

John Edward Ames

John Edward Ames, of Winona Lake, passed away at 8:20 a.m. Tuesday, March 23, 2021, comfortably at his home at the age of 86.

He was born on Dec. 29, 1934, in Watertown, Mass. John was one of four children born to Helen Josephine Wardock and William Ira Ames.

John's childhood and adolescence centered around Watertown where he was a 1952 graduate of Watertown High School. He earned his Bachelor of Science in mechanical engineering from Tufts University in Medford, Mass., in 1956 and his Master of Business Administration from Indiana University in 1962. Before he completed his master's degree, John proudly served in the U.S. Navy as a lieutenant from 1957 until his honorable discharge in 1960.

On Oct 11, 1963, he married Margo Ellen Lane in Indianapolis. They raised three children, shared the joy of becoming grandparents and great-grandparents, creating many memories along their journey of 57 years of marriage together before he passed away.

John provided for his growing family working at IBM in Indianapolis until 1967, moving to Jackson, Mich., with Hayes-Albion Corporation until 1982. He moved to Kosciusko County to work for Dalton Foundries in Warsaw and retired as their information systems director in 2002.

He was a member at First Christian Church in Warsaw where he loved worshipping with his church family and served as the former treasurer and deacon. John was always active in the community and was a former member of the Warsaw Morning Optimists Club. While living in Michigan, he had been active in the Jackson, Mich., Area Hockey Association. Everyone that knew John KNEW that he was a lifelong avid fan of the Boston Red Sox! He will forever be remembered for his amazing dry sense of humor and his smile. John was a loving and devoted husband, father and grandfather always setting an excellent example. He will be dearly missed by his family and many friends.

He will be lovingly remembered by his wife, Margo Ellen Ames, Winona Lake; son, Matt (Beth) Ames, Jackson, Mich.; two daughters: Jennifer (Sam) Whitaker, Claypool; and Amy (Jerry) Feldman, Winona Lake. Also surviving are eight grandchildren: Sarah Ames, Travis and Jordan O'Neill, Shelby Whitaker, Jarrod, Johnny, JB and Christi Feldman; and two great-great-grandchildren: Weston and Riley.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one sister and two brothers.

John's life will be celebrated at 4 p.m. on Friday, March 26 at Redpath-Fruth Funeral Home, 225 Argonne Road, Warsaw, and officiated by Pastor Matthew Rogers. There will be visitation prior to the service from 2 to 4 p.m. John will be laid to rest at a later date at Washington Park East Cemetery in Indianapolis.

Memorial donations may be directed to First Christian Church, 115 Park Ridge Drive, Warsaw, IN 46580; or to Kosciusko Home Care & Hospice, P.O. Box 1196, Warsaw, IN 46581-1196.

Online condolences may be sent through the funeral home's website at www.redpathfruthfuneralhome.com.

Mary Helen Manwaring

Mary Helen Manwaring, age 82, of Chapman Lake and previously of Mentone, passed away quietly at home on Thursday, March 18, 2021. She was surrounded with the love of her children at the time of her passing.

Born on Oct. 10, 1938, she was the daughter of Everett E. and Bernice M. Myers Miner. She grew up in the Syracuse-North Webster area. She was a 1957 graduate of Syracuse High School and went on to graduate from Ball State Teacher's College. She was crowned as Miss Wawasee and Queen of the Lakes and spent summers working as a lifeguard at Oakwood Resort.

She was married to the love of her life, Frank N. Manwaring, on Aug. 14, 1960, in Warsaw. The pair met while Mary was working as a carhop at Sand's Drive-In. The pair shared 59 years together before his passing on Aug. 18, 2019.

In addition to her beauty, Mary was kind and giving. She also had a competitive side and enjoyed bowling and golfing where she shot several holes-in-one. She liked birdwatching, cooking and loved animals of all kinds. She was a member of Tippecanoe Country Club and Venice Golf and Country Club, wintering in Florida for more than 25 years. She was a proud Christian and loved Jesus with all her heart. She was a former member of Mentone United Methodist Church and member of Dutchtown Brethren Church.

Time spent with family was most important to Mary. Her heart was most full when her home was full of family and laughter. Those who miss her most include her daughters, Julie (Scott) Reed, of Warsaw; and Jennifer Manwaring, of Warsaw; son, Neil Samuel Manwaring, of Warsaw; grandchildren: Grant Reed, of Warsaw; Griffin Reed, of New York; Anna Manwaring, of Anderson; and Zane Manwaring, of Clemson, S.C.; and brother, James (Fern) Miner, of Thorntown.

In addition to her husband, Frank, Mary was preceded in passing by her parents.

A Life Celebration® is entrusted to Titus Funeral Home, 2000 E. Sheridan St., Warsaw, where friends may gather on Thursday, March 25 from 3 to 6 p.m. Family friend and retired pastor Jack Worth will officiate Mary's funeral beginning at 6 p.m. Burial will take place privately at Mentone Cemetery.

Those wishing to express their sympathy through memorial gifts may direct funds to either of the following causes: Claypool Elementary's Nurturing Knights Program (checks payable to Claypool Elementary PTO) or to Dutchtown Brethren Church.

Written condolences may be left for the family at www.TitusFuneralHome.com.

AKRON - Lynn Parker, 75, of rural Silver Lake, passed at 6:17 p.m. Thursday, March 25, 2021, at Lutheran Hospital of Fort Wayne.

