Nadeen Zolman Cumberland

Nadeen Zolman Cumberland, age 97, of Mishawaka, formerly Bourbon, passed away on May 14, 2022, in South Bend.

Nadeen Zolman Cumberland was born June 5, 1924, at home near Burket. She had a twin sister, Eileen. She graduated from Burk High School in 1942.

Nadeen went from her high school graduation to her minister's home and married Warren Cumberland. They lived in a small house on his parent's farm after their marriage, until

Warren was drafted. Warren was sent to Ft. Sam Houston in Texas before he was transferred to California. Once he was stationed in California, Nadeen went there to be with him until he was sent to the Philippines. Warren brought Nadeen back to Indiana where she lived with her mother. Their daughter, Naomi, was born after he shipped out and he did not see her until she was 18 months old.

When Warren returned from the service, he decided to go to pharmacy school at Indianapolis College of Pharmacy. After which is now Butler University College of Pharmacy. After graduating from college, Warren and Nadeen purchased the pharmacy in Bourbon, formerly Heisler Pharmacy, and it became Cumberland Pharmacy. They operated Cumberland

Pharmacy for over 40 years and were a vital part of the Bourbon Community. Nadeen was a member of the Bourbon

First United Methodist Church. After Warren's death in 2003, Nadeen remained in the Bourbon community until 2012. She moved to Miller's Merry Manor in Warsaw until 2014 when she moved to South Bend to be near her daughter. She has been at the Caring Cottage the last six years under the wonderful care of Glenda and Mike Brown, along with their staff.

Nadeen is survived by her daughter, Naomi Rea, of Mishawaka; her grandchildren: Jeff Rea (Raelee), of South

Bend; Julie Rea, of New Bern, N.C.; Joel Rea (Maria), of

Salmon, Idaho; her great-grandchildren: Zachary

Stabrowski, Noah Stabrowski, Carly Stabrowski and Brenna

Hudson.

Nadeen was preceded in death by her parents, John and Rosezella Zolman; her husband, Warren; her siblings:

Wayne, Maynard, Bernard, Donald, Eileen and Donabelle; and her son-in-law, Phillip.

The family would like to thank Heartland Hospice and their staff, along with the wonderful staff at Caring Cottage who loved her like one of their own. Rest in peace, Nadeen.

Visitation will be held on Wednesday, May 18 from 1 to 3 p.m. in Deaton-Clemens Funeral Home, 115 S. Main St.,

Bourbon. Funeral will follow at 3 p.m. with Rev. Dr. Joyce

Kuhn presiding. Burial will take place in Pleasant Hill

Cemetery, Bourbon.

Thank you to all our friends and community for your support during this difficult time.

Deaton-Clemens Funeral Home is honored to be caring for the Cumberland family and wishes to express our deepest condolences to them.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Bourbon First United Methodist Church, 204 N.

Washington St., Bourbon, IN 46504; or Heartland Hospice,
