor, Mentone-Akron News, has won numerous awards for her news and feature stories, columns, and editing skills. She is treas. of Women's Press Club of Indiana.

VRABEL, Jo Ann--Warsaw Times-Union reporter and feature writer. Formerly Jo Ann Merkle, of Claypool, Goshen College grad. Awards: 1974, United Press Intl. award for feature articles on poor people and for her articles on the Five-County Mental Health. 1975--Hoosier State Press Assoc. award for investigative articles on Cardinal Center.

WILLIAMS, Raymond "Ted" and Reuben--Publishers, Warsaw Times-Union since 1950, continuing the family tradition. Their grandfather, Gen. Reuben Williams, had established the forerunners of the present newspaper: Northern Indianian and the Warsaw Daily Times (later merging with the Daily Union). Their father, Logan Williams, assumed control in 1905 and served until his death in 1950. (see pp. 43-44, 86). The Centennial Edition was published in 1954. (see p.42) This represents one of the earliest pioneer and most successful ventures in newspaper publishing in Kosciusko County.

Aborn Family 40
Adams, Mabel 13
Adams, Waldo 6
Alcorn, Bruce K. 61
American in Paris 26
American Revolution 7
American Tragedy 18, 68
Angel, Jasper 30
Anglin, Anna 23
Anglin Family 23
Archeology 9, 10
Architecture 25
Area planning 25
Armstrong, James 24
Astronomy 31
Atlases 7, 12
Atwood 7, 23
Baby care 46
Bachman, Harriet 87
Banta, R.E. 7
Baumgartner, Arch 13, 85, 87
Baumgartner Family 13
Baumgartner, Joseph 13-14
Beaver Dam 42
Beck, Metcalf 8
Beer, Henry 72
Beyer Brothers 55
Beyond the Sunset 80
Bierce, Ambrose 16-18, 44, 68
Biederwolf, W.E. 58
Blaich, T. 28
Blazer (L.H.S.) 24
Blue, Edwin 61, 62
Boydston 29
Brock, Virgil P. 80
Brosnham, Kate 30, 34
Brown, Elijah P. 50
Brubaker, Bill 25
Brubaker, Howard 44-45
Brubaker, Dorothy see Challman
Brubaker, Mary Barron 72-73
Bryan, William Jennings 49, 57
Burket 42
Burt, Carl 45
Byrd, Richard E. 49, 58
Calculators 61
Camp Devotions 61
Campfire Cooking 61
Carmichael, Katherine 49, 60
Carmichael, Ralph 49
Challman, Dorothy B. 73-74
Chapman, J.B. 40, 42
Chautauqua 50, 54-58
Churches, History of 27, 28, 42
City Directory 41
Civil War 10, 11, 12
Claypool 42
Clunette 42
Coffin, Levi 24
Communities 23-67. History of 42
Composers 72, 80-83
Coplén, Marion 8, 43
Costumes 47
Courthouse 42
Coverstone, Jean 28
Cowboys 21
Crosson, Samuel 37
Cuffel, Al 66
Davis, John 63, 64
Aborn Family 40
Adams, Mabel 13
Adams, Waldo 6
Alcorn, Bruce K. 61
American in Paris 26
American Revolution 7
American Tragedy 18, 68
Angel, Jasper 30
Anglin, Anna 23
Anglin Family 23
Archeology 9, 10
Architecture 25
Area planning 25
Armstrong, James 24
Astronomy 31
Atlases 7, 12
Atwood 7, 23
Baby care 46
Bachman, Harriet 87
Banta, R.E. 7
Baumgartner, Arch 13, 85, 87
Baumgartner Family 13
Baumgartner, Joseph 13-14
Beaver Dam 42
Beck, Metcalf 8
Beer, Henry 72
Beyer Brothers 55
Beyond the Sunset 80
Bierce, Ambrose 16-18, 44, 68
Biederwolf, W.E. 58
Blaich, T. 28
Blazer (L.H.S.) 24
Blue, Edwin 61, 62
Boydston 29

