Herman E. Conley

Herman E. Conley passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, June 27, 2020, in Etna Green, at the age of 88.

He was born on April 27, 1932, in Swamp Branch, Ky. Herman was the second oldest of 16 children born to Lana Frances May Conley and Bertie Conley. On June 15, 1957, he was married to Nellie D. Long Conley. They shared 52 years of marriage together before she passed away on Oct. 14, 2009.

He was a 1952 graduate of Pierceton High School, where he excelled at basketball and earned the nickname "Goose." He loved all sports and was a member of the Pierceton High School track and cross country teams. Herman made Etna Green his home and was the town barber for over 40 years. He cut hair and swapped many stories daily with clientele that he would befriend. He moved in 1989 to Tucson, where he continued to barber for a total of 65 years. Herman will always be remembered as a loving husband, father, grandfather and brother and will be dearly missed.

He will be lovingly remembered by his three daughters: Colleen Conley Mast, South Bend; Melanie Stenstrom and her boyfriend, Todd Hahn, Etna Green; Becky (Don) Milliser, Tucson, Ariz.; and two sons: Jim (Misha) Conley, Etna Green; Patrick (Martha) Conley, Plymouth. He also leaves behind 15 grandchildren: Justin, Sara, Athena, Andrew, Alaina, Taylor, Blake, Trenton, Maci, Cole, Jami, Nick, Addam, Toni and Donna; 18 great-grandchildren: Carter, Presley, Macy, Harper, Gracie, Graciabelle, Fitzgerald, Kavanaugh, Finnigan, O'Malley, Coby, Lucy, Isaac, Katie, Mat, Harlie, Landon and Gabe; and his great-great-granddaughter, Olivia. Also surviving are six brothers: Roger Conley, Warsaw; John (Neva) Conley, Warsaw; Robert "Bob" (Sue) Conley, Warsaw; Ruben (Peg) Conley, Etna Green; Dan Conley, Fort Wayne; Mark Conley, Columbus, Ga.; and three sisters: Nita Cunningham, Dayton, Ohio; Joan Potter, Pierceton; Deb Conley, South Bend.

He was preceded in death by his parents; wife, Nellie D. Conley; four brothers: Woodford, Bobby, Ernie and Ronald Conley; two sisters: Geraldine Bodas and Wilma Jane; and his grandson, Darek Long.

Visitation will be held on Tuesday, June 30 from 2 to 7 p.m. at Redpath-Fruth Funeral Home, 225 Argonne Road, Warsaw.

Due to the current guidelines limiting public gatherings because of the COVID-19 virus and safety concerns, please use good judgment in determining the length of your visit or if you should attend. Masks should be worn if you feel more comfortable doing so, they are highly recommended for the visitation and service but are not required. There will be no congregating in the parking lot and physical distancing of 6 feet is mandatory.

Herman's life will be celebrated with a service 10 a.m. on Wednesday, July 1 at Etna Green Church of Christ, 206 W. Broadway St., Etna Green, and officiated by Pastor Jordan Ickes. Burial will follow with a graveside service at Etna Green Cemetery in Etna Green ... please follow social distancing guidelines at the cemetery as well.

Ruby May

Ruby May, a longtime resident of Kosciusko County, passed away in the loving care of her great-granddaughters, LaShea May and Cadence May, in their Warsaw home on Monday, June 22, 2020, just after 4 p.m. She was 85 years old.

Born in Prestonsburg, Ky., on April 6, 1935, she was the daughter of the late Malcolm and Malvrie Davis Sparks. She was a 1955 graduate of Sidney High School. Later that year, on June 30, Ruby was married to Robert J. May, who preceded her in passing in 2003.

Ruby was a loving person with a sassy streak. She could be stubborn, too, but she had a heart of gold with a never-ending love for family; she cherished time spent with them and is remembered for her peanut brittle and her chocolate fudge. She enjoyed reading, listening to classic country music, collecting porcelain dolls and finding a bargain at Goodwill and garage sales. Professionally, she had worked at Miller's Merry Manor and as a CNC operator for Paragon Medical.

In addition to her husband, Robert, those who preceded her in passing include her parents, Malcolm and Malvrie; son, George May; sisters, Adeline Smith and Dora Sparks; brothers, Otto Sparks, Bill Sparks and Earl Sparks; and grandsons, Jonathan and Willard Robert May.

Those who survive with memories to treasure include her children: John (Lisa) May, of Rochester; Bill (Cindy) May, of Seymour, Tenn.; Carson (Shelly) May, of Mentone; Rod (Linda) May, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Robin (Josh) Rhodes, of Warsaw; and Teri May, of Warsaw; and brother, German Sparks. Also surviving are 22 grandchildren, 40 great-grandchildren and six great-great-grandchildren.

Friends may join family for visitation at Titus Funeral Home, 2000 E. Sheridan St., Warsaw, on Saturday, June 27 from 9 to 11 a.m. Beginning at 11 a.m., Ruby's nephew, Deacon Mark Davis will officiate her Life Celebration® service. Burial will follow.

Martin Bloom Sacks

NORTH MANCHESTER — Martin Bloom Sacks, 73, of Warsaw, and formerly of Sidney, passed away at 2:20 p.m. Tuesday, June 30, 2020, at Mason Health and Rehabilitation Center, Warsaw.

He was born March 27, 1947, in Warsaw, to Henry Martin Sacks and Lena Bloom. In 1971, he married Bonnie Lu Furnas. They divorced after 13 years of marriage.

Martin graduated from Warsaw High School in 1965 and earned a bachelor's degree from Purdue Fort Wayne in 1969. He was a lifelong farmer and mechanic, working at Meyers Motors in Liberty Mills from 1969 to 1972. Although he was never in the military, he was a supporter and lifelong member of American Huey 369 in Peru, Military Vehicle Preservation Association, Air Force Association, ROTC and NRA.

He was also a certified TIG welding instructor. Martin was a man of faith and enjoyed drag racing, flying small planes, for which he had a pilot's license, and tractor pulling. He often donated his time to plowing snow for the town of Sidney and the residents who lived there and was a local mechanic for farmers around his home. His work can be seen all over the world from sporting bike wheels and sporting wheelchairs, to wheels for the Chevrolet Sunraycer, which was raced in Australia.

He was a consultant for NASA and some his work can be seen in the Smithsonian Institution Museum. He was an intelligent and talented teacher, from teaching others his craft to his son life lessons, he was kind, patient and thorough in his teaching. He had worked as a research and development engineer and retired from Sun Metal in Warsaw in December 2019 after 47 years of service. He attended the Faith Baptist Church, North Manchester.

He is survived by his son, Daniel Martin (Katie) Sacks, of Claypool.

Services will be at 6:30 p.m. July 16 at McKee Mortuary, 1401 Ind. 114 W., North Manchester, with Pastor Jim Baughman officiating. Calling hours are 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. July 16 at the funeral home.

The family has entrusted McKee Mortuary, North Manchester, with final arrangements.
