Chad Allan Study

MENTONE - Chad Allan Study, 44, of Warsaw, passed at 10:48 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 3, 2020, at St. Vincent Hospital of Indianapolis. He lived his life on his small farm in Warsaw and had a successful internet business for over 20 years.

Chad was born on March 10, 1976, in Melrose Park, Ill., to Al and Linda Davidson Study. Chad was a Warsaw Community High School graduate and attended Purdue University, where he was a teacher's assistant in computer technology. While he was at Purdue, he bowled a 300 PBA accredited game.

Chad was also an Eagle Scout and was awarded the Arrow of Light. He was a Congressional Scholar, representing Indiana, in the National Young Leaders Conference. He loved his animals and was a lifetime member of the Kosciusko County Animal Shelter. For many years, he helped with his father's racing stable in Chicago, where they shared great success. His parents were very proud of him and will miss him dearly.

He is survived by his parents, Al Study, of Warsaw; and Linda and husband Delbert Mowery, of Wabash.

Visitation hours will be from 1 to 2 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 8 at King Memorial Home, 101 N. Tucker St., Mentone. The funeral service for Chad will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 8 at King Memorial Home, Mentone.

The interment will take place following the service in Palestine Cemetery, Palestine.

William C. 'Bill' Taylor

William C. "Bill" Taylor, 72, of Claypool, passed away Saturday, Oct. 3, 2020, after a brief battle with cancer.

Bill was born Feb. 11, 1948, in Aberdeen, Wash., to Albert and Wanda McMurray Taylor.

Bill married his childhood sweetheart, Jean Heimburger, in 1969. Together, they led a very adventurous life for nearly 60 years.

Bill was an avid reader and an exceptional cook. He enjoyed camping, kayaking and traveling with Jeannie. They "paddled"/boated 43 of the 50 states and Canada together.

Bill had a long career in foundry work starting at Richland Center Foundry, Wisc. His career also included time at Blackhawk Foundry, Iowa; Frazier & Frazier Industries, Texas; and finally retiring after working at Fort Wayne Foundry. Bill went on to work for Warsaw Community Schools transportation as a school bus driver up until his passing.

Bill is survived by his wife, Jean; children: William Taylor (of South Dakota; Travis Taylor, of California; Shane (Damise) Taylor, of Illinois; Tess (Mike) Funaro, of Tennessee; three grandchildren: including Michael Funaro, of New York; Dominic Funaro, of Illinois; and Bailly Taylor, of Illinois; and several great-grandchildren. He is also survived by his sister, Debbie (Terry) Stevens, of Illinois; and two very special nieces, Gina (Frankie) Martin, of New Mexico; and Cary Taylor and her fiancée Maggie Guzman, of Florida.

Bill was preceded in death by his parents and his brothers, Kenny, Gary and Albert.

In keeping with Bill's wishes, cremation will take place, and a celebration of life will be held at a later time in Illinois.

Robert Ray Landrum

Robert Ray Landrum, age 57, and a resident of Mentone, passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday, Oct. 6, 2020, in South Bend at Memorial Hospital.

Robert was born on Dec. 17, 1962. He was the son of the late Ollie J. and Ruby Shepherd Landrum. He was one of four Landrum children and attended Warsaw Community High School. On Jan. 6, 1989, Robert was married to Anna Holloway, who survives at home in Mentone. Their blended family includes three sons and five grandchildren.

A funny and outgoing person, Robert could make friends with anyone. He was incredibly social and loved to joke and laugh. Time spent with family was important to him, and they appreciated his ability to fix things; he was a "MacGyver" and could fix almost anything. He liked racing cars, working on them and riding motorcycles.

Those who survive with memories to cherish include his wife of 31 years, Anna Landrum; sons: Eric Frazier, of Warsaw; Dennis (Tricia) Frazier, of Warsaw; and Tyler Landrum, of Mentone; five grandchildren: Kaylee, Donovan, Kayden, Landon and Arieana; and a sister, Teresa George. Also surviving are mother-in-law, Linda Holloway; sister-in-law, Cindy Renier; and nephew, John Mattson, who were very supportive to Robert.

His parents; two brothers: Ronald and Roy "Dean" Landrum; and niece, Tiffany Landrum, preceded him in passing.

A Life Celebration® is planned with Titus Funeral Home where family friend, Steve Neeley, will officiate Robert's funeral service on Saturday, Oct. 10 at noon. Visitation will be held for two hours prior, beginning at 10 a.m.
