

Air show was big success!

A CROWD estimated at over 1,000 turned out on a near perfect day Sunday, September 17, to watch aerobatic stunts and parachutists perform at the newly resurfaced Mentone Airport. The air show and ham and bean dinner was held to help raise funds for the resurfacing costs.

ONLY A few takers were brave enough to take a ride in this "open-air" airplane. (NEWS photo)
