

"The Star Band"

The Star Band was composed largely of the Pandermarks Family. They lived in the Palestine area. The Band held concerts in Mentone and played at other places and for many events. Edison Pandermark son of Charles Pandermark, was the Director of the Band. He played the Cornet, his father Charles the Alto Horn and his wife Estar the Horn. Elmer Pandermark played the Tuba his wife Beas the Baritone Horn and their daughter Louise (Pandermark) Sammy Fremont Fisher played the Drums and his wife Lillie the Cornet.

In the picture L to R is Elmer Pandermark, wife Beas (woman in white), Charles Pandermark and (at far right) his son Edison. In the back row L to R is Louise P. Sammy, Estar Pandermark, Lillie Fisher and Fremont Fisher. Director of the Band (in white suit) is