DeCastro, A. 17
 Devil's Dictionary 16,44
 Dickey, Marcus 22
 Dickey, Sol C. 57
 Diehl, Elias 14
 Diehl Family 14
 Dillinger, John 42
 Disko 42
 Ditches 40
 Doane, Dorothy H. 80
 Dohner, Donald 30-31
 Drama 61
 Dresser, Paul 18
 Dreiser, Helen 19
 Dreiser, Theodore 7,18-21,46,68-70
 DuBois, Dr. Charles 46-47
 Dutchtown 42
 Ecology 32-33
 Edgell, Scott 55
 Education 25,38,61
 Elder, Donald 38
 Ellis, W.T. 51
 Esarey, Logan 7,9
 Eschbach, Jesse 42
 Essenberg, Jack 43
 Etna Green 23-24, 42,84
 Fatout, Paul 17
 Felkner, Marjorie
 see Wagner
 Felkner, Rachel 27,42
 Fielding, Mildred 19
 Fisher, Earleen 87
 Flanner, Janet 26
 Food (research) 34
 Fort Wayne Journal Gazette 31
 Frauhiger, Dr. 41
 Funk Family 42
 Funk, Mae 47,50
 Gaddis, Margaret 65,66
 Gaddis, Vincent 64-67
 Garber, Curtis 43,87
 Gerber, Phillip 19
 Gibson, Hattie 28
 Grace College 60-62
 Grace Theological Seminary 63-64
 Grattan, C.H. 17
 Greyhounds (A.H.S.) 23
 Grill, Stephen 61,62
 Groninger, Frances 56
 Guidance (counseling) 47-48
 Hagg, Norman 87
 Hall, Florence M. 78
 Hanscom, W.D. "Bob" 50,54-55,58
 Harlan, Elijah 42
 Heaton, James 50,55-56
 Helvey, Peg Stokes 70
 Henry, Ron 61,62
 Hillis, L.B. 9
 Hilton, George W. 65
 Hoffer, Giles & Mary 14-15
 Hoffer Family 14-15
 Holderman, Dorothy
 see Doane
 Hopkins, Josephine 25
 Hoyt, Herman A. 63,64
 Ibach, Robert D. 64
 Ice House 42
 Indians 6,27,37,42
 Industrial Design 30-31
 Interurbans 65
 Kane, Thomas 59
 Keller, Helen 57
 Kellogg, Dr.J.H. 57
 Kent, Homer A. 64
 Ker, Charles 42
 Kosciusko Co.

Historical Soc. 9
 Hist. Museum 56
 Kreicker, Wm. H. 78
 Kutz, Semaris 41
 Lakeland Reflections 29
 Lakes 34,35-36
 Lancer (Grace C.) 60
 Lardner, Ring 37-38
 Laudeman, June 38-39
 Leesburg 7,24-26,42 84
 Leifer, Bert 31
 Lemler, Fran 79
 Lewis, Clare 79
 Likens, Gene 32-33
 Lilly, Eli 9-10,35-37
 Limnology 32-33
 MacConnell, C. "Buck" 21
 MacConnell, Dorcas 43
 McGlynn, Robert 43
 McLoughlin, Wm. 51
 Maggart, Eva 30
 Marijuana 33
 Matchett, John 33-34
 Mentone 26-27,42-84
 Mentone-Akron News 84-88
 Mentzer, M. 26-27
 Messner, Yvonne 61-62
 Miles, George 37
 Milford 8,27-28,42, 72,84-85
 Milford Mail-Journal 84-85,87,88
 Miller, Shirley
 see Mims
 Mims, Shirley 78-79
 Miner, Virginia S. 74-75
 Moers, Ellen 19
 Mollenhour, Wm. 87
 Monoquet 6,8,42,85
 Muntz, J. Palmer 58
 Murders 42
 Nature study 47
 Neale, Walter 17
 Nelson, Charles F. 10
 Nolan, Jeannette 22
 North Webster 8,28-30 42,85
 Northern Indianian 43-86
 Nye, George 30,39-41,43
 Opera House 42
 Oram, G.H. "Dick" 50 54-55
 Oram Wagon Works 42
 Osborn, Garrett 81
 Ossem, Henry 6
 Oswego 6,8,42
 Overmyer, Opal C. 67
 Packerton 42
 Palestine 7
 Paris Journal 26
 Pearson, Drew 49
 Peddycord, Will 12
 Perrine, Aaron 27,44
 Petrie, Herbert 50,58
 Phelps, Wm. 22
 Pierceton 7,30-34,42,85
 Plain Township 7,23
 Plays 38
 Pleasant Valley 42
 Poets 22,34,71-79
 Portraits 16,35,49,71
 Post Office 40
 Randall, Mildred 25
 Rector, Jo 87-88
 Rector, Steve 88
 Rickel Family 13
 Ridinger, John 42
 Riley, James Whitcomb 22, 71,75-76
 Rodeheaver, Homer 49,
 51-52,57,58,60,79

