

L. P. JEFFERIES FURNITURE AND UNDERTAKING was located where the party room of Teel's Restaurant is now located. Holding the team used to pull the hearse is the late Adam Bowen. The building at the left is where King's Furniture and Carpet is located and the barn in the rear where the hearse was kept is on the site now occupied by Lewis Motors. Picture courtesy Bell Memorial Library.

Pictures from Hazel Linn

MANY HEATED BASKETBALL GAMES were played on the old Mentone Community Building floor between 1926-1953. The building was constructed in 1926 at a cost of $5,000. It is said that part of the Old Mentone ball park fence was torn down and used in its construction. The