Connie E. Jamison

Connie E. Jamison, of Claypool, went home to be with her Lord and Savior at 12:05 a.m. on Thursday, May 13, 2021, at Lutheran Hospital of Fort Wayne, Indiana, at the age of 73.

She was born on Sept. 1, 1947, in Weston, W.Va. She was one of three children born to Bernice Ruth Woofter Klinger and Gloy Bennett. At the young age of 17, she knew she would spend the rest of her life with her love, Max Leroy Jamison, and they were married on June 5, 1965. They shared the joy of becoming parents, grandparents and even great-grandparents in the 55 years of marriage they were blessed to share with each other before she passed away.

Connie was a lifetime resident of Kosciusko County, but she never lost her West Virginia attitude! She worked throughout her life and was never afraid to try new things. In her younger days, she worked at Guaranteed Auto for a number of years and then she became a school bus driver for Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation. She safely drove hundreds of children to and from school for 13 years, and she absolutely loved it! She watched children grow up before her eyes, and she never tired of saying "good morning" and "good bye" to her bus kids every day, and she always did it with a smile. Connie then transitioned to working at Farmers State Bank in Burket, and later she was a familiar face at Lake City Bank and First Source Bank both in Warsaw. The color green will forever be associated with Connie as that was her favorite color, and if you knew Connie, you knew that she LOVED lilacs and dandelions. Lilacs TRULY represented Connie as white lilacs symbolize purity and innocence, violet lilacs symbolize spirituality, and blue lilacs symbolize happiness and tranquility. Connie was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and a friend to many and she will be dearly missed. She would most want to be remembered for her faith as she had a wonderful relationship with her Lord and Savior.

She will be lovingly remembered by her husband, Max Leroy Jamison, Claypool; two sons: Dennis Jamison, Claypool; Patrick (Angella) Jamison, Claypool; and her daughter, Jodi (Alfredo) Lozano, Warsaw. She also leaves behind her favorite four grandchildren: Valarie Lozano and her spouse, Jeremy Gregory, Syracuse; Cody Jamison, Burket; Aaron Jamison, Claypool; Myra Jamison, Claypool; and her three great-grandchildren: Alex, Charlotte and Rylan.

She was preceded in death by her parents; brother, Steven Bennett; sister, Marlene Leiter; and her beloved granddaughter, Shana.

The Jamison family invites friends and family to join them for a time of sharing and visiting on Saturday, May 22 from 9 to 11 a.m. at Redpath-Fruth Funeral Home, 225 Argonne Road, Warsaw. All are welcome to come, and prayers are always appreciated.

Online condolences may be sent through the funeral home's website at www.redpathfruthfuneralhome.com.

Betty Lou Rohrer

AKRON - Betty Lou Rohrer, 92, of Argyle, Texas, and formerly of Akron, Elkhart and Rock Lake, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, May 12, 2021, surrounded by her loving family.

Betty was born Oct. 23, 1928, in Akron. She was the daughter of Melvin Clark and Mildred Smoker Clark, and she graduated from Akron High School in 1947. She was a member of the Church of God for many years. On Feb. 18, 1950, she married Frederick D. Rohrer and they had three children together. They lived most of their lives in Indiana, but also lived in Alaska, Florida and Texas. They especially enjoyed living on Rock Lake in their later years. Betty and Fred had many great adventures throughout their lifetime. They loved to fish, travel in their RV and spending time with family and friends. One of their most cherished memories was visiting the Holy Land. They attended Christian Center in South Bend Indiana. After 60 wonderful years of marriage, Fred passed away in 2010.

Betty was a wonderfully caring wife and mother. One of her greatest gifts was serving others and caring for loved ones. Betty found love later in life with Otto Woike, while living at the Good Samaritan. They were married in 2014 and he passed in 2018. They had a short, but wonderful life together.

Betty is survived by her daughters: Nancy Warner, of Champaign, Ill.; Sherrie and her husband Randy Brandt, of Argyle, Texas; six grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren. Betty is also survived by her two sisters: Mary Ann Heiser Stinson and Donna Wahlig; sister-in-law, JoAnn Clark; brother-in-law, Max Stinson, along with seven nieces and three nephews.

Betty was preceded in death by husbands: Fred Rohrer and Otto Woike; son, Terry Rohrer; brother, Bob Clark; and brothers-in-law: Fred Heiser and Larry Wahlig.

A graveside service will take place at 2 p.m. Saturday, May 22 in the Akron Cemetery, Akron, with Pastor Jim Shrock officiating.

The arrangements have been entrusted to Hartzler Funeral Home, 305 W. Rochester St., Akron.

Donations can be made in memory of Mrs. Rohrer to the Akron Church of God.
