

Glen Dotson

AKRON - Glen Dotson, 84, of rural Akron, passed at 6:35 a.m. Tuesday, Feb. 2, 2021, at Visiting Nurse and Hospice Home of Fort Wayne.

Glen was born on March 31, 1936, in Pike County, Ky., to the late Joe and Elva Dotson Dotson. On Dec. 30, 1955, in Pikeville, Ky., he married Rebecca Lester; she preceded him in death on Dec. 26, 1995. He then was married on May 4, 1996, to Kathy McKenzie Baker; she preceded him in death on March 23, 2020.

He retired from Cyclone Seeder of Urbana. In years past, he attended the Silver Creek Church of God. He enjoyed bluegrass and gospel music along with fishing and as a younger man hunting. He was an avid Ham radio operator and his handle was "Beekeeper." Glen also was known for his small orchard and for harvesting honey from his bees. He spent many hours with his dog, Penny.

Glen is survived by his daughter, Sharon and husband Mitch Steele, of North Manchester; grandsons, Matthew and Mark Murray; and half sisters, Joyce Maynard and Karen Wolford, both of Kentucky.

He is preceded in death by his parents; wives, Rebecca Dotson and Kathy Dotson; daughter, Deborah "Debbie" Dotson; and brothers and sisters.

Visitation hours will be from 1 to 3 p.m. Friday, Feb. 5 at Hartzler Funeral Home, 305 W. Rochester St., Akron. A moment of remembrance will take place at 3 p.m.

Masks will be required for all in attendance.

A private interment will take place in the Silver Creek Cemetery, Silver Lake, alongside his wife Rebecca.

Donations can be made to the donor's choice of charity in Glen's memory.

Carl Ray Bowser

Carl Ray Bowser, age 82, of Pierceton, passed away on Thursday, Feb. 4, 2021, at 11:07 a.m. in the care of his sister, nephew and Kosciusko Hospice Care.

Carl was born May 16, 1938, in Pierceton, to Carl E. and Louise VanCuren Bowser.

Carl graduated from Pierceton High School Class of 1957. From high school until 1980, Carl took care of many places in his hometown: Pierceton Post Office, 21 years as a custodian; Hillcrest Cemetery, 10 years, Carnegie Library grounds keeper; First Baptist Church; Pierceton Truck Stop Restaurant; laundromat and 10 individual lawns he took meticulous care of. He thoroughly enjoyed football, basketball and car races.

His entire life, Carl struggled from the effect of polio, then as he neared age 40, post-polio syndrome and MS became the biggest burden to deal with, but he never complained. A person who seldom spoke, he loved to be around people and hear what everyone had to say. Carl was a member of the First Baptist Church, Pierceton.

Carl is survived by his sister, Linda Schafer, of Pierceton; his nephew, Neil Schafer, of Pierceton; four great-nieces who were the bright shining stars in his life: Moriah, Angel (Jorge), Shaylee and Kayden Schafer, of North Manchester; and two new little stars: great-great-niece, Adelina; and great-great-nephew, Arlo Robles; of North Manchester. Also surviving are Aunts Becky Stavedahl, of Warsaw; and Phyllis Bowser, of Mentone; and many cousins.

A visitation will be from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 8 at McHatton-Sadler Funeral Chapel, Pierceton. A funeral service will follow immediately at 1 p.m. at the funeral chapel in Pierceton. Pastor Mark Fishburn will be officiating. Interment will be in Hillcrest Cemetery, Pierceton.

Due to current COVID-19 recommendations, masks are required. The public is kindly requested to provide their own. Social distancing is strongly encouraged. No food is permitted at this time.

Memorial donations may be made to Kosciusko Home Care & Hospice - 1515 Provident Drive, Warsaw, IN 46581; First Baptist Church - Pierceton, 208 W. Market St., Pierceton, IN 46562; or a charity of one's choice.
