Lloyd Hurley Jr.

MENTONE - Lloyd Hurley Jr., 68, of Etna Green, passed at 2:37 p.m. Sunday, June 27, 2021, surrounded by his family at his residence.

Lloyd was born on April 13, 1953, in Hurley, Va., to the late Lloyd and Lena Blankenship Hurley. He was married on March 10, 1983, in Grundy, Va., to Wanda Adams; she survives.

Junior retired from Franklin Homes of Nappanee, where he worked in the Mill Room. In years past, he enjoyed the outdoors, fishing and hunting. He was an avid motorcycle rider and he most recently could be seen on his trike. He could be found on many days watching Westerns. He loved traveling and was looking forward to going back to the mountains. Junior had a big heart and never met a stranger. He was always there to help his family, friends and neighbors.

Lloyd is survived by his wife, Wanda Hurley, of Etna Green; children: Keith Hurley, of Mentone; Missy Hurley, of Warsaw; Kellie Hurley, of Etna Green; and Frankie Greer, of Silver Lake; son-in-law, David Gill, of Etna Green; nine grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; and siblings: Phyllis Hurley, of Freeburn, Ky.; Sue Blankenship, of Vansant, Va.; Randell Keyser, of Donaldson.

Junior was preceded in death by his parents; a great-granddaughter, Paisley; brothers: Bobby Hurley, James Hurley and Eddie Hurley; and sisters: Ruby Hurley and Opal Phillips.

Visitation will be from 5 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, June 30 at King Memorial Home, 101 N. Tucker St., Mentone.

The funeral service will take place at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, July 1 at King Memorial Home, Mentone, with Pastor Ken Cooke officiating.

The interment will take place in the Etna Green Cemetery, Etna Green, following the service.

Donations can be made in Junior's memory to Riley Children's Foundation, 30 South Meridian Street, Suite 200, Indianapolis, IN 46204-3509.

Phillip Wayne Smith

Phillip Wayne Smith Sr., a longtime resident of Warsaw, passed away after a brief illness on Saturday, May 22, 2021, in Fort Wayne at Parkview Randallia Hospital. Age 77, many knew him as "Homer."

Phillip was born in Plymouth on Feb. 10, 1944. He was the son of the late Sylvester Smith and Myrtle Himes Smith. He attended Warsaw schools and was united in marriage to Laura Brandon on Oct. 28, 1961.

Phillip was a hard worker; when he wasn't working, he was helping friends and neighbors or tinkering on his own projects. Many would remember him from his time at Choretime, Barth and OEC Medical Systems.

He enjoyed woodworking, building everything from small craft projects to larger items like picnic tables and patio furniture. He also enjoyed Westerns, especially John Wayne and even square danced for a time. He liked to play cards and was in a Euchre club for many years but most of all, he was passionate about his family.

Nothing meant more to Phil than time with his family. He loved time spent with them and even served as his sons' Boy Scout leader for several years in their youth. He was a loving husband, devoted father and doting grandfather. He was a smart confidant, a genuine mentor and a dedicated provider.

In addition to his wife, Laura Smith, those who survive with memories to cherish include daughter, Bambi Hyde, of Warsaw; sons: Phillip Smith Jr., of Warsaw; and Chauncey (Aleta) Smith, of Pierceton; four grandsons: Joshua Hyde, of Warsaw; Dustin (Carla) Baker, of Pierceton; Brooks (Tyler) Smith, of Warsaw; and Jared (Taylor) Smith, of Syracuse; three great-grandsons; two great-granddaughters; and brother, Steven Smith, of Claypool. Also surviving are five sisters-in-law: Diane Smith, of Silver Lake; Sally Brandon, of Columbus, Miss.; Irma Brandon, of Warsaw; Carol Brandon, of Warsaw; and Brenda Brandon, of Warsaw.

He was preceded in passing by his parents; brother, Max Smith; and sister, Donna Kiser.

Titus Funeral Home, 2000 E. Sheridan St., Warsaw, is assisting the family. Friends may gather there on Sunday, June 27 from 2 to 4 p.m. Burial will take place privately in Oakwood Cemetery, Warsaw.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in Phillip's name may be directed to the Parkinson's Foundation, 200 SE 1st Street, Ste 800, Miami, FL 33131; or American Cancer Society, 601 W. Edison Road, Mishawaka, IN 46545.