Rodeheaver, J.N. 60, 81
 Rodeheaver, Mrs. J.N. 53-54, 81-82
 Rodeheaver, Ruth see Thomas
 Roger, Will 49, 58
 Ros, Paz M. 47-48
 Roscoe, Burton 20
 Rousseau, Dominique 6
 Royse, Lemuel 10-11, 42
 Sands, Marguerite 43
 Satanic Reader 44
 School yearbooks 23, 24-25, 27-28, 30, 41
 Schools 25, 39, 59-60
 Scott, Virginia see Miner
 Schumann-Heink, E. 49, 57
 Science 31-34
 Seely, Jerry 88
 Sevastopol 7, 42
 Sheetz, Ann 88
 Sharp, Ronald 11-12, 37, 43
 Sidney 42
 Silver Lake 7, 34, 42, 85
 Sister M. Eleanore 34
 Sloan, Jim 79
 Soldiers 7, 10, 11
 Sousa, John P. 49, 58
 Stauffer, Florence 24
 Steam Threshing Machines 6
 Stokes, Peg see Helvey
 Sullivan, Kip 29-30
 Sunday, Helen 53, 67
 Sunday, Wm.A. "Billy" 49-54, 57, 58
 Swanberg, W. 20
 Swarthout, Gladys 49
 Syracuse 8, 12, 35-39, 42, 85-86
 Thomas, Lee 52
 Thomas, Ruth Rodeheaver 49, 60
 Tiger (W.H.S.) 41
 Towns, see Communities
 Townships 7, 12, 42
 Tri County Gazette 26
 Trojanette (M.H.S.) 27
 Troy (N.W.H.S.) 30
 Tucker Family 15
 Tucker, Mirabel 15
 Tuckey, John 48
 Tutwiler, J.W. & Esther 82-83
 Twain, Mark 48
 Vrabel, Jo Ann 88
 Wagner, Marjorie Felkner 42, 77
 Ward, Henry 37
 Warsaw 7, 15, 16, 17, 19, 20, 21, 39-48, 86
 Warsaw Times-Union 24, 29, 42-43, 87-88
 Wawasee 35-36
 Widaman, John 42
 Williams, Ted 43, 88
 Williams, Gen. Reub 43-44, 88
 Williams, Reub 43, 88
 Willis, Maude 50, 58
 Winona 42, 49-57
 World War II 43
 XIT Buck 21
 Yoder, Dr. Vance 61, 62
 Zuck, Virginia 43, 65, 66

COMMUNITIES OF KOSCIUSKO COUNTY

Jefferson	B Van Buren	A Turkey Creek
Scott
Etna F	Plain C H G	D Tippecanoe
Prairie E
Harrison	Wayne (K) L	M Washington
Franklin N O	Seward J	Monroe
		Jackson S
	Clay P
	Lake R

A. Syracuse
 B. Milford
 C. Leesburg
 D. North Webster
 E. Atwood
 F. Etna Green
 G. Monoquet
 H. Oswego
 J. Burket
 K. Warsaw
 L. Winona Lake
 M. Pierceton
 N. Sevastopol
 O. Beaver Dam
 P. Claypool
 R. Silver Lake
 S. Sidney
 T. Mentone