He was born on Dec. 13, 1945, in Warsaw, to the late Rex and Geraldine Tucker Parker. He was married on Aug. 9, 1968, in Silver Lake, to Dianna Kay Allen; she survives.

Lynn graduated from Mentone High School in 1964, where he was his class president and played baseball, basketball and ran cross country. He graduated from Middle Tennessee State University in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in animal science and a minor in business. He served four years in ROTC at MTSU and three years in the United States Army as a lieutenant special agent. He started farming at Lakeside Dairy Farms in 1971.

Lynn was a loving and devoted father, grandfather, son and husband. He and Dianna were married for 52 years and his love for her was undeniable. He was known to be a big supporter of his children and grandchildren in all of their sporting events. He was a hard-working farmer who never complained a day in his life. Lynn was known for his selfless personality, always putting others before himself. He was a faithful servant of God who was looking forward to his homecoming in Heaven. He, along with his family, attended Warsaw Community Church.

He is survived by his wife, Dianna Kay Parker, Silver Lake; children: Alicia Parker (Justin Davis), Silver Lake; Lance Parker (Jodi Stouder), Silver Lake; Josh Parker (Lichelle Parker), Silver Lake; Kalynn Cumberland (Brian Cumberland), Winona Lake; Malinda Miller, Claypool; Keith Parker (Jessi Parker), Bicknell; Rachel Haney (Jeremiah Haney), Akron; Rebekah Parker (Tasia Smith), Warsaw; Jerrod Parker (Amber Parker), Warsaw; 25 grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; siblings, Terry Parker and Paulette Holsinger (Alan Holsinger).

He was preceded in death by his father, Rex Parker; and mother, Geraldine Warner.

The funeral service will be at 11 a.m. Wednesday, March 31 at Hartzler Funeral Home, 305 W. Rochester St., Akron, with visitation one hour prior to the service.

The interment will take place in the Lakeview Cemetery, Silver Lake, with graveside military rite performed by the Warsaw American Legion Post #49 Honor Guard.

Randy E. Ransbottom

Randy E. Ransbottom, of Silver Lake, passed away at 12:52 p.m. on Friday, March 19, 2021, at Visiting Nurse & Hospice Home of Fort Wayne at the age of 73.

He was born on July 11, 1947, in Warsaw, to Franklin S. and June E. Sensibaugh Ransbottom. Randy graduated from Pierceton High School in 1966. Upon graduation, Randy volunteered for service in the United States Army. He served in Vietnam as a wheel and track mechanic and ammo guard. He was honorably discharged from the Army in 1969 with the rank of Specialist 4 (E-4).

He was united in marriage to the love of his life, Priscilla "Bess" Poe, on Dec. 20, 1980. They shared 40 magnificent years of marriage together. Randy was especially proud of his four children and three grandchildren (with a fourth "little buddy" on the way). He made many memories and shared many adventures with them throughout the years they were blessed with.

While working at Zimmer in Warsaw, Randy was well liked and respected by his peers; he made many lifelong friends while he was there. He was proud of the work that he did and retired after 25 years with the company. He was also a member of the North Webster American Legion Post #25 and attended Gospel Hill Pentecostal Church of God in Silver Lake, where he enjoyed the fellowship of worshipping with his family and church family.

He was always looking out for those that might need help. Randy's kindness was never in doubt. He was a friend to those he knew as well as to strangers. Randy always kept on his person a pocket full of mints for the kids in his life and another pocket full of treats for his granddogs. He loved history, working outside, loved gardening, and he had a love for animals and making sure the birds in his backyard were always fed and happy. Randy marveled at God's beauty and creation by simply looking at the stars on clear nights and taking it all in. Randy very much enjoyed working on projects around his home, and occasionally he loved finishing them. But above and beyond all of these things, Randy loved the Lord, loved his friends and loved his family. He will be greatly missed by the many that loved him back.

He will be lovingly remembered by his wife, Priscilla Bess Ransbottom, Silver Lake; son, Tony Neal, Silver Lake; three daughters: Shannon (Chris) Trowbridge, North Webster; Donnette (Ryan) Shumacher, Claypool; and Ashley (Mark) Howard, Columbia City; and his four favorite grandchildren: Austin, Sam and Jaclyn Trowbridge and baby Howard due in August. He also leaves behind his mother, June E. Mishler, Warsaw; brother, Dan (Eileen) Ransbottom, Claypool; and three sisters: Sue (John) Zolman, Mentone; Sara (Robert) Richard, Rising Sun; and Pam (Robert) Novak, Warsaw.

He was preceded in death by his father, Franklin Ransbottom.

Visitation will be held from 4 to 7 p.m. on Wednesday, March 24 at Redpath-Fruth Funeral Home, 225 Argonne Road, Warsaw. Randy's life will be celebrated at 10 a.m. on Thursday, March 25 at Redpath-Fruth Funeral Home and officiated by Pastor Justin Harshman, Pastor Bobby Boar and Pastor Frank Whitaker. A graveside service will follow at Oakwood Cemetery of Warsaw with military rites conducted by the American Legion and active-duty members of the Army Honor Guard.

Memorial donations in Randy's memory may be directed to Gospel Hill Pentecostal Church of God, 303 S. Jefferson St., Silver Lake, IN 46982; or to Visiting Nurse & Hospice Home, 5910 Homestead Road, Fort Wayne, IN 46814.
