Ghosts! Pumpkins! Monsters! Start a spooky story time.

Picture books come to life with hoopla's Read-Along eReader. Immersive Read-Along eReader technology allows graphics to appear as they would in a physical book. Read-alongs on hoopla are accompanied by audio tracks synchronized with the book; text will highlight in red in sync with the narrative audio.

Go Beyond the Ordinary

Art house is a film genre that encompasses films where the subject matter and style may explore, experiment, and develop new conventions in filmmakers' quests to realize their own creative visions.

Film festivals are gateways and tastemakers for many art house films. hoopla curates these films so you and your patrons can create your own film festival at home or on the go. Whether festival approved or even more outside the box, these films are filled with thought and vision. Some are classic, some are new; some are foreign, some are domestic. Yet all break new ground to become a part of our hoopla Art House selections.

Introducing the new hoopla Book Club Hub Spotlight Title...

Always Available

"Wachs writes with immense love, humor, and humanity."

- Booklist

"A powerful debut."

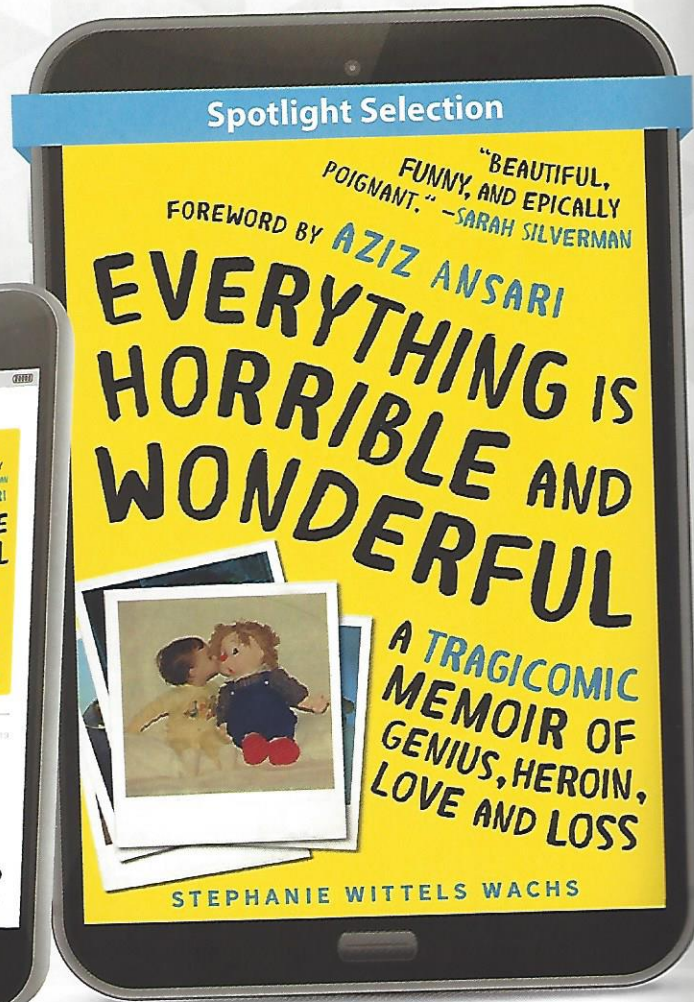

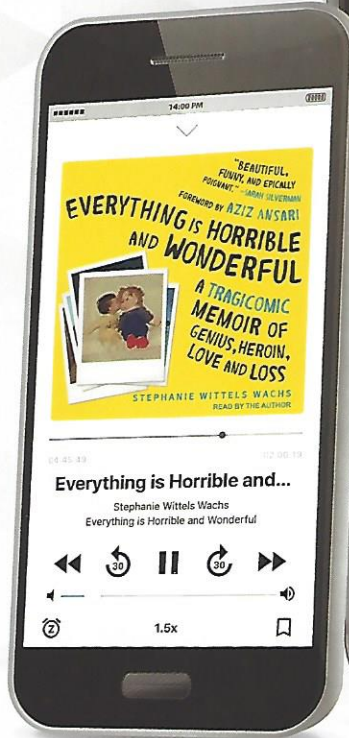

- Kirkus

"[A] touching memoir... a story ultimately about renewal and hope."

- Houston Chronicle

"Human and heartbreaking."

- Bill Clegg, NYT bestselling author

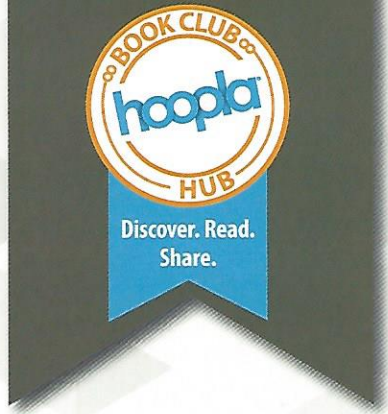

One phone call. That's all it took to change Stephanie Wittels Wachs's life forever.

Her younger brother Harris, a star in the comedy world known for his work on shows like Parks and Recreation, had died of a heroin overdose. In beautiful, unsentimental, and surprisingly funny prose, Wachs alternates between her brother's struggle with addiction, and the first year after his death, in all its emotional devastation.

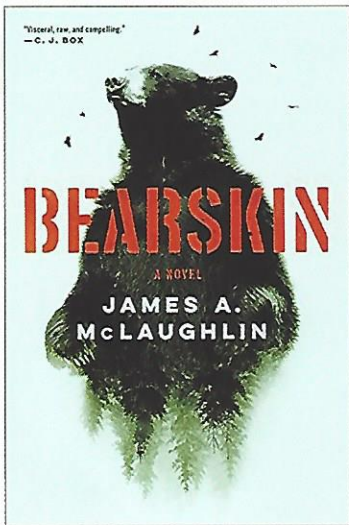

Everything Is Horrible and Wonderful is a heartbreaking but hopeful memoir of addiction, grief, and family.
