OBITUARIES

Chad Lee Bibler

Sept. 20, 1967 – July 31, 2022

Chad Lee Bibler, 54, of Grove City, Ohio passed unexpectedly Sunday, July 31, 2022, at Grady Memorial Hospital of Delaware, Ohio.

Chad was born Sept. 20, 1967, in Logansport, to Larry D. and Carolyn L. (Bundy) Bibler. He married Anne Raikes and then married Beth Woodford Bibler. They survive.

He was a 1986 graduate of Tippecanoe Valley High School. He furthered his education at Taylor University and Grace College, where he attained a Bachelor's Degree in biology. He owned and operated Bibler Painting since 1998. Chad also, in earlier years, taught for Bremen Schools and coached for Bremen and Argos.

Chad was a proud member of the NAIA Grace College National Championship men's basketball team. He coached and assisted with his children's sports teams. He also loved golfing, cooking, and was an avid sports fan. Chad also enjoyed listening to music and could be quite the comedian. He was God fearing, funny, and always cared for others. He will be remembered as an "over teacher" and a jokester.

He also is survived by his children, Jacob Lee Bibler, Hannah Marie Bibler, Grace Ann Bibler, Cashton Lee Bibler, and Tessa Elle Bibler; mother Carolyn Lauer of Canadian, Texas; father Larry and wife Carol Bibler of Sun City, Ariz.; sister Amy Bibler and husband Ronnie Schafer of Canadian, Texas; sister-in-law Stephanie Bibler of Claypool; and nieces Chelsea and husband Sean McCloskey and Megan and husband Treston Fisher.

Chad was preceded in death by his brother Scott Bibler and grandparents Howard and Mabel Bibler and Hiram and Dora Bundy.

The funeral service will take place at 1 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 6, 2022, at King Memorial Home, 101 N. Tucker St., Mentone, with Pastor Denny Wilson officiating.

The interment will take place following the service in the Mentone Cemetery, Mentone.

Visitation will be from 11 a.m. to the time of the service at the funeral home.

Memorial contributions can be made in his memory to Sweet Sassy, <https://www.sweetsassygolfouting.com>, to further assist the community.

Robert G. Deamer

June 17, 1940 – July 18, 2022

Robert Glen Deamer was born in Rochester, June 17, 1940, to the union of George and Doris (Adamson) Deamer, who both preceded him in death.

His younger brother, Philip (wife Jennifer), of Louisville, Ky., also predeceased him. Both sets of grandparents and a cousin, Janet Law Weber, also predeceased him.

Robert is survived by his wife Eleny, and his son Eric (wife Kimberly) of Lakewood, Ohio, also by his cousin Gail Law (wife Cindy) of Mentone, and their children and grandchildren.

Robert grew up in Talma, in Fulton County, and graduated from Talma High School. He went on to Wabash College in Crawfordsville, where he majored in English and German and completed a bachelor's degree. After that he attended Indiana University-Bloomington and graduated with a master's degree in English.

After teaching at the college level for four years at Alpena Community College in Michigan, and at the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse, Robert returned to graduate studies at the University of New Mexico. He completed a PhD in American studies after three years there and resumed teaching at Thiel College, in Greenville, Penn.

Eventually he joined his parents at the family business, Deamer and Deamer, a real estate and title insurance business in Rochester, having obtained a real estate broker's license.

Robert met his wife, Eleny, while they were both attending IU-Bloomington and working on their master's degrees. In July 1965 they were married in her home country, Brazil, but have lived in the United States ever since. Following Robert's career they lived in Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, New Mexico and Pennsylvania. They also traveled to Brazil three or four times. Once they both retired, they traveled to Europe and Canada.

Robert was proud of his small-town roots and often reminisced about playing high school basketball, canoeing in the Tippecanoe River and working summers for farmers in the Talma area.

Per Robert's wishes no formal services will be held. Good Family Funeral Home in Rochester is handling arrangements. Interment will be at IOOF Cemetery in Rochester, next to his parents burial site. Online expressions of sympathy maybe made at www.goodfamilyfh.com.

Theodore 'Ted' LeRoy Hanes

Theodore "Ted" LeRoy Hanes, of Claypool, went home to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, at 8:35 a.m. on Monday, Aug. 1, 2022, at the age of 94.

He was born on March 31, 1928, in Los Angeles. He was one of four children born to Viva Blanch Netzley and Charles Carl Hanes. Ted married the love of his life, Iris Evonne Neff, on Valentines Day, Feb. 14, 1960. They were blessed with the joy of becoming parents, grandparents and great-grandparents throughout their journey of 62 years of marriage.

Ted graduated from Covina High School in Covina, Calif., and continued on with his undergraduate studies at UC Davis and UCLA. He earned his PHD from UCLA and spent his career teaching biology at California State University of Fullerton. He loved learning and teaching, and was an authority and expert in California Coastal Vegetation, was an Audubon Society instructor, and board chair of both Western Christian Schools and LaVerne Grace Brethren Church. Ted was a loving father and his greatest accomplishment was simply being there for his family and he enjoyed attending every game and event his four children participated in while they were growing up.

Upon retirement, Ted and Iris moved from Los Angeles to a farm in Kosciusko County in August of 1999. They very much enjoyed the fellowship of their church family at Christ's Covenant Church in Winona Lake, as well as Cornerstone Grace Church in South Whitley. He was a faithful Christian man who loved Jesus and served Him faithfully in his marriage, family, church, career and community. He will be dearly missed by his family and those who knew him. Ted left a legacy of love, kindness, patience and generosity. His family is rejoicing in the knowledge that Ted is now in Christ's presence, with a renewed mind and body, and with the assurance that his family will be reunited in Christ once again.

He will be lovingly remembered by his wife, Iris Evonne Hanes, Claypool; two sons: Mark (Lauri) Hanes, Winona Lake; Doug (Kari) Hanes, Claypool; two daughters: Linda (Dale) Payne, Visalia, Calif.; Nina Hanes Banks, Louisville, Ky.; 19 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers and one sister.

Ted's life will be celebrated at 11 a.m. on Friday, Aug. 5 at Christ's Covenant Church, 2090 E. Pierceton Road, Winona Lake, and officiated by Pastor Larry McCall and Pastor Edward Robertson. There will be visitation an hour prior to the service at the church from 10 to 11 a.m. A private family graveside service will take place at Oakwood Cemetery in Warsaw. Arrangements were entrusted to Redpath-Fruth Funeral Home, 225 Argonne Road, Warsaw.

Memorial donations may be directed to Answers In Genesis, P.O. Box 510, Hebron, KY 41048-0510.
