

Danny J. Boggs

Danny J. Boggs, born Jan. 4, 1949, in Warsaw, to Fred and Lorena Black Boggs, passed away at 12:06 a.m. on Friday, Jan. 29, 2021, at Parkview Randallia Hospital, Fort Wayne.

He graduated from North Webster High School with the class of 1967.

He was inducted into the Army Feb. 4, 1969, in Fort Knox, Ky, before moving on to Fort Polk, La., for AIT Training. On July 3, 1969, he was on his way to Vietnam, returning home in September 1970. Upon returning home, he met his daughter, Danita, for the first time.

Dan began working for Bockman's Greenhouse and Floral Shop at the age of 13. He then started working at Zimmer in October 1971 in the maintenance department and retired in 2010 after working there for 39 years. He also owned Boggsz New Lawns, which turned into Boggs Tree Transplanting for 46+ years and Holiday Pen Country Boarding Kennel for 16 years.

Danny Boggs and Tamara "Tammy" Sutton were married on March 14, 2005, in Sevierville, Tenn. They lived in Warsaw and soon purchased 36 acres of land in Claypool where Dan and Tammy enjoyed the woods, hunting and fishing.

Dan has two surviving children: Danita (Mike) Keirn and Denny (Melissa) Boggs, both residing in Warsaw. Dan has three stepchildren: Jay (Stephanie) Susie, of Harrisburg, Ill.; Andrew (Jaimie) Susie, of Fairfield, Ill.; and Joshua (Miranda) Susie, of Noblesville. He has three granddaughters: Tory (Denis) Samardzic, of Fort Wayne; Devin Boggs and Avery Boggs, of Warsaw; one grandson: Nash Keirn, of Warsaw; one great-granddaughter, Ajla Samardzic, of Fort Wayne; and a half sister, Margie Carpenter, of Peru, Ind. He also has two stepgrandchildren: Preston Susie, of Noblesville; and Lochland Susie, of Noblesville.

Dan was preceded in death by his parents; an infant son, D.J. Boggs; two half sisters, Darlene Phillips and Vonda Wheeler; and a half brother, Freddie Boggs.

More than anything, Dan was a nature lover, deer hunter, trapper and an avid mushroom hunter.

A Life Celebration® is entrusted to Warsaw's Titus Funeral Home, 2000 E. Sheridan St., where visitation will be held on Monday, Feb. 1 from 3 to 7 p.m. On Tuesday, Feb. 2 at 11 a.m., Pastor Gary Colby will officiate Danny's service at Salem Community Church in Wilmot. Burial will follow with military honors in Salem Cemetery.

Susan 'Sue' Marie Haan

Susan "Sue" Marie Haan, of Claypool, passed away surrounded by her loving family at 5:12 a.m. on Thursday, Jan. 28, 2021, at her residence at the age of 74.

She was born on Sept. 7, 1946, in Iron Mountain, Mich., to Margaret Thorneburg Darland and John Darland. At the young age of 23, she married the love of her life, William "Bill" Henry Haan, on April 4, 1970. This year they would have celebrated 51 years of marriage together. They raised three children, celebrated the joy of becoming grandparents and created so many memories during their time together.

Sue was a 1964 graduate of Green Bay East High School in Green Bay, Wis. She moved and lived in Salem, Ill., for about nine years before moving to Warsaw in 1992. In 1993, she started working for Dalton Foundry in Warsaw in the administration department until her retirement in 2008. Sue absolutely loved the outdoors, especially her flower garden. Sunshine, the endless colors and scents of any and all flowers brought a smile to her face. She also enjoyed meeting her friends at the Kosciusko Community YMCA in Warsaw where she routinely exercised. Sue will forever be remembered as a loving wife, mother and grandmother who will be dearly missed by her family and many friends.

She will be lovingly remembered by her husband, Bill Haan, Claypool; son, Ben (Melinda) Haan, Warsaw; daughter, Amy (Perry) Waggoner, North Manchester; and her three favorite grandchildren: Maddux, Coby and Lily. Also surviving is her brother, William (Gail) Darland, Green Bay, Wis.; and three sisters: Nancy Becker, Minneapolis, Minn.; Sharon Parker, Albion; Mary (Tom) Balkcom, Maryville, Tenn.

She was preceded in death by her parents, and her daughter, Lizabeth, in 2008.

No services are planned at this time and arrangements were entrusted to Redpath-Fruth Funeral Home, 225 Argonne Road, Warsaw.

Memorial donations in Sue's name may be directed to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105 and would be appreciated by the family.

Online condolences may be sent through the funeral home's website at www.redpathfruthfuneralhome.com.

Wilma M. Hawley

Wilma M. Hawley, age 95, of Warsaw, passed away on Friday, Jan. 29, 2021, at 1:35 a.m. in her residence.

Wilma was born June 9, 1925, in Claypool, to Isaiah and Bessie A. Knief Warren. She was united in marriage to Marshall Hawley in Warsaw in 1951; he preceded her in death March 9, 1995.

Immediately after graduating from Claypool High School in 1943, Wilma began working at General Electric in Fort Wayne as part of the World War II defense effort. She took great pride in being a "Rosie the Riveter," making parts for the B29 Supercharger. At the end of WWII, she began working at the United Telephone Company, Warsaw, where she operated their first electric typewriter. Wilma was also employed by the TIMES-UNION as a material handler for over 25 years. But her favorite job was that of being a homemaker. She loved her home and her flowers and being a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother.

Wilma attended the Warsaw Wesleyan Church for many years and was a devoted Sunday school teacher to scores of toddlers.

She will be lovingly remembered by three daughters: Deborah Hawley, of Warsaw; Martha (Phil) Klatt, Warsaw; and Sarah (Brett) Boggs, Akron; and one son: Mark (Janet) Hawley, Akron. She also leaves behind eight grandchildren: Eve (Bill) Mock, Wakarusa; Evan (Stephanie) Boggs, Nappanee; Elyse Boggs, South Bend; Anna (Kieran) Jackson, Warsaw; Andrew Klatt, Warsaw; Matthew Hawley, LaVista, Neb.; Rachel (Kevin) Hemry, Silverdale, Wash.; Michaela Hawley, Akron; and three great-grandchildren: Dillon and Aiden Boggs and Eden Mock.

Wilma was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Marshall; and three siblings.

A funeral service will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Feb. 6 at McHatton-Sadler Funeral Chapel, Warsaw, with Chaplain John Morgan officiating. Interment will follow in Oakwood Cemetery, Warsaw.

Memorial donations in Wilma's name may be directed to Shriners Hospitals for Children and would be greatly appreciated by the family at Shriners Hospital For Children - Chicago, 2211 N. Oak Park Ave., Chicago, IL 60707.

OBITUARIES

Nellie Robinson

Jan. 21, 1934 - Jan. 27, 2021

Nellie Titus Robinson, a lifetime resident of Atwood, passed away quietly in the early hours of Wednesday, Jan. 27, 2021 at home. Age 87, Nellie had a spunk and a zest for life which was memorable and admirable.

Born on Jan. 21, 1934 in Atwood, she was the last surviving of six children born to Ben J. Titus and Kathryn L. (Hungerford) Titus. She was a 1951 graduate of Atwood High School who attended Manchester College following graduation.

On Sept. 19, 1953, Nellie was united in marriage to the late Roger D. Robinson. The pair shared nearly 55 years together before his passing on Aug. 21, 2008. Their union was blessed with three children and their families, including many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Professionally, Nellie worked for LM Berry in the early years as secretary to the division manager. She also worked for Creighton Brothers for several years but is better remembered for her time as a librarian for Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation, in the trust department of First National Bank and for assisting grieving families at Titus Funeral Home.

In retirement, Nellie stayed busier than many working-age people. She enjoyed attending Triton basketball games and shopping, and was always on the go, helping at the funeral home, the church and in any way she could. Her monthly calendar was a diary of sorts, documenting her busy days and helping her to plan for meetings and for every memorable family occasion.

Nellie loved time spent with her family and was sure to bring out the camera, which often made everyone duck out of the way. As the photographer, she took many photos but was rarely in them. She is also remembered as past worthy matron of the Order of the Eastern Star in Bourbon, member of the American Legion Auxiliary in Atwood and as a member of the Red Hat Society. She was formerly a longtime member of Atwood Otterbein Church and currently a member of Trinity United Methodist Church in Warsaw as well as the United Methodist Women.

Those who survive with memories to cherish include her three children: Aimee (Dennis) Kessie of Braidwood, Ill., Jay (Lana) Robinson of Warsaw and Kirk (Kim) Robinson of Akron; eight grandchildren, Alexandra (Ben) Smith, Mason Kessie, Wyatt Kessie, Andrew (Krystle) Robinson, Emily (Kirklun) Proctor, Angela (Chad) Gebert, Kyle (Megan) Robinson, and Kara Robinson; and 11 great-grandchildren, Elara, Julie, Peyton, Madison, Bryce, Aubrey, Coby, Carl, Chloe, Cassandra, and Truman.

In addition to her husband, Roger, Nellie was preceded in passing by grandson James Popenfoose, sister Wylan Smith and brothers Ben, Ned, Ted, and Don Titus.

A Life Celebration is entrusted to Warsaw's Titus Funeral Home, 2000 E. Sheridan St., where visitation will be on Sunday, Jan. 31, 2021, from noon until 4 p.m. On Monday at 10 a.m. in the funeral home, Pastor Ernie Troxell will officiate Nellie's funeral service with burial to follow in Oakwood Cemetery.

Memorial gifts may be directed to Trinity United Methodist Church, 832 E. Center St., Warsaw, IN 46580. Condolences may be left for the family at www.TitusFuneralHome.com.
